The wireless operator on a small vessel was allowed to take the wheel for a short spell. His first attempt was a poor show and the course steered was very erratic, as shown by the wake of the vessel.

Just as a rather bad zigzag was made, the captain arrived on the bridge, howled, and remarked:

"Here, my lad, I don't mind you writing your name on the face of the ocean, but, for heaven's sake, don't trouble to go back to dot the 'i'."
