

Upper left: Miss Margaret Heitzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jam. G. Helzel, of 470 North Summer street. Miss Heitzer, who is an accomplished young pianist, was presented in a successful recital last month at the First Presbyterian church.

Lower left: Wayne Doughton (left), aged eleven, and Donald Doughton (right), aged four, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton.

this part of the afternoon was due to the committee consisting of Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. H. I. Standley and Mrs. F. L. Odum. They were assisted in the serving by Mrs. Savage and Mrs. Blackford, while Mrs. W. T. Rigdon and Mrs. W. C. Kantner poured.

Chadwick Chapter to Meet
The past matrons of Chadwick chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will put on the work at the meeting of the organization on Tuesday evening. The regular officers will be the hostesses of the evening. All visiting past matrons and past patrons will be especially welcomed at this time.

Mother's Day Luncheon
Mrs. W. A. Rutherford of 340 North Church street entertained at a delightful Mother's Day luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. August P. Riser of Dallas, Misses Martha Raney and Ada Rankin, teachers at the Deaf School, were the guests. Miss Rankin and Miss Raney are here from Stanford, Kentucky where Mrs. Rutherford visited one year ago.

Street Briar Club Enjoys Meeting
The home of Mrs. W. C. Franklin on the Wallace Road was the attractive meeting place on Wednesday for members and guests of the Sweet Briar club. Innumerable baskets of red roses were fragrant in the rooms. Special guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Blevins, Mrs. Noyes, and Mrs. Sarah Patrick.

Nature topics made a delightful program for the afternoon. Mrs. Blevins presented each guest with a small verbena plant from her garden. At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Karl Kugel will entertain.

In the group for the afternoon were: Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Blevins, Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett, Mrs. William F. McCall, Mrs. N. C. Petseys, Mrs. Al H. Steiner, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. James Imah, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. Theodore Madsen, and the hostess, Mrs. Franklin.

C. G. Club Compliments Summer Tourists at No-Hostess Luncheon
Entirely delightful in every way was the no-hostess bridge luncheon at 1 o'clock Thursday which the members of the C. G. club attended in the Elks' temple. The affair was in the nature of a farewell compliment for three of the members who are planning to spend the summer in the east, the three including Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Healy, and Mrs. Barr. Next Saturday Mrs. Thomas, in company with Mr. Thomas, plans to leave for Cleveland, Ohio, for an extended stay. A week from today

The long table where the luncheon was served was centered with a lovely arrangement of delphinium, pink roses, and coral bell in an exquisite blue bowl.

The outstanding floral feature on the second floor, where bridge was in play, was the beautiful basket of snapdragons in pastel shades.

Mrs. H. F. Wiggins won the highest score of the afternoon, while the second prize went to Mrs. F. X. Albrich.

In the group for the afternoon were: Mrs. T. K. Ford, Mrs. F. X. Albrich, Mrs. H. F. Wiggins, Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. J. B. Nathman, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mr. James Heenan, Mrs. S. Breitenstein, Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. C. J. Healy, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, and Mrs. G. E. Schuneman.

Mrs. Tooze Entertains Oregon City Matrons at Luncheon
A distinctive event of last Tuesday afternoon was the 1 o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. Fred J. Tooze was hostess, honoring a group of 18 members of Chapter P of the Oregon City Chapter of the P. E. O. sisterhood, of which Mrs. Tooze was the charter president. Recently Mrs. Tooze accepted the invitation of Chapter G to become a member of a local chapter of the sisterhood.

