A rare pitchers' battle, that went into extra innings, was staged last night in the Post Office-Eagles Commercial league contest. A home run by Kelley with one on in the last half of the sixth won the contest for the Eagles by a scant 1-0 margin.

Both pitchers hurled air tight ball. Heath of the Eagles having a slight edge over Ryder. The diminutive P. O. hurler was not scored on for five innings, two hits, one a four ply clout, beating him in the sixth. Heath issued 12 strikeouts for the six innings, averaging two men each inning. The mall clerks collected only three hits, one each in the first, third and sixth. All of them were singles, and so far scattered that they did no damage.

Heath pulled out of a bad spot in the sixth inning, when the bases were loaded with only one away. He tightened, however, and whiffed the next batter, and the runner on third went out on a short grounder, retiring the side. Ryder, hurler for the Post Office, struck out five men and walked none. Up to the fatal sixth only three safe hits had been made from him, all of them well scattered.

In the last half of the sixth it looked like a clinch for the Eagles when Cade up first, went clear to third on a short pop fly to the right garden. The mall clerks threw the ball around the infield. Five men handled it until finally the catcher got hold of the elusive pellet and touched first, putting the runner out for failing to tread on the initial sack on his journey around the bases.

This decision started a near riot, which was quickly silenced, and Christenson, up next, singled. He was thrown out at second in big league fashion but the second sacker dropped the ball. Kelley then slammed a straight fast one far over the deep left field wall, scoring Christenson.

By the win last night the Eagles advance into a triple tie for second place. Next week is the important one for the Commercial leaguers, as most of the teams are within reach of the pennant, and some great games should result.

Senators Meet Rupert's Men Here In Final Contest Sunday

WEEK'S BEST PUTS LOCALS IN SHAPE

Barham and Russell in Condition to Take Mound Against Invaders

With the rivalry between Salem and Albany at a high tide the two clubs will play here Sunday for the fourth time.
In their three previous meetings the senators took the two contests played on the local diamond, and Albany annexed the battle on the Hub city park.

After a full week's rest, both Barham and Russell are in shape to pitch for the locals. It is probable that Barham will start the contest, and Russell be kept in reserve, but Manager Bishop may have some foxy baseball strategy up his sleeve and upset the ordinary dope.

Albany has two good batters in Turpin and Beams. The latter lost to the Senators here last week and Turpin will most likely be the starter Sunday.

The contest is a regular game on the Greater-Portland-Valley league schedule, and counts in the percentage column. It is the last league game booked between the two clubs, and previous percentage contests stand at one-all, the game last Sunday being an exhibition contest.

A large crowd has accompanied the Albany team on each of its previous visits, and one of the features of the contests are tongue battles between the two groups of fans. "Red" Rupert, Albany manager, will be right on hand with his hot Charleston executed on the coaching line.

MELHORN'S PLAYING MAKES NEW RECORD

Golfer Makes 6736 Yard Course in 68; Junior, Oregon, Highly Regarded

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 8.—(By Associated Press) Ignoring the severe penalties of the links and belying predictions of high scores, Bill Melhorn of Chicago today played so well that he set a record of 33 for the first nine and of 65 for the 6,736 yard course of the Scioto country club in the first round of the national open golf championship. Even with this performance, he got the lead of the 151 starters by only two strokes, for Bobby Jones of Atlanta, American amateur and British open title holder tallied two splendid 35's for a 70, or one under par on each half, as did John H. Junor of Portland, Ore., Oregon state champion. Jones' golf was a mixture of brilliancy and human frailty, as he went over par on three holes only to make good the deficiency and even gain two strokes with three birdies and an eagle three on the 480 yard eighth.

Just as every one had decided that Melhorn and Jones stood alone with 70 or better and twilight was falling over the links word was wanted to the scorers that John H. Junor of Portland, Ore., open title holder, was coming with a birdie four for another 70. He was in the last pair to finish, but despite the fading twilight and the knowledge that he had to score four on a dog leg hole of 180 yards, the westerner slammed his shots home and got a pair of 35's just like the British champion.

No one had counted on Junor, as he had never played in a national meet before, although he is 35 years old and came to America 20 years ago from Aberdeen, Scotland. Junor recently won the northwestern open title with a 291 and before that had finished second in the Oregon open.

Hiking 1,000 Miles Without Food

One thousand miles without food. With New York a thousand miles away by road, George H. Johnson, a gymnast director of Chicago, left Chicago the other day to walk to New York, it being agreed that he would eat no food on the way. He plans to make an average of 33 1-3 miles per day, which means a month on the road, and nothing to eat. He is shown here leaving the Chicago City Hall in company with James H. Hocking, at the left, seventy year old former walking champion.

"GOLDEN PRINCESS" IS OREGON FEATURE

Flashing Action and Tense Thrills Offered in Story of Old Gold Days

"The days of old, the days of gold, the days of '49' live once again in all their rollicking, romantic and rip-roaring glory in Paramount's stirring, adventurous melodrama, "The Golden Princess," which introduces Betty Bronson as an honest-to-goodness movie star. It will be the main feature at the Oregon theatre today and Saturday.

History offers few parallels that rival in heroism and hardship, in daring and daredevilry the tremendous rush that followed the discovery of gold in California. Men suffered and sacrificed, fought and bled to wrest from Mother Earth the shining, yellow metal. What a background around which to weave a story of flashing action, compelling drama and tense thrills!

And that's precisely what film fans may expect in this spectacular production! Frances Agnew adapted the plot from a Bret Harte story, and Clarence Badger has produced it with the characteristic craftsmanship that stamped such previous successes as "New Lives for Old" and "Paths to Paradise."

Gray Heads and Not Youth Haunt London Night Clubs

LONDON—(Associated Press)—Gray-heads, or heads that would be gray if nature had not been assisted, are so numerous in London night clubs that newspapers generally agree with the statement of the late Sir Squire Bancroft that the "young man-about-town" no longer exists in England.
The Kit-Cat and other well known London night clubs are the haunts of the middle-aged and aged. Practically none of the dancers is really young. This is true of the women as well as the men.
Youth has its fling in the popular dancehalls where the cost is less and it is not necessary to be so formally dressed.

Adventurer Says Americans Have "Spoiled" Hawaii

Luke LeElond, once regarded as the power behind the throne of Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii who sailed with Jack London during his cruise on "The Snark," is now doing development work at Dearborn, Mich. He says Americans have spoiled Hawaii by attempting to turn natives into "go-getters."

Graduates Create Fund for First Senior Child

NORTHFIELD, Minn.—(Associated Press)—Back in 1914 a group of students at Carleton college here collected a fund and turned it over to the college for investment until a son or daughter of one of their number is a senior at Carleton.

Meanwhile the fund is growing as interest on the investment accumulates and the originators of the fund, scattered throughout the country, are vying in a good natured contest to see whose son or daughter shall win the prize.

If two seniors qualify for the fund at the same time, the sum will be divided. Sponsors of the fund now are scattered from Washington state to Washington, D. C. One of the number is a missionary in Transvaal, South Africa.

TURPIN MARRIES AGAIN

ACTOR WITH CRISS-CROSS EYES TAKES NEW BRIDE

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—(By Associated Press)—Bert Turpin, crossed-eyed screen burlesquer of married life, himself has entered the conjugal fold for his second time. He was married yesterday to Miss Babette Elizabeth Dietz, formerly of Bismarck, N. D., and whom he first met a year ago, while a patient at a Santa Barbara hospital. The ceremony was performed at the church of the Good Shepherd, Beverly Hills.

Turpin's first wife died several months ago.

If two seniors qualify for the fund at the same time, the sum will be divided. Sponsors of the fund now are scattered from Washington state to Washington, D. C. One of the number is a missionary in Transvaal, South Africa.
