BECOME A DETECTIVE, EARN BIG money, secret investigations, and travel Write Nick Harris Professional Detec Nick Harris Professions School, Chamber of Commerce 11m16 ert Hess, for 27 years keeper of the reptile house of the Fairmount

Park Zoological Gardens. Mr. Hess believes that the lure which snakes appear to exercise over women is something deeprooted and long inbred.

"Women are fascinated by our snakes," Mr. Hess said. "They come again and again and stay for hours; some of them standing perfectly absorbed without moving, just watching the movements of the big reptiles."

The huge boa constrictors and anacondas seem especially attractive to the women visitors at the zoo, the keeper said. He attributes the strange lure of reptiles for women partly to the slight element of danger and to the stealthiness of their movements.
