Players on the Rosedale team were Paul Cammack, catcher;

ASK COUNTY AGENT BE GIVEN MARION

Members of the Marion County Community Federation, in session Thursday evening at the Salem Heights Community house, again endorsed the appointment of a county agent for Marion county, to begin with next year.

At a former meeting held in Woodburn the federation adopted resolutions strongly in favor of a county agent, and these resolutions were presented to the county court. The resolution declared that the Marion County Community Federation, representing 32 communities in the county, favored the appointment by the county court of a county agent who would also do the work of the county fruit inspector.

At the Salem Heights meeting Thursday evening a motion was made whereby the federation would be put on record as favoring a vote next fall for a county agent. It was explained that the appointment could be made by the county court as was done in Polk and several other counties.

As the motion to put the county agent on the ballot was not seconded, and was not approved by members of the federation, the federation now stands on record as recommending to the county court the appointment for next year of a county agent who will take over the work of the county fruit inspector.

Following a lengthy program put on by the Salem Heights Community club, short talks were made made by H. R. Crawford, recently appointed by Governor Pierce as member of the state fair board, and Louise Riggs, one of the candidates for representative from Marion county. Short reports were also made from several communities.

Lloyd T. Reynolds, president of the federation, presided. Following the program a luncheon was served.

CHAMBER DINNER FOR OLD TIMERS

Twenty-five Fiddlers to Be Present at Champoeg Day Celebration

Approximately 25 of Salem's genuine "old timers" will be guests of the Salem chamber of commerce at luncheon Monday noon. The regular members of the chamber are invited to attend.

Observance of the annual Champoeg Day is the occasion for the gathering. The guests will include only those who have resided in Salem for 70 years. They must not merely be 70 years old, but must have resided in this city continuously for 70 years. This means that the guests will have lived here since 1856, three years before Oregon was entered as a state.

Judge P. H. D'Arcy will preside

OVER 8 MILLION POUNDS OF SUGAR

That Is What It Takes to Supply Salem; About Half to Canneries

It takes over 8,000 sacks of sugar to supply Salem each year. That means 8,000,000 pounds of sugar, in 100 pound sacks. It took that much last year. It will take more this year.

In 1925 there were brought to Salem by boat from Portland, taken from ships from San Francisco, making an all water route, 58,000 of these sacks of sugar.

The Salem Navigation company, which did and is doing this sugar transportation, is now building an addition to its warehouse at its dock at the foot of Court street that will give 55,000 square feet more of room; intended to better accommodate the sugar business, and all other transportation. The addition is 59 by 110 feet. F. W. Karr, manager for the Salem Navigation company, expects to cater to this kind of trade, and all other kinds. He says the sugar rate on the boats has been 10 cents a hundred pounds, and he expects to keep it at that price. But he hopes to still have the bulk of the business by offering a better service in several different ways than may be had from any other source.

Railroad Rate Reduced

The above facts explain the following state house dispatch that was sent out from Salem yesterday:

"Freight rates on sugar in carload lots from Portland to Salem has been reduced from 20 cents to 10 cents per 100 pounds, according to a new tariff filed by the Southern Pacific company in the offices of the public service commission.

"The reduction is approximately $70 per car, based on the average tonnage of 70,000 pounds."

"The reduction was said to be due to water and truck competition. The truck rate on sugar is 15 cents per 100 pounds."

INCORPORATIONS

Southern Oregon Sales, with headquarters in Medford and capital stock of $50,000 has been incorporated by Leonard Carpenter, H. E. Eagen and G. M. Roberts.

Other articles filed in the state corporation department Friday follow:

Oregon-Washington Lumber company, Portland, $10,000; Alice A. Green.

Interdenominational Church of Shelburn, $500; Betty McLain, Gertrude Russell and Isaac A. Bennett.

Snyder Lumber company; Joseph; notice of dissolution.

Wiggin-Meyer Steamship company, Portland; notice of dissolution.

Chronometer Clocks Speed of Baseball Being Thrown

NEW YORK—Speed, always a factor in major league baseball, this year has been put to new tests in the training camps through introduction of a chronometer to time the flight of the thrower's ball.

It was found that six-tenths of a second were required by catchers to throw to second base, while the same time was consumed to shoot the sphere from first to third bases. Shortstops took five-tenths of a second to throw to first base and second basemen required four-tenths to send the ball to the same bag.
