FORTY-SEVEN

The soft toile de Jony hang-ings at the window of an apartment off Lake Shore drive in Chiblew gently back and forth Jocelyn shru the refreshing breeze, and it's over with." ruffled the negligee of the shade of green orchid which scarce concealed the ivory shoulders of Miss Jocelyn Johnstone. She was seated before an elaborate dressingwhich was her altar. She d out her short hair until it tistled on either side of her face. Now she rubbed cold cream into her flesh, wiping away the discarded artificial complexion with a towel. Then she carefully made up again, applying fresh carmine to her lips, new rouge to her cheeks, and outlining her eyes with a blue pencil. Presently, still sitting before her dressingshe lighted a cigaret and egan to reflect, one knee resting lightly on the other, swinging her leg backward and forward, from the foot of which a satin mule, the toe sparkling with an infinity of tiny mirrors, depended. Her thoughts caused her to sigh. She was getting tired of this business of giving her heart ka way. However, he's married." and taking it away again. After nan wants to commercialize her heart. . . Why, for instance, shouldn't she marry a man like John Ingate? She did'nt love him, but for that reason, no bt, she could make him a good wife, she decided. . . He was not a bad sort Central City was a nice town, not too large for her to be a person of importance. Beides old acquaintances would be ess likely to run across her in such a place. . . But, her mind told her, the suit had spoiled evhing. Stil, possibly . .

Her meditations were disturbed by the ringing of the telephone bell. "Mr. White wishes to be aned." the knowing voice of the telephone operator downstairs

She was not sure she wishes to see Reggie White this evening. It was late, and she was tired, and she wished to be alone. But her hesitation was of no consequence anyway, for the operator contin-"He's on the way up."

Miss Johnstone threw a soft e of the color of silver about which, however, did not hide bare ankles. After releasing the latch on the door she sat down ee the lights blinking along Wilson avenue in the distance.

cause of his delight in the knowledge that she didn't grasp the significance of the appelation. Miss Johnstone had returned only that morning from Central had seen Reggie White since the promise suit against John Ingate. she did not reply to his greeting eyes by the open window. When Reggie came over to kiss her she submitted without feeling.

"What's the matter . . . Really Ingate asks aid.

Tangent

family reunion of the Col-

was the only member of the Rev. A. B. Pendleton has had large black walnut tree pruned

the parsonage for many years.

day of this week.

nd grafted with English walnuts

at Corvallis Saturday.

held at the home of H. Sunday. It was the first in 35 years. J. W. Colin love with ()utgate?" Reggie White was always twisting people's names, under the impression that it was humorous.

Jocelyn shrugged. "I'm glad "I was around to see our noble lawyer this afternoon. He says s compromise looks easy. He-. "I was against a suit, Reggie," she crisply announced. "It's-. "Don't get chicken-hearted.

He'll settle quickly enough now. Think he wants his letters published? Think he wants a comedy put on in court, with him as the

"Well, our noble lawyer's sly little threats didn't seem to terri-

"Well, a suit's different. No doubt his women folks are already frantically beseeching him to settle."

"Probably." She remembered the elder Mrs. Ingate with a frown. Women like Mrs. Ingate were the drawback to marrying men like John. . . . "Who is this new egg you want me to meet?"

Jocelyn frowned. "And I suppose he's some big hulk with the intelligence of a movie actor. . . . I'm getting tired of all this, Reg-

The visitor smiled knowingly. little gray home in the westpart of Central City."

Contemptuous silence was her reply to this. Reggie went over to the phone and ordered ginger ale sent up.

"Found some good stuff on my little ramble with this butter and egg man. You must try a highball. Don't suppose you've been drinking much lately.' "I don't want anything to Reggie White regarded her with twinkling eyes as he sat Jocelyn reflected a moment. down and lighted a cigaret. Whew! this Ingate buy seems to have a kick."

Jocelyn looked over at him sav-"He has some idea of decency. It was a new experience." Reggie White drew up his mouth in an amused expression. "Save it, Josie, save it! Those tears will be worth $10,000 each in the court room."

