President of Salem Business and Professional Women's Club Gives Annual Report

Of special interest, now that the annual convention of the ctate Business and Professoinal Wonten's club is in session, is the fol- enjoyable affair as to menu and

I have the honor to report concerning the fiscal year fust closing on the Salem Business and Prefessional Women's club, that we have gathered twice each month year for the Salem club. during the entire year, including the summer months, and the attendance has been excellent, inspired in great measure by the interesting programs provided by the committee, of which Miss Ro salia Keber has been chairman.

These programs have consisted of music, several playlets by groups of our members, occasionally an entertaining stunt and always a talk by some member of the club who is doing things or by someone who could give us an unusual message. One time it was our own Miss Prichard and a group of state officers, which all greatly enjoyed; at another time we listened to a truly practical talk on the World Court and international problems by Professor Laughlin: again, Rev. Fereshetian gave us a talk, urging us to hold to high ideals; Dr. J. N. Smith, superintendent of the satte school for the feeble minded one evening brought us a very enlightening message on the work of that institution. We were given an evening at the state school for the deaf, with demonstrations of the work of making these otherwise normal children into self-supporting, educated and cred table citizens. Mrs. W. H. Surghardt entertained us one eveing with the story of a several months' trip in Europe from which she had just returned. Mr. Harry N. Crain talked to us on the advantages of city zoning at another

Our club has not added to its funds to any great degree during the past year; however, by a rum mage sale and from a few other sources we have somewhat increased our fund, which we hope at some time to invest in a ciub home, though we do not feel the preent need of such a home so keenly, perhaps, as we would were we not so fortunate as to be allowed the use of the well equipped halls of the chamber of commerce. We are proud to say that we have been able to be of some little help in the community, having had a part in the council for aiding the Marion County Child Health Demonstration; having helped one chool girl with books and clothing; giving $13 towards the honpital for treatment of unfortunate girls which is being built in Port land in connection with the Low se Home; also having raised withwo days, almost entirely within our membership, sufficient funds to pay the transportation of Miss Hilda Hughes, a Salem girl who, school for the deaf, won a scholar-ship to the Gallaudet college for ship to the Gallaudet college for

One of the important actions of the club this year has been the preparing and securing the adoption of a more complete set of bylaws than that under which we have been working.

As to social affairs, we indulged in quite a gay Christmas party. and delegations from the club joined the Silverton club at one banquet staged in Portland last fall when we heard reports of the national convention, and wer otherwise entertained.

Our annual banquet was a most ning was Miss Rose E. Parrott of Roseburg, who talked to us on "Your Business and Mine." Our new corps of officers is now
