

THE HILL FUNERAL TO BE ON TUESDAY

Will Be Held Under Auspices of the Capital Typographical Union

The funeral of Harry H. Hill, who died late Friday night at his home, 132 Miller street, will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Rigdon mortuary.

Hair Dry, Brittle from Constant Waving, Curling

The constant curling and waving demanded by present styles in bobbed hair, slowly burns the color, lustre and very life from the hair, leaving it dry, faded, brittle, and full of dandruff; then the hair roots shrink and the hair falls out fast.

Since girls just must curl and wave the hair to appear their prettiest, try "Dandergine" to offset any bad effects. After the first application your hair will take on new life and that healthy, youthful lustre, become incomparably soft, wavy and appear twice as thick and abundant. Falling hair stops and dandruff disappears.

A 35-cent bottle of refreshing "Dandergine" from any drug store or toilet counter will do wonders for any girl's hair. It goes right to the roots, invigorates, nourishes and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow thick, healthy and luxuriant.—Adv.

auspices of Capital Typographical union. Hallie Hinges will sing. Rev. Charles E. Ward of the First Congregational church will officiate.

Besides the immediate members of his family mentioned in the announcement of his death yesterday, Mr. Hill left two brothers, Frank Hill, in Minnesota, and Leon Hill, who was for a long time in the United States navy. Mr. Hill's mother died in Salem in 1904. He came to Salem from Frand Forks, N. D., in August, 1901, and took charge of the linotype machines in The Statesman office, holding that position till 1920, when he went to the state printing office. He was one of the best machinists in the whole country, and a very high class printer. He was also a fruit grower, having fine cherry and strawberry and loganberry holdings south of Salem. His loss will be deeply felt by the craft, and by many friends, who will remember his fine qualities, displayed in many ways. Mr. Hill was born May 1, 1874. He would have been 53 had he lived till Saturday. Mrs. M. D. Pilkenton and Mrs. Paul R. Hendricks of Salem are sisters of Mrs. Hill.

NOVEL SETTING IS SEEN IN FILM PLAY

"Soul Mates," Elinor Glyn Picture, Comes to Heilig Theatre Today

Scenes in an aerial express of the type which flies between London and Paris were filmed for the first time by Director Jack Conway for Elinor Glyn's "Soul Mates," at the Heilig theater today and Monday. Scenes showing the embarkation in London and the arrival in Paris of the huge machine are scenes of an actual embarkation and arrival filmed abroad while the interior scenes were photographed in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios within a set accurately reproducing the inside of such a plane.

The passengers on this trip include Aileen Pringle as Velma, heroine of the story, and Edmund Lowe as Lord Tancred, her bridegroom, flying from her in a huff to obtain a divorce at the French capital. On finding themselves fellow passengers on the plane they effect a reconciliation. The scene is one of the most interesting ever filmed by reason of the novelty of its setting.

"People have been thinking too long of milk as merely something to use in tea or coffee." —Says the Farmer Boy.

Milk is a food—not just something to be mixed with tea or coffee. It should be eaten—not swallowed quickly. To sip Fairmount's milk, slowly—means to get the full value of the health building elements it contains. As a health precaution order Fairmount milk—there's a difference.

WAR PICTURE COMES TO HEILIG THEATRE

"Flanders' Fields" Taken During World War, to Show in Salem

Actual motion pictures taken on the Western front at the cost of fourteen members of the signal corps of the United States army, will be shown at the Heilig theater this Wednesday and Thursday under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of this city. The proceeds of this show will be used to finance the cost of the Post's new set of colors and replenish their relief fund. The boys have undertaken a big responsibility in taking over the Heilig theater, but with the hearty cooperation of the membership and their many friends the show will undoubtedly be one of the biggest successes ever put over by the veteran organization.

The name of this remarkable signal corps picture is "On Flanders Field," and is an authentic picture released by the government as official. If you don't grip the arms of your chairs and become excited at many of the scenes in "On Flanders Field" it must be because you didn't "get" the world war while it was on. Anyone who can see such a sight and not feel a tightening of the throat or be profoundly stirred certainly must be impervious to the instinct of patriotism or humanity. Nothing could be more eloquent of the fact that the boys underwent a tremendous sacrifice, and displayed magnificent courage. When you see on the screen hair-raising action,—action that meant death for so many of the participants—when fine strong young men are seen to rush forward and suddenly crumple in a heap—you realize that you are watching one of the greatest dramas ever enacted—the first time in history that the happenings of a war were preserved in visible form just as they occurred.

You will be more than thrilled when giant steamers turn on end and plunge to their watery grave as shown in the "Log of the U-35" the German submarine picture captured by our destroyers which is also being shown. As the years go on such scenes will have more value, and will be a powerful deterent to those who make war for aggressive purposes. "On Flanders Field," showing as it does the soldiers as they worked, played and fought is a powerful drama of real life that everyone should see.
