Mr. and Mrs. Littler

Attend Dedication Ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Littler of Portland were among those from out of town attending the dedication exercises at the YMCA on Sunday. While in Salem Mr. and Mrs. Littler were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Underhill. It will be remembered that Mrs. Littler was the president of the Mother's club when the Boys' chorus raised the first money for the building fund.

Etokta Club to Meet

Mrs. Eric Butler will be hostess this afternoon for members of the Etokta club, entertaining the group at her home, 256 N. 20th street.

Young Couple Honored

With Shower. Mrs. Earl Strassbaugh and Mrs. Wiley Weathers of South Salem and Miss Blanche Weathers of the Keiser neighborhood were joint hostesses on Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Weathers with a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway of West Salem. Seventy-five guests were present.

A feature of the evening was a clever mock wedding. The enjoyable evening closed with the serving of delicious refreshments. The young couple were married in Sumner, Wash., several weeks ago, the wedding coming as a surprise to the community. Mr. and Mrs. Weathers will make their home in Salem where they have many friends. Mrs. Weathers is Miss Dorothy Hathaway of West Salem, while Mr. Weathers is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weathers of Keiser. Many lovely gifts were received by the young couple.

Guests From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, who left recently to make their home in Portland, were guests of Salem friends yesterday.

Barbara Fritchie Sewing Club

The Barbara Fritchie Sewing club will meet on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Bach, 450 S. 25th street.

Ethel Irene Harris Becomes Bride at Attractive Ceremony

At high noon, Wednesday, beneath a bower of riotous colored flowers, Mr. Clyde Harris gave his daughter, Ethel Irene, in marriage to W. Belmont Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Russell of Eugene.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sidney Hall of Silverton, with Thelma and Raymond Blanton, cousins of the bride, acting as bridesmaid and best man.

The wedding, although only relatives and a few of the closest friends were present, was one of the prettiest ever solemnized in Brooks vicinity.

Mrs. Malcolm Ramp played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and the bridal chorus by Mendelssohn; also accompanying Mrs. Sidney Hall in a pleasing soprano rendition of "At Dawning," by Cadman.

The bride wore a shimmering creation of rose and gold trimmed daintily in black and carried a bouquet of bride's rosebuds en-ribboned with chiffon, which she graciously gave to her 86-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Blanton, after the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a gown of gray crepe de chine over pink satin.

Dejeuner in buffet mode was served by Mrs. Charles Sturgis, Mrs. Malcolm Ramp, Mrs. A. E. Harris and Mrs. Enis Wait. Mrs. William Rennie gave the bride's cake.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip through Portland, The Dalles and eastern Oregon, to return through Crater Lake park and southern Oregon. They plan to be at home by May 30 in Silverton where Mr. Russell has employment with the Silver Falls Timber company.

The following guests and relatives were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Russell, son and daughter, Ben and Maude; Mrs. Wm. Rennie and Mrs. E. W. Goff, all of Eugene; Mrs. Enis Wait, Mrs. A. W. Veatch of Salem, and from the Brooks locality, aside from those mentioned, Mr. A. E. Harris, Mrs. Charles Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hanton and Miss Ida Leshar.

W. Belmont Russell, the groom, is a graduate of the Springfield high school, later taking a two-year course in medicine at the University of Oregon. He is a young man, highly esteemed by all who know him.

Mrs. Russell is well known both around Brooks and in Salem where she went to school, graduating with honors and later taking a position in the secretary of state's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Stivers of Eugene will give an entertainment at the First Christian church this evening. A program of piano solos, vocal numbers, comic readings and novel solo will be featured. These two young people are very talented entertainers and will present an attractive program.

The entertainment is being sponsored by the Endavorers of the church who have the tickets at 35 and 25 cents on sale.

The dining room and tables were beautifully decorated for the afternoon. The hostesses, Maria Robertson, Avis Martin, Carrie Jennings, Louise Loveland and Laura Noyes served cake, strawberries, sugar and cream.
