SCHOOL SITE MEETING

CALLED FOR HIGHLAND (Continued from page 1.) the growth of the city, the school board decided it would be better to erect the building on Tuxedo Park.

According to law in such matchange the site, just as there was in the erection of the Parrish junior high. And it is for this reason that the school election will be held next Wednesday afternoon. It is not voting bonds. according to the school board, but just transferring the building to be erected this year from the incoln site to the Tuxedo Park site, which is three blocks south and one block east of the Lincoln school.

The first four meetings to be held are as follows: Thursday evening, May 13, at the Highland school.

Friday evening, May 14, at the Richmond school. Monday evening, May 17, at he Parrish junior high school. Tuesday evening, May 18, at the incoln school. The very youthful son of a henpacked father was in a gloomy rebellious mood against the conditions of his life. He announced
