

Berlenbach and Young Stribling Meet Tonight in Yankee Stadium

LIGHT HEAVY BELT AT STAKE IN FIGHT

Opinion Seems to Favor Stribling for Speed; Berlenbach Has Reach

NEW YORK, June 9.—(By Associated Press.)—Paul Berlenbach, the world's light heavy weight champion, has a slight advantage in reach, but Young Stribling has a margin in height for their title bout tomorrow night at the Yankee Stadium. Statistical comparison of the two gladiators follow:

Berlenbach	Stribling
24 years	21
5 ft. 10 in. height	6 ft.
17 neck	16
40 chest normal	37
44 chest exp.	41
75 1/2 reach	74
13 1/2 biceps	13 1/2
13 1/2 forearm	13 1/2
21 thigh	23 1/2
32 1/2 waist	30 1/2
8 1/2 ankle	9 1/2
175 weight	175

NEW YORK, June 9.—Paul Berlenbach, world's light heavy-weight champion, will encounter one of the most formidable foes tomorrow night at the Yankee Stadium when he will battle William L. (Young) Stribling, rugged young Georgian, in a 15-round title match.

Preliminary opinion has for the most part favored the chances of Stribling whose speed and boxing ability, now apparently at a high peak, have been figured to offset the awkward aggressiveness and punching powers of the champion. Today, however, there was a noticeable trend in the sentiment toward Berlenbach.

Both fighters are in excellent condition. Stribling already is a pound or two below 175-pound limit. There is not likely to be much difference between them when they scale in officially tomorrow afternoon. In their only previous clash they fought to a six-round draw here in 1924. That was before Berlenbach held the 175-pound title and before Young Stribling had reached his majority. The Georgian is 21 now, three years younger than the champion.

Close to 50,000 fans are expected to witness tomorrow's battle. The "gate" may reach $200,000, in which case Berlenbach receiving 37 1/2 per cent, will get about $75,000. A few years ago he was driving a restaurant delivery wagon at $12 a week. Stribling's share will be 12 1/2 per cent.

Four preliminaries, starting at 7:15 p. m., eastern standard time, are scheduled. The main bout is scheduled to start not later than 9 o'clock. Fair weather is promised.

Sour Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent bottles, any drugstore.—Adv.
