THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

The	e Or	ego	n S	tat	est	na
Surentians	and the second se	the second se	ly Except M	And the second se	-	1.19

CARLES IN A REAL PROPERTY OF A	Contrast Contrast Card Canality	the second s on M. Merrinan - Teler	Manager W. H. Hand sping-Editor Ralph H. Kl Oity Editor Prank Jacks Traph Editor E. A. Rhotes ciety Editor W. C. Conne	ating Advertising Manager aki Manager Job Dept.
The Associated Press in	BEE OF THE ABSOCIATED exclusively entitled to the me set otherwise credited in
Albert Byers, 336 Wercest Thomas P. Clark Co., Nev Doly & Payne, Sharon Bid;	York, 128-136 W. 31st 8	Chicago, Marqueste Bidg.; gins Bidg. Los Angeles, Oplif.
Business Office	TELEPHONES: Greulation Office.588	News Department. 25 or 106 Job Department. 588
Entored at the Po	at Office in Salem, Oregon, as	second-class matter.
		Hangale - Mandal Handhir An An An Ann an An
Press and a second second second	A CONTRACTOR OF A CONTRACTOR O

June 27, 1926 GOD IS LOVE-"If thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be bedient unto His voice. He will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee." Deut. 4:30, 31.

"OFFICIAL SAW AIMEE IN TUCSON"

Many good people have no doubt wondered at the appar ent determination of a certain class of newspapers, or perhaps it should be said newspaper head writers and telegraph up." editors, to show up the dark rumors concerning the disappearance of Aimee Semple McPherson, the woman evangelist of Los Angeles-

The seeming glee taken in assuming that the various nasty insinuations concerning the absence of the woman were true-

Institutions evidently originating from depraved or cynical minds.

There was a case yesterday. A newspaper scare head screamed: "Official Saw Aimee in Tucson." In reading below the screaming banner it was found that the "official" was the "building inspector" of Tucson, Arizona; that he had come onto the train as it passed through that town and asked to see Mrs. McPherson, at a very early hour in the morning, and had told her that he saw her four weeks ago in Tucson; that he knew her by the color of her hair and her slight interests. figure.

The "building inspector" of Tucson, Arizona, is likely of dreadful!' the size of Clarence Blakeley in Salem. He was told by a detective with Mrs. McPherson to write it down and send it to Los Angeles_

The detective was too polite to throw the fellow off of the train.

Any one who has ever had any experience with such young things, above all el sires happiness. Not mat cases knows that the testimony of such witnesses as the enough to know happiness Tucson "building inspector" is as unreliable, on the average, out the restful, restlessly she as the prattle of the average inmate of the padded cell at out to find it. And in the a fashion of young things. Dr. Steiner's institution at the end of Center street in Salem. Why do the newspaper head writers and telegraph edit-

Her elders overlook the fact "Ob. Say! Did You Hear?" I wo friends meet casually upon that discretion and poise come ity street. Let's 'listen in' on with the years and that real virtue is not ignorance nor stupid pasir brief conversation. Where are you and your wife sivity, but rather the result of ing now, Bill? You were about temptation met, understood and withstood, forget the days of their move the last time I saw you." "What? As long ago as that, youth and open their eyes, throw a, since last we ran across each up their hands and begin to babher? How time does get away ble when Jane comes in sight. "Good gracious! This makes m us! Come up and spend an ening with us at No. 461 three times this week she has gone enue. Glad to have you look riding with that Graham fellow. "Yes, and last night she sat on r new quarters over. Just give a ring, though, when you're the back porch until midnight idy. You know how it is. Wife with the youngest Jones boy." d I step out a bit when there's "And Jolks say she goes to dances at the lake!" body expected."

"Dear me, what is her mother "Thanks, old man. I'll take you thinking of? I'd hate to have a up on that. By the way, I suppose you're seeing a great deal of Bob daughter of mine running around Blank now?" mentioning a mutual so!"

for his friends of former days. Then John comes in "No. Haven't seen Bob in ages! | share. Strange your speaking of him. I "My sakes! That boy's on the was thinking only the other night road again! Driving as though it was too had I had lost track of the old boy were after him, and him. Does he live near us? Give stirring up more dust than a drove me his address and I'll look him of cattle.

