O. E. S. Honors Past Matrons

On Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Chadwick chapter, Mother's day was fittingly celebrated by having past matrons at night, the regular officers acting as hosts. The past matrons were in charge of all ritualistic work, and three candidates were initiated.

The lodge rooms were decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers, adding much to the beauty and impressiveness of the occasion. Past Matron Lottie Smith, pianist, and a trio composed of Sister Mollie Styles, pianist; Past Matron Marie Flint McCall, organist, and Sister Joy Turner Mogen, violinist, rendered music which was enjoyed very much by all.

A loving tribute was paid Past Matron Mary Johnson, mother of the present matron, Lelia Johnson, when Past Matron Lottie Smith sang in her honor, "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

The regular officers of the chapter paid a most beautiful floral tribute to Past Matron Ida B. Godfrey, who with Past Patron Geo. H. Burnett, acted as matron and patron respectively.

Other past matrons assisting in the exemplification of the ritualistic work, which was very impressively given, were Ida Niles, asst. matron; Minnie Mohler, conductress; Jessie Darby, asst. conductress; Emma Murphy Brown, secretary; Marion Derby, treasurer; Josephine Vass, chaplain; Rose Babcock, marshal; Mary Johnson, warden; Addie May Fetters, Adah; Hazel Gillette, Ruth; Florence Steeves, Esther; Faye Wright, Martha; Elizabeth Shafer, Electa.

Following the initiatory work the past matrons bestowed upon Past Matron Lelia Johnson the honorary degree of "The Golden Key," and presented her with a beautiful basket filled with flowers as a token of their esteem and appreciation of her untiring efforts in her work for Chadwick chapter.

Miss Hargrove, Local Artist, Is Designer of Ballet Costumes

Miss Vivian Hargrove, art instructor at the Parrish junior high school, has done some creditable work in designing the entire array of clever, picturesque and resplendent costumes which the characters in the anticipated ballet, "Birthday Dreams," will wear at the performances on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week.

Miss Hargrove, drawing from her own imagination, has devised costumes unlike anything that has ever been seen in Salem. Miss Hargrove has had considerable experience in work of this sort, having taken special work in costume designing at the University of Oregon and at the Oregon Agricultural college. Her keen interest in all work of this type has been an even more valuable asset in preparing her for the huge task that designs for a ballet of such proportions must necessarily be.

Each costume is unique, colorful and appropriate, and emphasizes in a considerable way the tendency of much decorative design on the costume itself.

The art value of the costuming for such a stupendous spectacle as the ballet is of extreme importance, creating as it does, the real atmosphere for the dancer.

Miss Hargrove has received some helpful comments from Prof. N. B. Zanic in preparing the sketches for the costumes that promise to be such a revelation.

The ticket sale for the ballet is in charge of Mrs. John J. Rottie. The production is being given under the sponsorship of the American Legion auxiliary with proceeds to go toward the advancement of important auxiliary work.

The ukelele, or singing cocanut, a new type of ukelele, also is gaining favor. Incidentally, the name of the most popular Hawaiian instrument is "oo-kay-lay-lay" not "You-kay-lee" as often pronounced.
