Jennelle Vandevort Becomes Bride of George Moorhead at Pressive Ceremony

One of the most elaborate weddings ever solemnized in Salem took place at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, July 15, at the First Methodist church when Miss Jennelle Frances Vandevort, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, became the bride of Mr. George Kelsay Moorhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead, Sr.

More than 300 invitations, most of them going into Washington, Oregon and California, were issued for the event.

The church chancel was decorated in an exceedingly tasteful manner for the wedding service. Great wicker floor baskets, brimming with white and shell-pink gladioli, were arranged in a line before the choir balcony, while smaller baskets filled with similar flowers, in the same pink and white color scheme, alternated with fern and palms, in artistically banking the platform. Two tiers of gleaming white cathedral tapers, set in crystal holders, illuminated the altar during the ceremony. The church pillars in the choir loft were garlanded with the more delicate flowers.

Professor T. S. Roberts, pipe organist, played the wedding music, an instrumental prelude preceding Mrs. Elva Nelson's beautiful rendition of "All for You" and the impressive Lohengrin procession to which the bridal party entered.

As the bride entered the entire company rose to its feet, remaining standing throughout the ceremony.

Dr. Richard N. Avison, pastor of the Rose City Park Methodist church of Portland was the officiating clergyman. Dr. Fred C. Taylor, pastor of the Salem church assisted with the ritual.

The bride was exquisitely lovely in white georgette, scintillant with silver stitching and elaborate beadwork. Her train-length veil was delicately embroidered, from head-dress to flowing hem. A magnificent shower of bride's roses with pastel sweet peas and transparent streamers added further to the beauty of the bridal scene. The bride's pumps were of pale silver brocade.

Miss Joyce Gowan of Seattle, the maid of honor, was lovely in a delicate frock of orchid georgette, with ornamentation of brilliants, and touches of silver in her hair. Her flowers were butterfly roses and lavender sweet peas.

The four bridesmaids were arrayed in complimentary shades of rich blue and old gold. Mrs. