Miss Thelma Pead Becomes Bride on May Day

At a quiet home wedding, which was solemnized at 8 o'clock on May day evening Miss Thelma Pead became the bride of Mr. William Harold Lane of Independence, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride at 1078 Chemeketa street.

Rev. R. L. Putnam, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, performed the ceremony, the single ring service being used. The young couple was unattended. Only relatives and close friends of the family were present.

A color scheme of pink and white was used throughout the rooms in the decorating. A beautiful floral wedding bell of white roses hung above the improvised altar. Lovely tall baskets of snapdragons, pink and white peonies and fern stood at either side. Many gardeners and bowls of roses were used throughout the rooms, the dainty baskets of pink rosebuds and gypsophila being particularly attractive. The archway was made beautiful with baskets of Caroline Testout roses.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk made elaborately with lace. Her shower bouquet was of bride's roses and maidenhair fern. She wore a lovely full-length veil of embroidered chiffon held in place by a silver hand caught at either side by tiny pink rosebuds. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

Mrs. Pead, who finished high school in Salem, is a graduate of the Monmouth Normal school with the class of '25. She has been employed recently in the State House and in the state library. Mr. Lane is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane of Independence.

Immediately after the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served, the bride cutting the wedding cake.

Miss Leona Pead and Miss Irene Lane assisted in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane left in a shower of rice and good wishes for a motor trip to points north. After May 15 they will be at home at Mr. Lane's prune ranch in the Liberty district. Mrs. Lane's going-away costume was of gray broadcloth and Canton crepe, with accessories to harmonize.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane, Misses Irene and Frankie Lane of Monmouth, Mr. George Biddlebaum of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leach of Monmouth, Miss Verty Grant of Dallas, Mrs. Edgar Kilium (Hazel Dean Long) of Eugene, and Dr. John J. Griffith of Portland.

Salem Men's Chorus Gives Premier Concert as Feature of Music Week

Salem music lovers were afforded a delightful short concert last night at the Oregon theatre when the Salem Men's chorus made its initial public appearance in conjunction with the film, "Desert Gold," and arranged as a specially planned treat for National Music week. Mr. Martin Doerfluer, well-known basso, opened the program with a rollicking solo, "Three For Jack," with Miss Claudia Lewis, a young pianist of poise and marked talent, at the piano. Mr. Doerfluer granted an encore in response to the eager applause of the audience.

The sixteen men who make up the chorus appeared in top form last night. Dan Langenberg is the director of the group and in each number produced rich harmonic effects. The Negro spiritual was particularly well done.

The personnel of the group, which the audience greeted with persistent approval, includes:

Harry L. Pearcey, Harry I. Pearson, Hurl J. Pearson, C. A. Hulsey, Ivan H. Corner, Frank Kellogg, W. H. Gilbert, A. H. Leach, A. G. Bates, Martin Doerfler, John Moritz, Vernon Tyler, Lester R. Evans, Arnold J. Wenger, Jack I. Luckner and J. H. Friesam.

WEIGHED ONLY 98 POUNDS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—"After having my first baby, I lost weight, no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better if I had another baby, which I did. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 98 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles, I weigh 116 pounds. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble."—Mrs. M. RIESSINGER, 10004 Nelson Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

If some good fairy should appear, and offer to grant your heart's desire, what would you choose? Health? It's a transient thing that brings its own cares. Happiness? It's an elusive thing which we keep by giving away. Health? That's the best gift. Health is riches that gold cannot buy and surely health is cause enough for happiness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be the good fairy who offers you better health.