"Doesn't he ever stay home? "Well, you'll not have to look Heard he broke an axle last week. far nor waste much time in the Lucky if he doesn't break his search." laughed Jim. "Bob lives neck. Did you hear he's gambling if unoccupied by Spiritualists, - avenue, too!" now?' at No.

"Great Scott! That's a good one "Mercy! What is the world on us both. Bob and I under the coming to!. I feel so sorry for his need of a large auditorium such same roof and neither of us knowpoor mother!" ing it! We three will have to get So on ad infinitum. The worst together soon and talk old times of it is, most that is said is neithover. So long, Jim." er true nor deserved, nor is it "So long, Bill!" As casually as meant maliciously. Yet it works they had met the two parted to havoc untold. come together again by chance or Jane is hurt by the censorious by choice, but not with any cerwhisperings; she grows reckless, tainty of daily occurrence. wilfully flaunts her disregard of . . . public opinion-and in the still This is a true story. Such situwatches of the night sobs into her ations can and do arise in a mighty metropolis, where the best of pillow.

In the little community there is friends are separated by high business pressure and diversity of warmth of affection, depths of unselfishness, generosity unbounded. But it is there, too, where rumor "We can scarcely believe it!" "How takes wings and gossip goes about cry the small towners.

seeking whom it may devour. Things would be ten It is! Lcneliness gets in its

SPIRITUALIST CHURCH READY FOR PASTOR landowner of Leroy, which left 1100 acres of rich farm land in this county, valued at $300 per acre, for the erection of a church for followers of Spiritualism, and public.

FIRST SPIRITUALIST The First Spiritualist church of Salem will hold services at their hull, over Millalso for a public library. The aps store, this Sunday evening, June 27, proximate value of the bequest er's store, 7:30 o'clock. was $330,000.

7:30 o'clock. The meeting will be in charge of local in the meeting. The speaking and messages. is cordially invited. The will was written in 1901 but was not admitted for probate

SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1926

JASON LEE MEMORIAL M. E. until 1905, following the death of North Winter and Je/erson avenue Thus, Acheson, pastor, Gilbert Wrenn, as the testator. As soon as the docu-Thes. Acheson, parts, it he Junior church, sistant, in charge of the Junior church in the This church invites the public to join it in the services of worship to be held ment was filed, its validity was attacked by relatives who had This church invites the public to join it in the services of worship to be held bere on the coming Lond's day. The large stone building will offer you a cool, rest-ful place in which to worship. The church school convenes at 9:45 a. m., with classes for young and old. The Rible is taught by competent teachers. Public worship at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning theme: "The Man Whom Jeaux Saw" by the pastor. At the evening been ignored and who put up a bitter fight to have it set aside on the ground that Crumbaugh was of unsound mind and memory, and not competent to make a will. The final ruling from the suaw," by the pastor. At the rvices a mass meeting will be preme court sustained the will and services a mass meeting will be held in the interest of law enforcement. Mr. E. A. Baker will deliver an address, and the moving picture entitled "The Triumph of Justice" will be displayed. Three chafters of the Epworth League will meet for devotional service at 7 p; m. The open forum for adults meets in the church annex at 7 p, m. Thurder the directed the trustees to carry out the instructions of the eccentric testator. A year ago plans for the church were submitted and approved and the contract let for the church annex, at 7 p. m. Thursday the Junior and Senior churches will meet for mid-week service in the Englewood Grove construction. In a short time it will be formally opened to the Schars home, 2390 Nebraska ave A warm welcome awaits friends Although the will provided for and neighbors at all the services. two buildings, one for the church ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL and the other for the library, the Church and Chemeketa Sts. Rav. H. D. hambers, rector. Corposate celebration trustees" decided the combine the Eucharist for men and boys two, using a portion for books and at 7:30. All fathers invited. The men and boys will breakfast in the parrish house. The church school will meet at a reading room, while the church, 9:45. Morning prayer and sermon by the rector at 11 s. m. All welcome at St. could be available as a public meeting place, Leroy being in Pauls.

CHRIST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN State and 18th Sts. G. Koehler, pastor unday school at 9:30 a. m. Divine serv as the new church provides. The princely bequest, therefore. ce in English at 10:30 a. m. Young pe will not be wholly wasted thanks meeting at 7 p. m.

to the good judgment of the trus-INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS tees, although there is a possibil-ASSOCIATION itles that the relatives, cut off in

Meet every Sunday in Derby Bldg., Court and High streets. Hours 10 to 12 a. m. and 3 to 4 p. m. All interested in Bible study cordially invited. Funeral the will, may start a new round Bible study cordially invited. Funeral services in Salem and vicinity conducted of litigation because the two structures were not kept separate as free of charge by local Bible class. Phone

FIRST EVANGELICAL

Center and Liberty Sts. F. B. Culver, astor. Sunday school 9:45. L. L. Thorn-on, superintendent. Preaching 11 a. m. Subject : "Prayer and Revival." Evan ague of Christian Endeavor 7 elical league of Christian Endeavor 7 pm. Anna Miles, president. Evangelisti services 8 p. m. Thursday evening, July 1st, Rev. G. L. Lovell, presiding elder of the Salem district, will bring a a mes-of the sage following which the business first quarterly conference will be one will be engaged until it is trans-

> CHRISTIAN SCIENCE, FIRST CHURCH Sunday arhool sessions convene at 9:30 and 11 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonia eting at 8 o'clock. Reading room 209 Masonic temple, open every day except Sundays and holidays from 11 to 5:30, every evening except Wednesday and Sunfrom 7:30 to 9:00; Sunday after from 3 to 5. day

> > CASTLE CHAPEL U. B.

NAZARENE 19th and Marion Sts. Pastor: C.- H.

Hopkins, assistant pastor, Mrs. Hopkins, 1960 Marion, Phone 479-W. Services; 11

KNIGHT MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL

19th and Ferry Sts. Pastor: H. C. Sto rer, 245 S. 19th. Phone 1924-J. Services

10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sermon topics: "Which Way," evening: "A Christian Experience," evening. In the morning service Norval Edwards and Donald part nien part hoffman, 1713 Nebraska Ave. Pastor, P. C. Hoffman, 1713 Nebraska Ave. Services: 11 a. m., and 8 p. m. Sermon topic: ''Is Prayer Workable!'' Evening sermon, 'Spiritual Life.'' Sunday school: 10 a. self Junior and Senior, 7 p. m. Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon, Prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Experience," ev service Norval

church With a Family Spirit." State St., where hundreds of peo-ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC ple prefer to eat. All you want to Corner Chemeketa and Cottage Sts. Pastor, Rev. J. R. Buck, 751 Chemeketa CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY eat for less than you can eat at ALLIANCE Pastors: H. E. Caswell and Mrs. Cas well." 2660 Oak St. Phone 942-M. After 89. Services: 8 and 10 a. m me. quality Sermon at 8 o'clock mass from the gos-pel of the day. Benediction follows last mass. Week-day services: Mass at 7 a. m. went zoon ond m. rone service 1 p. m. Subject: "A Second Chance." Evening evangelis-tie service I:45. Sunday school, 2 p. m. Tuesday evening Evangelist F. J. Betts ts to he with us and conduct the service. Sing road through city. pel of the This achedule will obtain during the sumcompany asks franchise for log-ST. VINCENT DE PAUL-CATHOLIC Highland and Myrtle Avenues, Rev. Thos. V. Keenan, pastor, Phone 1374. During the summer months masses on Sunday are st 7 and 9:30 o'clock. Bene-Sunday are at 7 and 9:30 o'clock. Bene-diction of the Most Blessed Sacrament follows the lata mass and hence there will be no evening devoluons. During the week mass is celebrated at 7 o'clock. Next Thursday, July 1, is the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. Fri-day, July 3 is the First Friday and therefore Exposition of the Blessed Sac-rament and muss will take place at 7 o'clock and Benediction will be given im-mediately afterwards. There will be no afternoon services on the First Friday. Confessions as usual on Thursday after-noon and evening.