A long, low basket of pink and yellow rosebuds with maidenhair fern and heliotrope was exceedingly effective as a centerpiece. Baskets of marigold were decorative in the living rooms. Unique place cards, designed by Miss Anabel Tooze, marked covers for Mrs. John F. Clarke Mrs. Charles Caulfield, Mrs. Clara Jack, Mrs. E. W. Scott, Mrs. Christian Schuebel,

Mrs. Rudolph Cabell, Mrs. J. Burrows Caldwell, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Nelson Rowland, Mrs. Thompson Meidrum, Mrs. J. L. Waldon and daughter, Katharine, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Arthur G. Beattie, Mrs. Harry W. Paine, Mrs. John R. Oakfield, Mrs. Tracy, and Mrs. Mansfield, all of Oregon City, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Miss Helen Tooze, and the hostess, Mrs. Fred J. Tooze.

followed the luncheon. Fred Tooze, Jr., and Miss Helen Tooze, the son and older daughter of the hostess, pleasing with vocal numbers. Mr. Tooze, in accordance with the chapter calendar gave Negro spirituals for his numbers, singing "Deep River," by Burleigh; "Uncle Rome," by Homer; "Can't You Hear Me Calling Caroline?" and as an encore, "Squire's

Miss Grace Snook, Bride-Elect, Is Honored at Luncheon

A delightful affair of yesterday was the 1 o'clock luncheon at which Mr. T. W. Creech and Mrs. Roy Burton were the hostesses at the Burton home complimenting Miss Grace Snook whose marriage to Mr. Thomas Wolgomott will be announced of the early summer.

The luncheon centerpiece was a cut glass bowl of yellow and bronze snapdragons, with yellow candles in cut glass holders further ornamenting the table. Covers were placed for Miss Grace Snook, the honor guest, Miss Ada Rosa, Miss Carlotta Crowley, Miss La Verne Spitzberger, Miss Gretchen Kreamer, Mrs. Lela Newmyer, Miss Nona Yoder, Mrs. Blanche Isherwood, Miss Nell Snook of Oregon City, Miss Hazel Parr of Oregon City, and the hostesses, Mrs. Roy Burton and Mrs. T. W. Creech.

A miscellaneous shower honoring the bride-elect was a feature of the afternoon.

The announcement of Miss Snook's engagement to Mr. Wolgomott was formally announced on Mad Day, eve at an attractive dinner party at which Miss Ada Rosa and Miss Carlotta Crowley were the hostesses at Miss Rosa's home. Miss Snook is head of the physical education department at the Salem high school, while Mr. Wolgomott is prominent in the automobile business.

An affair that is being anticipated with exceeding interest is the benefit bridge tea which will be given at the Louis Lachmund country home five miles north of Salem on the river road, on Wednesday, May 26. Three prominent matrons of St. Paul's church—Mrs. Lachmund, Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Mrs. J. Rhea Luper—will be the hostesses for the affair which is a benefit for the Junior Guild.

Early reservations for tables, the list still being incomplete, have already been made by: Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. A. C. Keene of Silverton, Mrs. Donald McCarthy of Independence, Mrs. Fredrick Lampert, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. George Coding, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Fred Powell, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. John D. Caughell, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. Don Roberts, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. J. Rhea Luper, Mrs. George White, Mrs. D. F. Wagner, Mrs. A. C. P. Perry, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. W. E. Burns, and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer.

of the program. Following the devotions Mr. Ulmera, Japanese minister of Portland gave a very instructive address on evangelism among the Japanese in Japan and America. A quartet from the Christian church, including Miss Gertrude Cherrington, Mrs. Trista Powers, Miss Inez Wood, and Miss Vivian Whistler added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Three interesting talks were given by Mrs. J. W. Deyoe, Mrs. Ernest H. Shanks, and Mrs. Robert Dann on subjects relative to work of the Federation. The program was concluded with a solo by Miss Naomi Phelps, given in her usual pleasing manner.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served. The tea room was beautiful with pink roses while baskets of pink snapdragons

Dandruff Gone!
Beautiful Hair,
Thick and Wavy
"Danderine" makes your hair fluffy, glossy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff. One application dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stops itching and falling hair.

Furthermore Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow strong and beautiful.

Bobbed hair has made the girls aware of the dangerous effects of unsightly dandruff which is now more apparent than ever, since the hair is short.

Danderine is a sure way to get rid of dandruff and immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and keep that dandruff out of your hair and off your shoulders.—Adv.
