Miss Elizabeth Levy will hold her annual violin recital on Wednesday evening, June 2, at the First Congregational church. The date was originally announced for May 24.

Piano Program Given

The piano pupils of Mrs. Clifton Mudd gave a program of music on Thursday evening for the pleasure of their parents and friends. About fifty were in the guest group. Assisting on the program were Mrs. Fred Fargo and C. E. Muston, each giving a group of vocal numbers. Miss Jane Wpatt delighted with a reading. The First Baptist Sunday school orchestra, which is under the direction of Mrs. Mudd gave several enjoyable selections.

Pupils taking part were: Joy Gregg, Elenor Barth, Victor Barth, Leona Starr, Leddie Merrills, Elenor Henderson, Echo Hall, and Mildred Zahner.

Many Reservations Made for Attractive Bridge Tea at Lachmund Country Place

Elaborate preparations have been under way during the past three weeks for what promises to be one of the most delightful and distinctive benefit affairs of the entire social year. The affair, a forty-table bridge tea, will be given on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock at the Lachmund country place, five miles north of Salem on the River road, with Mrs. Olaus Lachmund, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, and Mrs. J. Rhea Luper, the hostesses. The benefit is being sponsored for the direct benefit of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

A number of parties, including both men and women, are planning to motor out to the Lachmund place between four and six, when tea will be served on the tennis court.

Mrs. Ans Strong, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, and Mrs. H. D. Chambers have been asked to preside at the urns.

Assisting in the serving will be Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Miss Helen Roberts, Miss Nancy Thiel
