

FARM MEASURE IS READY FOR SIGNING

Administration Cooperative Marketing Bill Up for Final Approval

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(By Associated Press.)—Final action was taken today by congress on the administration cooperative marketing bill, the only farm relief measure to run the house and senate gauntlet at this session. After rejecting, 156 to 87, a motion to send the measure to conference the house without a record vote approved two senate amendments, and the bill now goes to the president for his approval.

Sponsored by Secretary Jardine, it would create a division in the agriculture department to foster the development and work of farmer's cooperatives, and appropriation of $225,000, would be authorized.

The bill was approved last night by the senate after it had rejected the Fess farm credits bill, endorsed by President Coolidge, to which it had been proposed as a rider.

When it came back to the house today, representative McDuffie, democrat, Alabama, moved to send it to conference. He was supported by a group of democrats and few republicans, who opposed a senate amendment to eliminate naval stores from the commodities to be classified under the bill as "Agricultural Products."

The other senate amendment, designed to broaden the scope of the proposed cooperative division, was accepted without debate.

Mr. McDuffie contended the house had inserted naval stores in the bill after extended debate and that it had been eliminated in the senate at the insistence of manufacturing interests. He held the house should send the bill to conference and fight for the amendment.

He was supported in his position by Representative Garrett of Tennessee, the democratic leader and Representative Green and Sears of Florida, democrats and Schafer, republican, Wisconsin.

Representative Begg, republican, Ohio, upheld the move to conciliate the senate amendments. He said this would be necessary if the bill were to pass before the close of the session.

"In making this move I am not opposing the naval stores proposal," Begg said. "If next session it is necessary to extend the benefits of the bill to this product I shall assist in doing so."

It would not hold in court, that he had precedent which would uphold his contention.

"Good!" the mayor declared. "You send your crew to town; I will instruct the chief of police to arrest them, and we will take this matter to court. If you prove the ordinance is invalid, you win. If you are convicted of violation of the law, we win. Until that ordinance is declared invalid in court, this administration will endeavor to force you to comply with its provisions."

According to the mayor, the representative withdrew, and did not return. Since that time other crews have been sent to the city. They have, in some cases, failed to comply with the provisions of the ordinance. Local police have brought complaints against them. No prosecution has followed.

In explanation of failure to act, the city attorney is understood to have stated that the ordinance was "no good," yet has allowed it to remain on the books without trial at court, and without presenting an altered ordinance which would be binding.

ers have been charged with drunk-driving is also up for investigation, with intimation that an explanation will be requested before the matter is dismissed from public attention.

Operation of taxis and stages within Salem without city license has brought heavy fire, with more promised, feeling being that the present ordinance should be enforced until replaced by another, or until the present ordinance is thrown out in court.

Though only Jack Campbell and an Indian who pleaded guilty have been placed behind bars for driving while drunk, investigators had merely begun their work before Friday was scheduled on one case, hearing to begin today.

'STOP FLIRTING' IS PLAYING AT OREGON

Christie Laughing Hit Declared to Be Most Entertaining in Line

Happy, hokum, jazzy joy, long laughs! That's what's waiting around the corner for the people of Salem. "Stop Flirting," the great Christie laughing hit, is now playing at the Oregon theater, where it will remain for today only.

With John T. Murray, Wanda Hawley, Jimmie Adams, Jack Duffy, David James, Ethel Shannon and a host of other star players playing the leading roles under the direction of the great Scott Sidney who acknowledges "Charley's Aunt" as his latest masterpiece, it is small wonder this is a whirlwind force that hits the public like a cyclone.

All we can say is, the Christies seem to have found the secret for turning out a 100 per cent comedy with every production, judging from this one, and its side-splitting predecessors.
