FRECKLES

Tells How to Get Rid of Those Ugly Spots and Have a Beautiful Complexion

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine from any drug or department store and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles begin to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles.

and decorated that annex. In the front part there are four roomy booths along each wall. The booths are finished in orchid and green.

An artistic panel, depicting a nymph or faun is placed on the wall over each booth, and framed. Ample light is afforded through a large skylight, which is artistically finished with stained glass. Near the entrance of the annex is a wicker davenport, with an art mirror overhead.

An orchestra played continuously during the formal opening.

PORTLAND, May 20.—(By Associated Press.)

Oregon voters at the polls tomorrow will have a variety to pick from in choosing the republican nomination for United States senator, there being eight candidates. For the democratic nomination, the choice must be made between two. Senator Robert E. Stanfield, republican, has made his campaign of this slogan: "Present senator—member of powerful committees—helped secure largest appropriations in Oregon's history."

The other candidates and their appeals, as given on the official ballot, are:

Mrs. Rose E. Barrett of Seaside—"Service of the people and constructive development of Oregon."

Alfred E. Clark of Portland—"I stand for popular government, constructive legislation and honest public service."

James J. Crossley of Portland—"Effective prohibition, agricultural legislation, ports, labor, industries, federal reimbursement of taxes, veterans' relief."

Clarence F. Evey of Mountaineer—"America first; Oregon next. The will of the people via majority rule."

L. B. Sandblast, Portland—"Wine and beer under government control; no saloons."

A. R. Shumway of Milton—"Farmer; cooperation between the producer and consumer for the prosperity of Oregon."

ANNEXTION TO LOS ANGELES

annexation to Los Angeles had brought Venice under the Sunday closing of the water.

It is the belief of some followers that in some way or another, Amee will "come back." One man, overcome by emotion and long watch on the beach, declared he saw the image of the pastor walking on the water.

Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Mrs. McPherson, and known to the congregation as Mother Kennedy, was firmly of the belief that the evangelist had been drowned.

"This view was shared by her followers, some of the most devout holding that a miracle provided the vehicle for the departure of the famous leader.

The search along the beaches of Santa Monica bay was renewed today with the advent of calmer seas. A coast guard cutter, summoned from San Pedro, sent down deep sea divers to the ocean's floor while grappling hooks were put in play.

Numerous fishing boats, speed boats and other craft cruised the bay.

On the beach a small group still maintained its vigil. Men and women walked the sands aimlessly, wept unashamedly, and wailed and prayed. Each breaking wave was scanned by tear-dimmed eyes in the fast fading hope that the body of the evangelist would be given back to them.

"She is not dead; God would not take her from us," they moaned in another moment of hope. A strange silence seemed to come over the air since Tuesday. Nearly every day for three years Mrs. McPherson's voice has been broadcast through radio KPSG, founded by herself, and which is mounted over the dome of the temple. Services still were being broadcast, and occasionally in answer to a telephone query, Mother Kennedy tells the listeners that "Amee is with Jesus; her soul is at rest."

For America; for Oregon—first and always.

For the democratic nomination for senator, Elton Watkins, former congressman, and Bert E. Hanny, former shipping board commissioner, have been making active campaigns. There are two "wets" besides Sandblast in the primary running. Mrs. Louise Palmer Weber, who opposes Governor Walter M. Pierce for the democratic nomination for governor, favors modification of the liquor laws. Pierce is "dry."

Norman S. Richards, one of the candidates for republican nomination for congress from the third district which embraces Portland, stands for modification of prohibition laws. H. E. Crumpacker, incumbent, and B. F. Mulkey, the other candidates, are "dry."

A three-cornered race for the republican nomination for governor is one of the outstanding issues of the primary. The opposing candidates are W. A. Carter, J. L. Patterson and Jay H. Upton.

There are four candidates for the state supreme court of whom three will be nominated. All are republicans. Candidates are George H. Douglas of Douglas county, whose slogan is "Present Supreme Court Justice. Law Enforcement. Justice Fairly Administered to All Alike"; Thomas A. McBride, of Columbia county, "Present Justice of Supreme Court. Now Serving Seventeenth Year of Term. Good Shepherd of Multnomah county. Simplify Legal Procedure. Prevent Vexatious Delays on Appeal"; and Henry J. Bean, of Umatilla county, "Present Justice of Supreme Court. Now Serving Sixteenth Year. Law Enforcement."

Perhaps the most spectacular contest of the day will be between the five republican and two democratic candidates for state superintendent of public instruction. Republican candidates are: Fred J. Toole, of Salem, Marion county, whose slogan is "Oregon First in Vital Educational Opportunities for Every Child, Youth and Adult"; Charles A. Howard, of Coos county, "Businesslike Administration. Thorough and Definite Instruction. Constructive Educational Policy for Oregon Schools."

Rosa B. Parrott, of Douglas county, "The Best Educationally for Every Oregon Child is My Ambition."

W. C. Alderson, of Multnomah county, "Business in Education. Education for Business. Now School Superintendent of Multnomah County."

Mrs. Emma Bryant, of Washburn county, "Equitable Tax Distribution; Equal School Opportunities. Good Instruction in Grammar School Subjects."

Democratic candidates for the same office, with their slogans: J. O. McLaughlin, of Benton county, "More Moral Citizenship Training; Better Rural Schools; Tax Go at Lower Rate"; R. R. Turner, of Polk county, "More of Fundamentals in Public School Education—Less of Fads and Non-Essentials."

and repair of bridges and a 1.5 mill tax levy for repairing streets and sidewalks within the city, representing 4 mills.

County interest centers around the election of two state senators from the three candidates Lloyd T. Reynolds, Otto J. Wilson and Sam E. Brown, and four state representatives from nine candidates: Mark D. McCallister, A. N. Moores, Mark A. Paulson, Mrs. Louise Riggs, F. W. Settlemier, H. H. Vandevort, John B. Giesy, Samuel A. Hughes and F. J. Lafky.

Two candidates are entered for county commissioner: Jim E. Smith and John M. Watson, Sr., one of whom is to be elected. W. E. DeLong is running unopposed for constable of the Salem district.
