Several little boys and girls were discussing their ancestors and one of the girls had just stated that she was pure Scotch, as both of her grandparents had come direct to America from Scotland. When she had finished, a snub nosed little fellow began to tell of his family tree. "I'm American; French, Swedish and Lutheran, he stated. There was silence for a moment when one of his bright young companions spoke up. "By golly! No wonder you're so freckled."
