

'Bubbling Over' Wins Kentucky Derby; 'Baggenbaggage' Places Second

FAST TIME IS MADE ON HISTORIC TRACK

Winner Makes Mile and quarter in 2:03 4-5; Bradley Stables Victorious

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Bubbling Over carried the E. R. Bradley colors to victory in the fifty-second Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs this afternoon. His stable mate, Baggenbaggage finished second, marking the first time that any stable's entry had finished one-two after having won and placed in a previous derby. Rockman was third and Rhinook fourth in the field of thirteen colts. Bubbling Over's time, for the mile and a quarter was 2:03 4-5, within two-fifths of a second of the derby record set by Old Rosebud in 1914. Before the greatest throng that ever witnessed the classic of American turfdom, the stout hearted son of North Star III, Beaming Beauty, raced to the front in the first quarter of a mile and stayed there. He finished five lengths ahead of his stable mate, who was three lengths ahead of Rockman.

The race was worth $50,575 to the winner which with the $6,000 for the second horse made the race worth $56,575 to the master of the Idle Hour farm.

The western colts repulsed the strongest invasion out of the east in years, for Bubbling Over, Baggenbaggage and Rhinook are Kentucky horses classed as the "west" in turf parlance, and Rockman, a Maryland animal was the only eastern entry as good as fourth. Headed by Pompey, champion two year old of 1925, such sterling runners as Rockman, Canterer, Espinosa, and Play went down to defeat in the dust of the flying heels of the Kentuck-bred thoroughbreds. Rockman was the only eastern horse that could stand the pace. The Bradley entry paid the surprisingly good odds of $5.50 for straight and place tickets and $4.00 to show on a $2 pari-mutual ticket. Rockman paid $30 to show.

TROUT PLANTINGS GIVEN BY WARDEN

Total of 186,400 Freed in Creeks According to Letter Received

The following letter has been received by S. A. Hughes, from E. F. Averill, giving details of recent trout plantings:

Dear Mr. Hughes: I hope you will accept my apology for the long delay in replying to your letter of April 24th regarding trout. Trout have been planted in Marion county this spring as follows: 17,500, Battle creek; 15,000, Beaver creek; 2,000, Bartmas creek; $1,400, Fowens creek, Morley creek, Davis creek, Butta creek, Drift creek, 10,000, Silver creek; 7,500, Abiqua creek; 25,000, North Fork of the Santiam; 35,000, Tumble creek, French creek, Idana creek. Total, 186,400.

We were compelled to liberate these trout earlier than I had hoped because we had to have the space they were occupying for the new crop of fish. They were therefore not as large as I like to plant in the streams but believe they were better than anything you have ever had before and hope that results will likewise be better. Mr. Tom Craig, in charge of our fish distribution, tells me they averaged about four inches in length. There were a few better than five inches and some that were not more than two inches, but he says the great majority were from three to five inches.

You will be interested to know that we will have a million Rainbow trout eggs for your hatchery in about ten days.

Cordially yours,
Ed F. AVERILL,
State Game Warden.

Salem Senators To Face Cyclo Club For Second Game At Three O'clock

EDWARDS TO TAKE PLACE AS CATCHER

Clash Critical to Locals With Chance to Top League Standings

For the second time this season, Salem Senators will meet the Cyclo club this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game will be played at Oxford park.

Today's game is considered the crucial one for Salem. Cyclo and Albany are the only teams so far to have defeated the Senators. Biddy Bishop, Salem manager, is not worrying a great deal over the outcome of the next game with Albany, but he is concerned seriously with the Cyclo battle.

Cyclos head the list in the greater Portland-Willamette Valley League, having gone through the season so far without losing a single game. If Salem loses today, the Cyclo is practically certain of taking the pennant.

If Salem wins, however, and later defeats Albany, she will at least be tied with the Cyclo for second place, with a good chance of romping off with the title game for the championship.

Although the Cyclo team, when it opened the season here against the Senators, showed the strongest lineup in the league, Salem's chances are considered better today. Several additions to the local lineup has led Biddy to believe that the fight is very likely to bring the desired results.

One of the most noticeable changes will be that of catcher. Frisco Edwards, said to be responsible, through his headwork, for a good share of Salem's victories last year, will be behind the bat to aid Barham in sizing the visitors up.

The batting averages for the Salem club for two or more games follow:

PADDOCK SETS NEW RECORD 100 YARDS

Spectacular Race Staged in Los Angeles; 100 Yards Made in 9.5

LOS ANGELES COLISEUM, May 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Charlie Paddock, spectacular sprinter, climaxed his season's comeback here today when he ran the 100 yard dash in 9.5 seconds, lopping a tenth of a second off the world's record for the century held by himself and several others. The race was part of the Southern Pacific AAU meet.

With every precaution taken to clock Paddock in his try at the world's record, three watches caught him at 9.5 seconds while the fourth made it 9.6 seconds. A slight wind was blowing across the track into the faces of the runners. Otherwise the track conditions were ideal.

Some of the honors of Paddock's race go to Charley Borah, University of Southern California freshman, who led the record smashing sprinter almost to Paddock's spectacular finishing leap. At the 90-yard mark Borah was leading by eight inches and Paddock was running desperately, his legs churning cinders in their usual style. Paddock's advantage at the tape was a scant four inches, the timers said.

STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO, Cal., May 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Twelve conference records tumbled into oblivion including a national collegiate mark, under the impetus of a host of flashing performances today, in the eighth annual Pacific coast conference track and field meet. Stanford university, with a total of 49 1-3 points, led a field that included entries from eight of the major institutions of the far west.

University of Southern California, 1925 national champions, was second with 41 points and California's blue and gold squad rounded out third place with 27 1/2 tallies to its credit. The rest of the teams finished as follows:

Montana and Washington, tied for fourth place with 15 points each; Washington State college 9 5-8; Oregon Agricultural college 5; Oregon 3-13.
