Margaret Legge Becomes Bride of Wallace Griffith at Rose Garden Wedding

The south lawn of the F. A. Legge home at 1499 State street, shaded by immense maple trees, formed a beautiful setting for the rose garden wedding of yesterday afternoon at which Miss Winifred Margaret Legge, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge, became the bride of Mr. Wallace Clayton Griffith, youngest son of Mrs. J. Griffith. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock, with Dr. Norman Kendall Tully, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the officiating clergyman. The single ring service was used.

An improvised pergola, with ivory prayer bench and tall ivory baskets filled with summer garden flowers, made a fitting altar in the garden space enclosed with lattices and evergreens.

The bridal party left the hall where the Legge coat of honor hung and descended the veranda steps as Mrs. Axel Eoff played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride chose as her only attendant her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Legge, who acted as matron of honor. Mr. Ellis Von Eschen, a Willamette university friend of the groom, served as best man.

The bridal party was preceded to the altar by little Miss Josephine Morse, flower girl, and little Master Richard Steeves, ring-bearer. Little Miss Morse is the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Morse (Marlie Steeves) of Vancouver, Wash., while Master Steeves is the three-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves.

The bride was charming in an exceedingly becoming creation of rose georgette and ecru Venice lace, with ornament of rhinestones. The gown, made with three pleated godets in the front of the skirt, with two graceful panels from the shoulders to the hem in the back, and having pleated inserts in the long sleeves, was worn with an overdress of ecru Venice lace. A picture hat of rose-pink hemp straw, with silk ribbon crossing the crown, and a pink waterlily on the brim completed the color scheme of the bride's costume.

Her ornaments were the groom's gift of pearls and the diamond brooch that was the gift of her parents. Her bouquet was a lovely shower of Pilgrim roses in shades of rose-pink with cream-colored sweet peas, and white and white tulle streamers in which tiny Cecil Brunner roses were caught. The bride's slippers were of silver.

Mrs. Kenneth Legge, the matron of honor, was lovely in a two-tone frock of rose georgette, with ornament of cut steel and fagoting trim, with pleated cape and two-tone box pleated skirt. Her hat, a model of the picture type, also combined the light and the deeper rose. Mrs. Legge carried a beautiful arm bouquet of butterfly roses.

Little Miss Josephine Morse, the flower girl, wore a diminutive frock of ruffled rose georgette and carried a basket of roses with an intermingling of sweet peas to match those of the bride's bouquet. Master Richard Steeves, the ring bearer, wearing a suit of rose-pink linen, carried the ring in the heart of a rose.

F. A. Legge gave his daughter in marriage. During the ceremony the bride stood on the Paisley shawl which belonged to her grand mother.

Immediately preceding the service Miss Eleanor Moore sang "At Dawning," Mrs. Axel Eoff playing the accompaniment.

Stationed at the gate to greet the guests were Miss Beatrice Lockhart of Portland and Miss Jennelle Vandevort. Miss Georganne Hodder and Miss Josephine Albert attended the guests as they reached the house.

A reception on the lawn followed the wedding, with the serving taking place in the house. Mrs. Errol Proctor was in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd presided at the urn, while Mrs. C. M. French of Portland cut the ices. The reception table carried out a color scheme of pink and silver. A centerpiece of sweet william and candytuft was used in a low bowl, while exquisitely slender rose tapers glowed from silver holders. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Paul Morse of Vancouver, Wash., Miss Genevieve Junk, Miss Erma Reynolds, Miss Lola Millard and Frances Hodge.

Mrs. F. A. Legge, mother of the bride, and Mrs. J. C. Griffith, mother of the groom, assisted by Mrs. B. L. Steeves, received the guests at the reception hour.

The bride was made the recipient of all manner of lovely gifts in silver, cut glass, electrical fixtures, furniture, pictures and exquisite linen, in addition to telegrams. Mrs. A. A. Lee had charge of the gift room.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffith are members of prominent pioneer families whose residence in Salem covers a long period of time. Both are graduates of Willamette university. Mrs. Griffith is a prominent member of both the Beta Chi sorority and of the Adelante society. Mr. Griffith is a member of the Theta Alpha Phi dramatic fraternity and of the Alpha Kappa Nu, honorary scholastic fraternity.

Mr. Griffith, who will engage actively in educational work, is making extensive plans for the furtherance of his study, both on the coast and in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith left immediately after the ceremony for Seattle, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Griffith's going away costume was of gray Poiret tulle, with squirrel fur trim, and novel sleeves embroidered in blue and gold. Her hat was a close-fitting model of blue and gray, with accessories chosen to harmonize.

One hundred and twenty-five invitations were issued for the event. Among the out-of-town guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Josephson and family, Mrs. Sarah M. Dalrymple, Mrs. O. E. Krauss, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sigel, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fraden, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gundy and family, all of Portland; Miss Helen Pearce of Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cook of Chetek, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Currie of Macleay; Miss Helen Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alm of Longview, Wash.; Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Lockhart, Mrs. D. M. French of Portland; Mrs. Constance Hodder, Miss Georganne Hodder and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leudemann of Portland; Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Quisenberry of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKeuen and Mrs. F. A. Ferguson of Hood River, and Mrs. Errol Proctor of Portland.

Morris-Taylor Nuptials Solemnized in Portland

A simple but very pretty wedding took place in Portland, June 6, 1926, at the home of Mrs. Walter Taylor, formerly of Salem, when her aunt, Mrs. Rose Evelyn Gamble was united in marriage to Phillip Curtis Morris.

The bride was lovely in a gown of poudre blue georgette with rose colored hat. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds.

As a departure from the usual order, they were attended by their two sons, Francis Gamble and Phillip Morris, Jr.

Only the relations of both parties were present at the ceremony which took place at 8 o'clock a. m. Rev. John F. Dunstan of the Highland Congregational church officiated and Mrs. Walter Taylor played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Pink and white were the color schemes, tiny pink kewpees marking the places. In the center of the table was a bowl of pink rose buds.

The rooms were prettily decorated with pink roses and delphiniums and fern.

Mrs. Morris is a native of Denver, Colorado, but has made Salem her home for a number of years.

er the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Those present were Misses Effie Grimes, Sophia Bruce, Genevieve Martin, Ruth Burch, and Susan Martin, and Clyde Strausbaugh, Dale Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blake, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Strausbaugh, and Rev. Erskine.