MARKET ST. FREE METHODIST

Corner N. Winter and Market Sta. Pas-tor: Mortimer C. Clarke, 1228 N. Winter, Phone 1355-W. Services: 11 a. E. and 8 p. m. Sermon topics: "The Dek Dreach ed Life," morning: "The Peril of Pro-crastination," evening. Sunday school. 1920. Services: 11 s. m. and S p. m. Ser-mon topics: "The Greatest Command-ment," morning: "Helping God.," eve-ning, The evening program of music and sermon story will include: Anthem, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus," Rathhun, Chorns choir Duck erastination," evening. Sunday school: 9:45. Superintendent: Dr. F. S. Schutz, There will be no young peoples meeting at the regular time on Sunday evening at the young people are in Newb trict convention. There will be Heard the Voice of Jesus, 'Rainbun, the y Chorus choir. Duet: 'Just as I Am.'' trict Jabriel Mrs. Shanks and Mr. Robertson, meeti Violin solo: selected, Helen Selig-O'Neil, be co Sunday school; 9:45 z. m. Superintend-ent: Ed Schunke. B Y. P. U. led by ciatig Walizer Lotts, The morning sutherm.''The ing o colden Threshold.'' Lobr. Contraito solo: Quint Beside Still Waters,'' Hamblen, Miss Fres. meeting this Thursday as this church will be cooperating in the annual camp meeting of the Marion County Holiness asso-ciation which begins its ten days meet-ing on the Evangelical camp group as Quimby, All are welcome to the Corner Capital and Marion Sts. Pastor: M. Denny, 966 Marion St. Phone 445 W. Services: 11 a. m. English. Sunday school 10 a. m. Superintendent, Fred E. Kruse. EVANGELICAT. EVANGELICAL Corner Chemekets and N. 17th. Pastor: G. E. Erskine, 368 N. 17th St. Phone 1008-W. Services: 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sermon toples: "Foundations of Paith." norming: "Unrecognized Doors of Hope." evening, Sunday school: 10 a. m. Superia-tendent: O. H. Strausbeugh: Evangelical lengue and Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., serder Martha Garniobat Mid-awat oray.

BETHANY REFORMED

CENTER ST. METHODIST

13th and Center Sis. Pastor: A. F. Hi mer, 684 N. Winter, Phone 680 M. Ser-ices, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sermon topics "Christ Specifying in Prayer," morning: "Christ Specifying in Prayer," morning: "Paul's Second Missionary Journey," evening, Sunday school at, 10 o'clock. Superintendent, H. H. Grallap. Epworth league at 2:30 conducted in English. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. Ladies' Alde-meets at the residence of Martin Schreiher, 2305 Nebraska Ave. Thursday 2:30 p. m. Thursday 2:30

FORD MEMORIAL M. E.

on topics: IL

'Chris

the pattern

Schee

opics; 'Excelling in Righteousness,' norning; 'Borrowing Light,' evening martet: 'Still, Still With Thee,' Dust: Quartet: "Still, Still With Thee, Dust: Messrs, Wolfe and Leach, Sunday school: 9:45 a. m. Superintendent, H. C. Epley. Young peoples' meeting, 7 o'clock A missionary meeting on Japan and Kores, Rosalind Hall, leader. Church night West Salem. Pastor: P. L. Cannell, 15 Front St. Phone 1841-R. Services morning Pellowship," evening. Rosalind Hall, leader. Church night services in the church parlor Thursday 9:45. Superintendent, D. C. Sebern. E. worth and Junior league at 7 o'cloci evening at 8 o'clock. This will be the Lord's day before the Tarner convention, there will be no services at the church the following two Lord's days. worth and Junior league at 7 d Week-day services: Prayer meeting day at 8 p. m. The pastor will both morning and evening. Week-day services: Prayer meeting Thurs

FULL GOSPEL MISSION 237 State St. Pastor: Ralph D. cck, 251 Mission St. Phone 1439 W.

ing in the open air at the water's edge is anticipated. The Lord always demon-strates His miraculous power at the wa-ter in true Apostolic fashion as it is adpublic is invited. Transportation will be provided from the hall between 2:30 and 3 p. m. Special evangelistic meetings will ministered according to the p found in the Acts of the Apostles.

GLAD TIDINGS MISSION GLAD TIDINGS MISSION 343 ½ Court St. Pastor: C. S. Johnson, 4935 Maple. Phone 1917. W. Services: S and 8 p. m. Sunday school, 2 p. m. Su-perintendent, S. Berkey. Meetings Tues-day, Thursday and Saturday evenings. We preach and teach of the old time re-ligion. Salvation, baptiam of the Holy Spirit and the coon coming of Christ. sistant pastor: Harry J. Morriss, Silverton Road. Phone 15F14. Services: and 7:30. Sunday school at 1:30 Instead of the usual afternoon at 1:30 p. m. Instead of the usual afternoon meeting in the hall, there will be a special baptismal sorvice at the river in the West Salem avto park at 3 p. m. this Sunday. There are people expected to be present from surrounding towns and a glorious meet-ing in the open air at the water is done

Beside Still Waters, Hamblen, Miss Irace Fawk, Mid-week prayer gervice at leader, Martha Garniobst, Mid-week pray-er service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

FIRSE OHRISTIAN

Corner Center and High Sts. Pastor: E. C. Whitaker, church. Phone 294. Assiat-ant pastor: Vivian G. Whisler, phone 294. Servicess 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sermon

p. m. Thursday.

topics:

SOUTH SALEM FRIENDS

ommercial and Washington Sts. Pas Carl Miller, 1655 S. Liberty. Phon Con 133-R. Services: 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sermon topics: "Foundation Stone." young people who attended N. P. I. the past year will have charge of the night meeting. Sunday school: 10 a. m. Superintenden⁴. Dr. Carl F. Miller. Prayr meeting and monthly business meeting 'hursday 8 p. m. tentine every night this coming week at 7;45 except Monday under the leadership of Evangelist Harry Eillings, who will be with us as long as the Lord leads. The sick will be prayed for Friday nights. COURT STREET CHRISTIAN Court and N. 17th Sts. Pastor: R. L. Putnam, 1106 Leslie St. Phone 1425-J. pastor: Mrs. R. L. Putnam. Ser Tyler's Corn Remedy takes the Junior pastor: Mrs. R. L. Futnam, Serv-ices 11 a. m. and 7:50 p. m. Junior serv-ice 11 a. m. Sermon topics: 'The Re-ward of the Overcomer,'' morning; 'The Way of God,' evening, Music furnished by Mrs. Joy Turner Moses' orchestra, Sunday school: 9:45 a. m. Superintend-ent: E. W. Cooley, Volunteers visit shut-ins in afternoon. Christian Endeavor 6:30. Young neonle enjoy the machines Church oreness out of those corns you've been trying to-rid yourself of for months. One trial and you will be convinced. Sold only by Ty-lers Drug Store. (*) oung people enjoy the meetings. Church ight, Thursday 7.9 p. m. Volunteer eeting and outline study of Life of For real kodak finishing, and Stereopticon pictures of Holy The annual convention of the hand coloring take your films t/

Patton's Book Store, 340 State St., Christian churches of Oregon will be held at Turner, Oregon, July 3:10. There will be no services except Bible school in the local church during the convention. We where you get guaranteed artistic work. invite anyone who can to attend the White House Restaurant, 362

the testator stipulated. The trustees, since the announcement that the church was nearing completion, have received some applications from men who claim to be leaders in the Spiritualistic faith and who wish to be placed on the payroll when the church is dedicated. However, no ors of a certain type of newspaper, and of some types that ought to have higher ideals, do that way; write that way; give that slant to the news?

WS

It is because, in the main, they want such things to be. They think it makes better news. They think a crooked thing is live news. They hope all such incidents as the disppearance of Mrs. McPherson may turn out to be on account of something crooked or nasty-

And they know a great proportion of newspaper readers ike to read of crime and slime better than to read of great and good deeds and kindly and sympathetic acts.

it, he argued, like its in Otherwise even the purient minded and sensational and peaches, its thick-skinned or cynical among newspaper head writers and telegraph and and plums. He thought of th news writers and editors would give different slants to their work.

which God's plan was carried out.

would not have been preserved and

1. The mother's wit.

THE CHILDHOOD AND EDUCA-, the place where Pharaoh's daugh ter came to bathe, and believed TION OF MOSES. that somehow through her the Lesson Text-Exodus 2:1-10; child would be saved. She placed Lets 7:22.

the ark at the particular place Golden Text-Train up a child where it would attract attention. in the way he should go, and when It is interesting to note the steps he is old he will not depart from as pointed out by another, by it .--- Prov. 22:6.

I. Moses' Parentage-v. 1. Both father and mother were of

She placed the baby at the prop-Levitical stock. Being from the er place and at the opportune same trike, they had a common time. Then, too, Miriam was no band of interest and sympathy, doubt stationed as a watch to aid band of interest and sympathy. Amrain had the good judgment to in the affair (-v. 4). 2. A faithful sister-(v. 7). choose for a wife a woman who massessed sympathies and ambi-Had Miriam not been faithful, humanly speaking, Moses' life tions in harmony with his own.

II. Moses' Birth-v. 2.

Two children were born to Am-ram and Jochebed before Moses-Aaron and Miriam. However, Mo-a worthy example for every sister, ses was the first one that his moth- causing her to exercise watch and care over her. was assured was to be the deliverer of the chosen people. There 3. A woman's curiosity-(v. 5) This strange object among the was something striking about this child which caused her to believe flags attracted the attention of hat it was sent of God. She saw Pharoah's daughter and she diat he was a goodly child." In rected her maids to bring it to her. ephen's speech-Acts 7:20-he 4. A woman's compassion-v. 6) When the ark was brought and ing fair," or fair to God. No opened the baby wept. That wom uht his mother believed him to an has lost her feminine instine he the deliverer of his people and who is unmoved with compas stilled that truth in his mind at the cry of a lonely, motherles m childhood. Because of this haby. lief she had confidence that 5. The baby's tears (v. 6). show God would save him The tears aroused her wou m the cruel hand of the king. nstinct, and at the suggestion o

III. Moses' Preservation-vv.3-Though Pharaoh's edict was in Miriam the baby's mother hired to nurse her own child. No one can nurse a child so well as its , his mother's faith was such to cause her to ignore it and own mother. ses for three months. The IV. Moses' Education-(v. 9). ling of the child was not bees was first educated at me of tear, but because of 1. Mor his mother's knee. Hob. 11:23. It was her During this time his charac h which made her brave to igthe king's edict. Though ook form. Here his mind wa alled with the Word of God and h other had faith, she did ignore the proper use of was made acquainted with the of her mother, to keen bian was that Jowish hopes and prospects. In should be de- these early years no doubt the inwise for this child. Perhaps the suffer affliction with the people of It was not until Mary came back y of how Noah and his family food rather than to enjoy the pleas- as Sylvia Thorne with hardest licks in the crowded

But there is another side to Jane, high-headed, gay-he vibrant with the sap of life

courses through the veins

FOUR Mr. Howard Bennett, sp through the late afternoon shine in the direction of Lo geles, decided that he did no California. There was som big and pulpy and tasteless autumn foliage, the tang of in the air, the opening corn. native Pennsylvania, and w ed how anyone could enjoy initely this land of perpetual ness and sunshine. To a large extent this a on Mr. Bennett's part was An Eastern born and bred, a uate of a famous New En college, he held as a matte principle that the Atlantic. states were the best states in the suit most assidyously, not only union, that Pensylvania was the during Sylvia's stay, but afterbest of the Atlantic coast states, wards, by letter, nor from making and that Millersburg, which had this second trip across the contigiven him birth, was the best town nent in order to persuade Sylvia to reconsider her decision and alof its size in Pennsylvania. Had modesty permitted him to go low him to place the engagement farther, he would doubtless have ring he had ready for the occa-said that the Bennetts were the sion on her finger. As Sylvia had It said, Howard was "set in his best people in Millersburg. went without saying that they ways," like all the Bennett's. "To were the richest. Old Hiram Benmake him want a thing it was nett, his grandfather, had built the only necessary to let him think he could not have it. And he wanted first sawmill in the county, and from lumber to coal, from coal to Sylvia very much indeed. For the electric light and street railway matter of that, so might any man franchises were easy and natural There were several in Hollywood steps. As a result, his father, who did. Stephen Bennett, was accounted a large fortune. fashioned by an exclusive tailor, and gave its wearer a suggestion It caused no rejoicing in the Bennett family when Howard, the of Fifth Avenue, New York. The fluffy-haired girl who followed year after his return from college, began a whirlwind courtship him from the train gazed admirof Sylvia Thorne. The girl was on ingly at his smartly groomed back and wondered if he was some new a visit home, then, after her first year in Hollywood. It was true, as and to her, unknown star in the screen firmament. Yet Howard Sylvia had told Jean, that she and Howard had known each other Bennett did not particularly sugsince childhood, but Sylvia had been Mary McKenna in those pre-movie days, and although her father, Jim McKenna was the progest a movie star, but rather the smart young college or business man, with a pleasant but by no means over-intelligent face, small eyes, a stubborn and rather weak prietor of Millersburg's leading. and only, bookshop, and a far bet ter-read man than any of the Bennetts, he moved on a different He had wired Sylvia not to mee plane, socially, When his daugh him at the train; the taxi driver ter Mary had been a snub-nor would have no difficulty in finding her new quarters. He was glad that she had taken a house; on the obcasion of his last visit she had youngster in short dresses, and Howard Bennett a freckle-faced youth in knickerbockers, it had been living in a two-room apart been quite all right for them to at end the same bible class

