The next meeting of the bridge club will be at the home of Mrs. Carl Nelson.

Miss Marsters Marries Mr. Peary at Roseburg

A wedding of great interest to Salem people was solemnized last Tuesday at 4 o'clock at the home of Judge and Mrs. R. W. Marsters of Roseburg, when their daughter, Miss Vivian Marsters, became the bride of Marry Peary of Salem. Guests from Southern Oregon and from many parts of the Willamette valley gathered for the ceremony.

The rooms were attractive with huge baskets of gladioli and delphinium, a large bank of palms, carnations, ferns, pink gladioli and delphinium were deftly arranged at one end of the living room.

Verus Hauser, accompanied by Miss Lois Woodruff, sang "At Dawning" and "All For You."

Miss Dorothy Marsters, sister of the bride, played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore a lovely gown of flesh colored mull over blue rayon, and a picture hat to match. Her bouquet was of Cecil Brunner and Ophelia roses. Her father, Judge Marsters, gave her in marriage.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Ella Anderson of Portland, wore a frock of pink georgette with a picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses, pink snapdragons and delphinium. Earl Peary, brother of the groom, served as best man.

The dining room, the scene of a reception following the ceremony, was deftly arranged with baskets of flowers. The serving table was beautiful with soft light of pink tapers in silver candleabra upon bowls of pink roses, snapdragons and carnations.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters and Mrs. A. B. Hauser cut ices, assisted in serving by the Misses Verus Hauser, Helen Churchill, Kathryn Dittie and Jeanette Rice. The bride cut the wedding cake.

Following the reception the bride and groom left by motor for Crater lake and numerous other points. The bride's going-away suit was of delft blue kakikohl crepe with a close fitting hat to match.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marsters and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peary, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of Salem; L. B. Marsters of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. J. N.