"I'm not goin gto go into a courtroom with this. If it has to by the window where she could go that far, then I'm out of it." Reggie White's expression soways called her that, particularly You'll stick to the end. It's rathknow. Jocelyn Johnstone gave a nerv-City, and it was the first time she coming entwined in the toils of the law. The fiasco which had filing of the $100,000 breach of forced them to flee New York had given her a bad case of fright, and it was with difficulty that Reggie White had persuaded her to go on n of the sight revealed to with the game of blackmail, in Florida first, then Chicago.

> (To be continued.) In the next instalment: John

COUNTY NEWS BRIEFS Mrs. H. J. Parker of Salem, with her husband, visited with her mother, Mrs. E. S. Fox, who is confined to her bed with illness. C. Terhun is ill at his home

> Mrs. Hensley has recovered from ber recent illness. Mrs. Nina Jenks and family left Friday for Baker City, where they will visit with her father, a min-

nver, Wash., Ira Colby and ister in the South Methodist

Charley Colbry of Toledo, Ohio, The high school wil The high school will have a picers. Frank Marford and baby of nic at Triangle lake, near Junction St. Louis, Mich., Mrs. M. A. Bor-City, on Thursday. Miss Jamie den, Buckley, Wash., Mrs. Hanna Farmer and W. E. Obermeyer will Carson of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Gardner of Vancouver, Wash. Early silo filling has how begun act as chaperones.

Pringle

O. E. Scott and family visited ch, when matured, will supply relatives in Portland Sunday. A surprise party was given to in Gresham the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parker by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Meeks enthe young people of Tangent last tertained friends from Canby Sunevening. Miss Ida Williams and day.

Mr. Parker were married Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wright are enjoysenior examinations were ing a visit from Mr. Wright's sisgiven on May 24 and 25, and the ter and her husband, the McNamder of the high school an- bas of Portland.

given on Tuesda and Wednes-Mr. Lewis of the boys' industrial school officials, visited the Pringle afte a number of Tangent res- Sunday ts attended the Legion tourn- a short talk. The crux of the strawberry pickbaccalaureate sermon de- ing is over for the season. The ed by Rev. A. B. Pendleton of crop was a disappointment to most sthodist church on Sabbath growers, both in quantity and ig was much appreciated by quality.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Gillett of ready. t, who has been teaching in Volunteer potatoes are large hiant, is spending his vacation enough for table use. with his parents on the farm near If the weather is fair the cher ries will be sprayed this week.

Mrs. Sanders and children are trip to Dallas Wednesday returning from Portland and will spend the summer on the farm. L. Fox and family made a Clarence Tandy and Ardys Stewart visit with their parents here art were callers at the Crystal Springs farm Sunday evening.

FLAG COUPON

Three of these coupons and 98c when presented at or lled to the Statesman office, 215 South Commercial reet, Salem, Oregon, entitles you to a beautiful American Flag, size 5x3 feet as advertised.

At the New Elsinore

Richard Dix is pictured above in his role in "The Vanishing American," now playing at the Elsinore theatre. The film is a dramatization of the famous Zane Grey novel and is without doubt the greatest thing since "The Covered Wagon."

Lurner

The musical recital given Saturday by the violin, piano and cornet pupils of Mrs. C. V. Clodfelter, proved to be a fine musical entertainment. Falls City visited in Turner Tues-

School closes June 4, with the graduating exercises the evening school auditorium. President an addition to the house. "I suppose you have visions of a Landers of Oregon State Normal will give the address.

C. A. Bear left Sunday for his Cleave. May 23. Mr. Bear will likely re- at G. G. Looney's Sunday. turn home before the middle of , Mrs. Kirkpatrick and grandnear Spring Valley, Minn.

Mrs. J. F. Lyle went to Portland the first of the week and atives to her old home in Idaho. week. S. A. Riches, Mrs. W. V. Riches and Mrs. O. Hasslett were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Ida Robertson was in Salem Wednesday.

F. M. Bear and wife of Crawfordsville were guests at the C. A. Bear home Sunday.

Levi Webb came from Roseburg Sunday morning for a visit with his family. Mrs. S. Talbot is back in the bank after spending her vacation bered and a cruel light entered with her children in Washington.

> There will be no preaching service at the Christian church Sun-

Sunday at the home of a brother. Lloyd Hill near Gervais.

C. R. Apple and family called now live near Albany.

George Moore and family and parents spent Sunday at Mill City. Mrs. Clem Tracy was in Salem

County Superintendent Fulkerson was at school Wednesday. The baccalaureate sermon will

M. E. church. T. B. Funston has recently purchased an auto.

The friends of Perry Baker are pleased to know he is able to leave the hospital and be at home.

Hazel Green

Charles Johnson, brother of F. O. Johnson of this place and which to make fine selections. Best Corolyn Johnson of Los Angeles quality. 333 State St. and Mrs. Rodgers of Hubbard, died Sunday. Mr. Johnson's parents were among the first settlers of this community.

rand Mrs. Rickman's mother, Mrs. Kohow of Claxter, were visitors at C. A. Kabows Sunday.

are worth living for.

of earlier days.

and Mrs. Ellis Hill and Delbert

The Stayton Canning company

s still turning out strawberries at he rate of 100 barrels a day. The intermittent showers which have prevailed throughout the month

have almost doubled the quantity yield, and has greatly enhanced the quality of the fruit. The ing at the home of his mother Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvill Adams came over from Roseburg Saturday to participate in the birthday festivities of Mr. Adams' stepfather, was prepared for the occasion

Ephriam Shepherd was born

June 29, 1840, passed away at

Klamath Falls, Ore., May 27,

1926, aged 85 years, 10 months and 28 days. He was a Cival war to the grave. In 1889 he with his family came to Oregon locating in Stayton, where he resided continuously until two years ago when he went to Salem where he has since made his home with his perform that duty son Memorial maining charter member of the Stayton grange, the membres of which paid his memory the highest tribute by attending the funeral in a body. He leaves three children, Mrs. Minnie Brotherton

of Klamath Falls, Or., Jesse Shepherd at Salem, and Adam Shepherd, Gates, Oregon, eight grandchildren and one brother Asbury Shephery of Selah, Washington.

Funeral services were held from the Weddle mortuary Monday af-

Methodist Episcopal church officiating. A military service was ed and a flag salute by the reand there, under the folds of the flag of his country which he has served so faithfully and so well,

"Eph" Shepherd as he was affectionately known by his host of friends, was laid to his long rest.

Liberty

erty hall Thursday evening to witness the program of the graduat-

R. D. Gibson presented the diplomas to the 12 graduates. There vere six girls and six boys in the Principal D. A. Hoag presented

ing class.

class

and Clyde Hill of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Luckey and Rev. Miss Luckey went to Portland Thursday.

Miss Wilma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Davis has return-Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bowman of ed from Astoria, where she spent the dancing. the winter with her sister Mrs. George Dunigan and attended high school.

Mr. Miles, who bought Peter of June 3, to be held in the high Wolke's farm recently is building under his charge.

Mrs. Sarah Morgan of Molalla is visiting her brother John Van old home near La Porte, Ind. His Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Blodgett Allie Brewer. Mrs. J. H. Brewer, who recently was injured in an aged father being seriously sick, of Auburn and daughter Mrs. Later word came he passed away Shepherd of Denea were visitors auto accident, is rapidly improving from her injuries.

June, after visiting en route with sons Paul and Francis and granhis daughter, Mrs. R. E. Stewart daughter Ruth were dinner guests of daughter Mrs. N. G. Davis Charles Hall. A special dinner Thursday.

The road was improved in this which was much enjoyed by all will take a trip with Portland rel- part of district by grading last present.

Little Miss Edna daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Luckey celebrated her birthday Sunday with cake given by bakery with one veteran, serving his country on candle. Those present to enjoy the battlefields from 1861 to 1865 the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Joe when at the close of the war he Zelinski and children Lawrence was honorably discharged. In and Clarence. Nina and Gertrude 1875 he was married to Hester and Mr. and Mrs. Luckey and Anna Sergers, who preceeded him children Earnest, Iola, Cecil. Kenneth and Norman.

Stayton

Monday afternoon and the graves of fallen heroes decorated. Mayor George Keech gave a splendid member of S. A. Hunter post G. patriotic address, followed by a A. R. and has served the post as solo by Mr. McClendon and Lin- color bearer for 30 years upon all coin's address at Gettysburg by public occasions and his greatest held Sunday at the Odd Fellows Don Goode, made up an interesting concern during his brief illness program. The business houses all was his inability to be able to closed during the afternoon. day. He was also the only re-

Miss Susan Kearns entertained group of friends at her home over the week-end. In the group were her cousin, Mrs. Lizzie Blakeley of Roseburg, Mrs. Blakeley's on old friends Wednesday. They daughter, Ruth, who is a student at Monmouth normal school, two young lady friends of Miss Blakeey from Monmouth, and Vern Schrum of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lisley and son Wilbur left Saturday morning for Pendleton for a two weeks' visit with their son, Oliver P. Lisley. From there the party expects to travel by auto through Montana and Utah, seeing the great Salt Lake and other points of interest en route. They plan to be absent held at the graveside, taps soundbe preached for the high school from home for some time.

Many of the old-time residents maining members of the G. A. R. of Stayton were here Sunday and Monday looking of ter the graves of departed loved ones and visiting ld friends. Prominent among the number were Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Hobson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Siegmund of Garibaldi, Mrs. fulia Downing of Wendling, Wade Chomas and wife of Molalla, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pennebaker of

Mrs. H. P. Stith, millinery. Most beautiful hats in Salem; all Jacob Johnson and Albert and shapes and colors; full stock from

Army and Outing Store. Biggest bargains in clothing, shoes, underwear, hosiery, gloves, valises and suit cases. The working man's Mr. and Mrs. William Rickman store, 189 N. Commercial.

Portland, H. Schellberg of Salem following pupils were neither ab- past 18 years in Alaska. Mrs. M. Fery, a former resident of Stayton, came over from Port- sent nor tardy during the year: and first of the week and is visit- Lee Ohmart, Veneta Rains, Dor- Jorden Valley Monday to bring ing her sons, Andrew and Frank Fery on their farms west of town. Mrs. Fery is 86 years of age, but Dasch, Orpha May Dasch, Homer is still active and alert and finds Stiffler, Lester Browning, Wilma many things of interest in life that Westenhouse, Magdalena Schmidt, A reunion of the Hill family was Melville Kolsky. held here at the home of Mrs.

An all-day picnic was held in Mary Hill Sunday. Among those the school basement and hall. The comprising the party were Mr. and weiner roast and dinner was en-Mrs. Frank Potter of Portland, Mr. joyed at noon. and Mrs. Lafe Hill of Salem, Mr.

School will resume in the fall with three of the present teachers: Principal and Mrs. D. A. Hoag and Miss Neva Coaley. Miss stock. The pioneer store. Jessie King will have charge of the intermediate room.

Hazel Green

cherry and loganberry crop is now Sunday school will have Chilready for harvest and will be coming to the cannery in a short dren's Day program June 6, at 11 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Byerly of Willie Williamson and Anna Zelinski were married at Kelso. Rickreall drove over from their Wash., last week. The young Polk county home Sunday and spent the day here among friends. folks gave them a noisy reception Mrs. Byerly spent her girlhood Friday evening.

Mrs. Lenz and daughter, Irene days in Stayton where she attended school, and took keen delight of Stayton was a week-end guest in visiting the old familiar haunts of his sister, Mrs. B. C. Zelinski. Rev. Miss Paige of Portland is The second of a series of dancvisiting Mrs. Luckey.

ing parties to be held in the open Mr. and Mrs. Flave Meyers and air park pavilion this season was children of Salem were Sunday enjoyed Saturday evening by a visitors of Mrs. B. C. Zelinski. large number of young people. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Van Cleave

Excellent music was furnished for and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Looney and children went to Mr. and Mrs. George Mielki and Macleay, Saturday. son, who spent Memorial day here, Mr. and Mrs. Domgolla and returned to their home in Portland Monday. Mr. Mielki is one children of Salem were visitors at Mrs. Domgolla's brother B. C. of the sales force in Olds, Wortham & King department store, hav-Zelinski Monday evening. ing the trunk and suitcase line Miss Dorothy Scabee of Salem was a week-end visitor of Misses J. H. Brewer and family were Phoebe and Carol Keiser. here from Tillamook Sunday visit-

Miss Carolyn Johnson who spent the winter in Los Angeles is to 13 pupils perfect attendance visiting her brother Albert John- Notice of Intention to Improve Let certificates for the year. The son. Miss Johnson has spent the

Mrs. Willie Williamson went to othy Browning, Dorothy Pearson, her son, Donald home. He was Lillie Pearson, Verda Rains, Helen visiting his grand mother. Mrs. Pepperling. Miss Laura Pepperand expedient and hereby declares ling accompanied her sister, Mrs. Williamson, home for a visit. prove Lee street from the Turner

Mr. and Mrs. R. Slater of Roseburg were week-end guests of Mrs. Slater's parents, Mr. and Twenty-second street, at the ex-Mrs. G. W. Davis.

F. E. Shafer's Harness and alley intersections, the expense of Leather Goods Store, 170 S. Com'l. which will be assumed by the City Suit cases, valises, portfolios, brief of Salem, by bringing said portion cases, gloves and mittens. Large of said street to the established (*) grade, constructing Portland cement concrete curbs, and paving

C. A. Luthy. Reliable jewelry said portion of said street with a store. What you are looking for in jewelry. Where a child can buy as safely as a man or woman. Repairing in all lines.

every day supplying best homes mon Council May 17, 1926, now on with bakery goods of all kinds; file in the office of the city recordbaked in a kitchen clean as your or and which said plans, specifiown. 345 State St.

Salem Markets

1, red, sacked ite osts Gray oats . PORK, MUTTON AND BEEF Top hogs Dressed hogs -Spring lambs under 80 lbs. ____ Light-hens18@.22 Old roosters ..

Creamery butter

Standard oggs

six-inch Portland cement concrete pavement twenty-four feet wide (*) in accordance with the plans, specifications and estimates therefor, The Bake-Rite Bakery. Busy which were adopted by the Comcations and estimates are hereby referred to and made a part of

Street From the Turner Road to

the East Curb Line of Twenty-

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it necessary

its purpose and intention to im-

Road to the east curb line of pense of the abutting and adjacent property, excepting the street and Second Street.

The Common Council hereby declares its purpose and intention to make the above described improvement by and through the street improvement department of the City of Salem.

this notice.

Written remonstrances may be filed with the city recorder of said city against the above proposed improvement within ten days from the date of final publication here-

By order of the Common Council May 17, 1926.

M. POULSEN, City Recorder, Date of first publication hereof May 25, 1926; date of final publication hereof is June 5, 1926. m 25; 1 5, inc.

Rickenbacker

A Circat Reduction

It is fitting that we should show our appreciation of the acceptance accorded Rickenbacker Motor Cars, by giving to the public, the price reduction made possible by our increased volume.

Many cars in the Rickenbacker price classification have some of our engineering features, but in no car, except a Rickenbacker, can they all be found.

See and drive this wonderful car, the greatest six-cylinder value on the market.

F. W. Pettyjohn

365 North Commercial Street a * * * * * * * *

Fireproof Storage --- Fuel --- Transfer Coal and Dry Wood at Reasonable Prices

Crating — Local and Long Hauling — Moving

143 South Liberty Telephone 930