He rose as the train slid into the station, straightened his excelvery rich man, and Howard and his sister, Margaret, would some lent shoulders beneath the tweed day share between them a very of his coat. It was a well-cut coat.

ment and he had been obliged to eoas down Main street hill together, go do his wooing in taxicabs and resto the same public school taurants, or at the bathing beach when Heward went off to Swarth w, with a comfortable place in which to meet, he felt confident of more, and Mary, after the death his ability to persuade her to give In her father in a flat over the book-in- shop, the social guit began to to widen. up the screen as a means of live od and take the place in Mill burg society to which his mon would entitle her. There was a other girl at the bungalow, he obnoxious to femininity. They were the duties imposed a year before on cosmetics, all aids to beauty included, and on chocolate milks and other milk drinks. De-spite a strenuous fight, the tax on chewing tobacco and "hard" cola drinks were retained drinks were retained. agerly and would have kissed her but she evaded him. "Don't be silly, Howard," she said, as she drew him into the room.

"Lord, I'm glad to see you," His agitation left no doubt of that. "Seemed like that train would never get here." "I'm glad to see YOU, Howard was true enough. She liked How-ard Bennett-had always liked him-and then, too, he was some in taxes regarded as him—and then, too, he was some-one from home. Even the excite-ments of Hollywood had not al-ways-been sufficient to make her forget the old town, with its old famillar faces. "Where's your bag-gage ?". ""Oh I had it sont to the hotel was understood that the Unitarian chure will intermit services and that ther would be no services next Sunday. Th last service until after vacation is nex Sunday. And services will be resume the first Sunday in September with Ma Fereshetian in the pulpit.

."Let's try the veranda," Sylvia said, gaily, going to the wide "And Dad? I haven't heard from him for two weeks." "Fine. I was talking to him the day before I left. He sent his i

Bend-Brooks-Scanlon Lumber

The INVISIBLE PROTECTOR

points the way to safety

When you know that he is always beside you you feel safe. Can you really enjoy a pleasure trip when you know that you are not fully covered by insurance?

The thought that something might happen preys on your mind.

Enjoy your car.' Insure it today.' "INSURE and BE SURE"

Powers Insurance Agency Fire - Casualty - Disability - Life U. S. National Bank Building Telephone 007

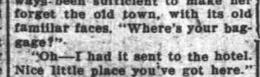

exact. Results will please you.

Glasses if Needed May Be Purchased on Easy Terms

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

BATES, "THE EYE MAN" With Burnett Bros.

service Norval Edwards and Donald Harnard will sing ''I am Happy in Him.'' Evening anthèm, ''Come Unito Me,'' Lo-renz, Sunday school: 10 s. m. Buperin-tendent, C. C. Harris. Young peoples' meetings: 7:19 p. m. During the con-struction of the new church the morning and evening services will be held in Knight Chapel. The Sunday school and morning service is merged into one serv-ice and will be conducted from 10 to 11 o'clock. -mighty glad," she told him. It UNITARIAN

He glanced about the attractively furnished living room.

French windows which opened to the porch and garden. "There's a perfectly thrilling moon." On the threshold she paused, a very slim and lovely princess indeed in her ivory chilfon gown. She waved toward a wicker chair, "Sit down, Howard, and tell me all the news from home, "Well," he laughed, "they got a traffic cop at Main and Water streets now, and a new picture theater right across from the hotel and my sister's engaged to a bank 8 p. m. Set of Faith," president in Philadelphia, and that evening. So ek-day services: Thursday ev clock: This morning is our service, list story member FIRST PRESBYTERIAN about lets me out, so far as news s concerned."

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL Center and Liherty. Pastor: Charles Ward, 440 Center St. Phone 591-R. Se ices: 11-a. m. Sermon topic: "Jes Commandment." The quartet will a "O, Love that Will not Let Me Go," and 'The King of Love by Shelley, Sunday a Superintendent, Mark

