

Salem Batsmen Face Fast Company When Woodburn Takes Field Today

HIGH SCHOOLS SEE KEEN COMPETITION

Game to Start This Afternoon at 3:30 on Oxford Park Diamond

Salem high school nine will have the first real chance of the season to show its stuff this afternoon at 3:30 when the boys line up against the strong Woodburn high school batmen at Oxford Park here.

Salem, so far this season, has been off stride, and has shown in each contest plenty of room for improvement, being weak in team work rather than in the ability of individual players.

BUSES TO BE REROUTED

CITY COUNCIL GRANTS PERMISSION FOR CHANGES

A resolution allowing the Salem Street Railway company to re-route its buses on the Seventeenth street line to Fifteenth street was adopted by the city council at its meeting Monday night with the understanding that an ordinance will be drawn immediately to take care of the matter.

It was held by Mayor J. B. Giesy that a resolution is not strong enough to make a change in a franchise. In order to guard against a shortcoming, the council agreed to re-frame the provisions into an ordinance.

An ordinance was introduced and sent through its first readings that would allow the company to do away with its Fairgrounds road South Commercial street, run and substitute for it a bus run. The ordinance will be up for acceptance or rejection at the next meeting of the council.

Mayor Giesy vetoed the ordinance providing for the repayment of $6,000 from the playground and park fund to the sewer reserve fund because it was drawn up irregularly. SENATORS DEFEAT WOW NINE 2 TO 1

Bishop, Now Working to Tune Machine, Expects Marked Improvement

Salem Senators boosted their average to .500 Sunday afternoon here when they sent the W. O. W. team back to Portland with the small end of a 2-1 score. The Senators retrieved themselves in the eyes of the fans with their first defeat from the Cyclops.

Pitchers were the prime factors of the game, with Kuss of the WOW's having it a shade the best of Russell for the Senators, although not having quite as strong support.

Biddy Bishop, manager of the locals, declares he will try to iron out the remaining weaknesses of the team before it meets Fulton club of Portland at Oxford Park next Sunday afternoon.

Next Sunday's game is a matter of doubt as to the winner. Both Fulton and Salem have been defeated once by the Cyclops and have won their other games.

Salem started the scoring in the second inning when Preston, after having singled, and spurred to second on a pass ball, came racing home on Burton's single through short.

WOW's retaliated in the fourth frame when Peterson, oozing out a single and stealing to second, rounded third and spiked the home base. Blair dropped Van Hoomission's easy offering.

Salem ended the scoring in the sixth. Proctor walked, and taking advantage of the opposing
