Sunday's Games
St. Johns vs. Salem at Salem.
Cyclons vs. Albany at Albany.

It will be a vastly improved St. Johns team which faces Salem here Sunday in their Greater Portland-Valley league, a team that has been strengthened by the addition of new players, a team that has been steadied by the injection of veterans into the lineup.

One of the most noticeable changes will be the infield. Earl McCulloch is still at the first base but the old, reliable Porter Yett, ex-Fulton field captain, has replaced Lauren "Cranky" Harris at second base. Not that Harris wasn't a good ball player, but because he has joined Clarke's in the Montana Mines league.

With the aid of Yett, who has been playing with Portland semi-pro teams since 1925, the Bears have been playing a much better fielding game.

Then there is Johnny Faust who has been moved from third base to shortstop. John has been giving Portland fans a thrill with his shortpunching, going to the right or to the left, up in the air or down in the dirt, but coming up with the ball. Marty Peptich who started the season with the Cyclons, has taken over the third base job. Marty didn't get a chance to play regular with the Cyclons and was not able to do himself justice when he did get in the lineup. But since joining St. Johns he has been playing a wonderful fielding game and hitting like a million. Eddie Zetler is utility infielder.

In the outfield will be Eddie Foss and Jack Olney, who were with the Bears on their last trip here, and Flash Barrett, ex-Portland center. Phil Helm, Dixie Moore and Gus Melcher, the latter a husky southpaw will share the pitching honors. Fred Helmer will be behind the bat. "Spider" Fegan may be seen as backstop.

The game is a rather crucial affair, inasmuch as Salem is but half a game behind the league leading Cyclons, who tangle Sunday with Albany, a none too easy opponent.

The race for the pennant is more frantic than ever since the dropping of Fulton and Woodmen from the league during the past week. Salem has a splendid opportunity to pass Cyclons Sunday; a Salem victory and a Cycl loss would turn the trick. Both Albany and St. Johns must be considered as dangerous, in fact there is not a weak team left in the circuit.

The game here Sunday will start at 3 o'clock.

BERLENBACH SIGNS WITH JACK DELANEY

Match Scheduled for New York on July 15; Have Fought Twice Before.

NEW YORK, June 15.—(By Associated Press).—Paul Berlenbach, who is fast breaking all modern records for championship fighting activity, will battle his foremost rival, Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., in defense of the world's light heavyweight title on July 15 at Ebbetts field.

The date and place for the match were fixed today by Promoter Humbert Fugassy, after a conference with the state athletic commission.

Delaney and Berlenbach have fought twice before. The former knocked out Berlenbach in the fourth round in 1924 in their first bout. He came close to repeating the trick last December at Madison Square Garden but Berlenbach rallied and pulled victory out of the fire to save his title.

MISUNDERSTOOD, MISINTERPRETED

Irving E. Vining, president of the State Chamber of Commerce, who spoke at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday regrets that several of his statements were misunderstood and misinterpreted by the press representative.

Mr. Vining's opening statement in regard to local hotels was that they possessed good and comfortable accommodations, but that the city had no outstanding hotel that would attract coast-wide recognition.

Mr. Vining also stressed the fact that in certain sections of the state he had visited recently, local products were not served and he insisted that hotels should carry on their menu the best grade of seasonal products for accommodation of the visiting public.

No criticism in this special regard was directed to Salem hotels, although the newspaper representative in an article published in yesterday's edition misquoted him in this regard.

Direct and severe criticism was made by Mr. Vining in regard to our auto camp and its equipment, and this criticism was apparently confused in the mind of the reporter and directly applied to our local hotel situation.
