Miles, an active member of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood, who, with Mr. Miles, is leaving Portland this morning for an extended visit in the middle west. Mr. and Mrs. Miles will not return to Salem until next spring, after having spent the winter in California. Center: Miss Lorena Geer, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland S. Geer, whose marriage to Cecil Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, will take place at high noon today in the Episcopal church at Medford. Lower right: Mrs. C. M. Stevenson (Heien Walcher) whose marriage was an attractive event of June. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson will be at home to their friends at 1510 State street.

VACATION

*I know a bower sweet and shy
Where glooms a stream
Beneath cool films of leaf and sky
Where river-lilies lie and dream;
Where very quietly
Small birds make melody;
And every breeze on tiptoe comes and goes
To that dim bower that no one knows—
My bower of peace that no one knows!*

Past Matrons Make Plans for Annual Picnic

The annual picnic of the Past Matrons' association of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will be held at Hager's Grove next Friday, July 9. All past patrons and past matrons, and their families, of Salem are invited to be in the group. Following the opening of the picnic baskets at 6:30 games and out-door sports will be enjoyed. During the earlier evening swimming will be enjoyed.

The committee in charge of the event includes: Mrs. Jessie Darby, chairman, Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mrs. Hazel Gillette, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Ida Babcock, and Mrs. Frank Reeves.

At the preceding meeting of the Past Matrons, on Friday night, Mrs. Paul Hauger, Mrs. W. M. Smith and Mrs. Ida Niles entertained the group at the home of Mrs. James Godfrey on N. Liberty street.

Gilded rod, sweet peas, and peonies decorated the rooms for this occasion. A special guest was Mrs. F. L. Ferguson of Oklahoma City, who is a house guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ida L. Darby.

In the group were: Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. Ruth Brown, Mrs. Emma Murphy Brown, Mrs. Alice Cooldge, Mrs. Cordelia Cupper, Mrs. Jessie Darby, Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Mrs. Hazel Gillette, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Josephine LaFore, Mrs. Alice Meyers, Mrs. Elizabeth Shafer, Miss Minnie Mcoller, Mrs. Margaret Wittichin, Mrs. Payne Wright, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. M. Out-of-Town Women Participate in Golf Tournament Last Monday

Exceedingly interesting to sportswomen of the community was the invitational sweepstakes golf tournament held last Monday at the Illihee country club. Forty-one women, including a team of four from each of the eight golf clubs of Portland, participated. The low gross score of the day went to Mrs. Ray Hunt of Portland, whose record was 88 for the 18 holes. The low net prize went to Mrs. M. Frederick of the Tualatin club, who won with a gross score of 97, with a thirteen handicap and a resultant net score of 76. Mrs. Fred Morey of Oswego, with a three-ball drive of 422 yards, won in this class, while Mrs. Hunt, with 169 yards, won the longest single drive. Mrs. Thomas Kennedy of the Alderwood club won the putting and approaching competition.

A high average was achieved during the day by the Portland golf club team as follows: Mrs. Ray Hunt, 88; Mrs. Pat Allen, 93; Mrs. Jack Yates, 96, and Mrs. Pauline Garrigus, 97.

At noon the Illihee club women entertained at luncheon, placing fifty-five covers. Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. E. N. Gillingham were in charge, assisted in the serving by Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Lloyd Farmer, Mrs. Marie Beck, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Ernest Thom, Mrs. Lester Schlosberg, Mrs. Dorel Proctor, Mrs. Victor MacKenzie, Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Miss Ailsa Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles Leave on Extended Trip
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles, who have a large circle of friends who will miss them greatly during the next few months, will leave Portland tomorrow for an extended trip through the middle west and California. Mr. and Mrs. Miles left Salem last Tuesday, accompanying their daughter, Mrs. Will Knight, a house guest for several days, as far as Portland.

In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Miles will leave for Spokane for a short visit with Mrs. Miles' brother, Mr. Cook, going thence to the Yellowstone National Park and then to Oskaloosa, Iowa to attend the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dewitt. A number of Salem people will remember Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt from a former visit here. Mr. and Mrs. Miles will continue their visit southward to Denver, reaching southern California by the end of December.

The Miles will spend the winter in southern California, spending the greater part of the time at Long Beach with friends from Iowa. They will reach Salem again in the spring of 1927.

Family Reunion at Coast
Mr. and Mrs. Amos Vass and a group of relatives are enjoying a three-day outing at Cutler City, a coast resort on the Roosevelt Highway south of Newquinn.

In the group are Mr. and Mrs. Amos Vass, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Martin, the latter three families all being of Lyons.

Motor to Corvallis for Holiday
Judge and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Schramm are leaving this morning for Corvallis where they will join Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm for the holiday interval. The Misses Irene and Magdalen Kuntz will join the Salem party in Albany. Tomorrow the group will picnic at Cedar Creek, beyond Corvallis.

Iris Jorgensen is Birthday Hostess
A group of members of the younger set enjoyed a delightful afternoon when Mrs. Ira Jorgensen entertained in honor of the tenth birthday of her daughter, Iris, on a recent afternoon. A fine party at the Elsinore occupied the guests for the earlier part of the anniversary, after which birthday refreshments were served in the Green Gate tea room at the Spa. Sweet peas and baby breath decorated the table on which the birthday cake was the feature.

Covers were marked for: Iris Jorgensen, Marie and Jean Patton, Ann Reed Burns, Josephine McElchrist, Josephine Lewis and Josephine Evans, Beatrice Evans.

At Shipley's the ladies of Salem have satisfied themselves that they can get the finest spring and summer frocks, coat and dresses ever shown in this city.

Claudia Settlemeier, Bertha Trites of Portland, Eleanor Luper, Lillian Berg, Margaret Bell, Helen Worth, Geneva Barnes, Josephine Cornoyer, Mrs. C. W. Jorgensen and the hostess, Mrs. Ira Jorgensen.

Miss Vandevort Returns from Seabeck
Miss Jennie Vandevort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, arrived home last evening from Seabeck where she has been in attendance at the annual college Y. W. C. A. conference. During the session this season, Miss Vandevort was made chairman of the college Y. W. C. A. board for the Northwest, including three states, Oregon, Washington, and Montana. Through this appointment Miss Vandevort will have the opportunity of attending the general conference in Columbus, Ohio, in September. Miss Vandevort had the opportunity of holding this same chairmanship during her undergraduate days at Willamette university.

Miss Vandevort's marriage to George Moorhead on Wednesday, July 15, at the First Methodist church, will be an outstanding social event of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulus are Dinner Guests
A delightful affair of early last week was the supper party at the Spa at which Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Paulus were hosts honoring Miss Claudia Lewis, a talented young pianist, who made a successful appearance at the First Presbyterian church on Monday evening.

Covers were placed for eight, including Miss Claudia Lewis, Mrs. C. I. Lewis, Miss Elma Weller, Miss Joy Lewis, Mrs. Chamberlin, Mrs. Earl Pearey, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Paulus.

Pearline Home is Scene of Large Gathering of O. A. C. Graduates
The beautiful garden at the Lester Pearline home on the River road afforded an attractive setting for the July picnic meeting and annual election of officers held last Thursday evening by 60 members and 20 children of the O. A. C. club.

The report of the nominating committee, as submitted by Miss Sylvia Woods, chairman, Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, and Richard Slater, was accepted as follows: President, Lloyd Greig; vice-president, David Wright; secretary, Mrs. Willis Dallas; treasurer, Byron Wright; sergeant at arms, Percy Cupper; and members of the board of directors (re-elected) Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. Mark McCallister.

The picnic supper was served around an out-door fireplace, with the table an immense cross cut of a fir tree. The hostesses of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pearline, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Darby, Lieut. and Mrs. Willis Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cupper, and Mr. and Mrs. Linn Cronemiller.

Of special interest in a business way was the plan accepted to name a permanent committee to act as trustees of the $50 scholarship which the O. A. C. club is generously offering each year to that member of the Salem High school graduating class who excels in "scholarship, leadership and character."

Plans were made for the August meeting of the club, and for a still more immediate event, a house-warming at the new home of Mrs. Harry Pearey (Vivian Marsters) who have just returned from their wedding trip. Mrs. Pearey is the retiring president of this active alumni organization.

House Guests at Bragg Home
Mrs. B. J. McLellan and children, Dan and Sally, of Bend arrived in Salem on Friday and will spend a week as the guests of Mrs. McLellan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg.

Enjoyable Picnic at Graber's Grove
Mrs. Elmer Daus, Mrs. O. A. Olson, and Mrs. Leon Gleason were joint hostesses last Monday evening when they entertained honoring two out of town visitors, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirby.

C. F. Breithaupt, florist and decorator, 123 N. Liberty. Phone 380. Flowers, bulbs, floral designs for all occasions. Pioneer and leader in Salem.

Wiles of Kaskaskia, Illinois, recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano.

An informal evening of games and skits was enjoyed, with an elaborate picnic menu served at the supper hour.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Harley White, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daus, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. James Teed, Miss Cynthia Delano, and Jay Teed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, Mr. Wiles and Mrs. Delano being brother and sister, spent several weeks in Salem.

House Guests at Katke Home
Professor and Mrs. R. M. Katke are hosts this week end at a 4th of July gathering of relatives, including Professor Katke's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren of Pendleton. Professor Katke's and Mrs. Warren's father, Charles E. Katke of Portland, and Mrs. Katke's mother, Mrs. Nellie Satchwell of Shedd.

Misses Purvine at Seaview
Miss Helen Purvine left on Saturday for Seaview, Wash., where she will spend the remainder of the summer at the home of her week end, Miss Margaret Purvine aunt, Mrs. Jay Bowerman. This will join her sister at the Bowerman home, where she, too, will spend the summer.

Club Group Meets at Nelson Home for Breakfast
The attractive garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson was the scene of an enjoyable affair when Mrs. Nelson entertained her club together with a group of
