MOUNTAIN LAKES, N. J., June 25.—(By Associated Press.)— Suicide was the verdict of Coroner Volker after an investigation of the death of Mrs. Kate Jordon Vermilyea, authoress and playwright, whose body was found in the woods here this morning. Besides the body was found a partly drained bottle of disinfectant. Mrs. Vermilyea wrote under the name of Kate Jordan. Her books included: "Time, the Comedian," "The Creeping Tides," "Against the Winds," and the most recent "Trouble - The House," published in 1921.

ADMINISTRATOR'S FINAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator has filed his final account of the estate of Michael O'Neill, deceased. with the clerk of the county court of the state of Oregon for Marion county, and an order has been made and entered by the said court fixing the 17th day of July, 1926, at ten o'clock in the forenoon as the time for hearing objections to said final account and the settlement thereof; and that any creditor, heir, or other person interested in said estate, may, on or before said time, show cause why said account should not be settled and approved as rendered. Dated this 17th day of June, 1926. JOHN BAYNE, Administrator of the Estate of Michael O'Neill, Deceased.

SENATE IN QUANDARY OVER FARM MEASURE

(Continued from page 1.) burst of oratory, Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, supported the Watson motion; Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, spoke in support of Robinson's tariff proposal, and Senator Fess argued for his plan. A vote on the Watson metion finally was blocked when Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, got the floor and held it until 5:30 o'clock when the senate recessed under a previous agreement. Before the maneuvers crystal-

Norbeck export bounty amendment by a vote of 55 to 16, and moved on the Lenroot farm loan substitute for the McNary bill, rejected yesterday. In endorsing the Tincher bill, which would approximate $100,-000,000 to be loaned to farmers through cooperative organizations

ized, the senate had rejected the

to export surplus crops, the president said he favored "this type of legislation," as he was "convinced chat immediate action along such lines will profoundly assist the farmers." "I have advised the congress from time to time of the necessity of further assistance in order that the farmers' position may be finally and fully restored upon a permanent and sound basis," he added. "I sincerely believe that legislation making possible this important and effective further sten 'n better organization of marketing, in the control of the farmers themselves, will bring these results which we all desire. Such tegislation is of great importance to the country."
