

Salem Senators Meet Reorganized WOW Team, Today

LEAGUE CLUB OUT TO COP VICTORY

Frisco Edwards Behind Bat, Barham on Mound, Locals Are Ready

Salem Senators will clash this afternoon with the WOW club of Portland. The game will be played at Oxford Park and will start at 3 o'clock. Salem is considered favorite in the contest, holding second place in the Greater Portland-Willamette valley league, while the visitors are at the bottom of the list.

Since last Sunday, however, several changes have been made in the WOW lineup, in a last desperate effort to snap out of the slump and rise out of the basement. With Frisco Edwards behind the bat, however, to help Barham size them up correctly, there is thought to be little chance of the Portland club's putting over the unexpected.

One of the games drawing considerable interest today is that between the Cycloids and Fulton, both Portland clubs, who will play on the Vaughan street grounds. Should the Fulton boys succeed in defeating the Cycloids, and should Salem defeat the WOW's, the local team will be tied with the Cycloids for first place in the league. So far, the Cycloids have received only one defeat this season; at the hands of the Senators last Sunday.

Earl Kuss, considered one of the best twirlers in the league, will be on the mound for the visitors today. Barham will probably start for Salem.

All the best players in Portland feel that this Greater Portland Valley league is the fastest in the state. Biddy Bishop, manager of the locals, says, "and they all want to jump the clubs they are now with and join one of the major clubs."

This second round of play will be much faster. The Portland clubs have first chance at these players, and they all have it in for Albany and Salem. They will do their best to keep the pennant away from the valley towns, but we are not asleep and will reinforce if necessary.

We have several good men in sight, and when the time is right they will be here. I am sure the local fans will be pleased as they see big favorites here in Salem. I have games in sight with the Portland Beavers and the Kelso and Longview teams.

WOODBURN TAKES FIRST IN TRACK

Grade and High School Athletes Meet in Contest at Sweetland

Woodburn high school won first place in the county high school track meet on Sweetland field Saturday afternoon. Silvertown high came in second. Nearly every high school in the county was represented.

Events for the girls were 50 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 440 yard relay, and baseball throw.

In the county-grade school meet the morning Silvertown contestants placed first, with 29 1/2 points. Stayton came in second with 26

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard, sore, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calms down without soreness or irritation.

HUSKIES WIN FROM TWO OREGON TEAMS

OAC Varsity Loses 77-54; U. of O. Freshmen Defeat 61 2-3 to 61 1-3

STADIUM, SEATTLE, May 22.

—(By Associated Press)—Under a bright sun, on a dry field, two University of Washington track teams defeated squads from Oregon in this bowl today. Five hundred people saw the Huskies conquer Oregon Agricultural varsity, 77 to 54 in the afternoon. The Washington freshman captured a forenoon meet by 51 2-3 to 61 1-3 from the first year team of the University of Oregon.

Only one record was broken, and that was stadium mark. OAC's mile relay team winning in 3:24.8, two tenths of a second faster than the Husky time in the University of Washington relay carnival last year.

James M. Charteris, Seattle, national collegiate half mile champion, with a mark of 1:55.4, cut down the Aggie lead two yards in the last lap of this race, running against Bayard Shison. Charteris slumped upon a bench at the finish, losing by five yards after extending himself to his limit.
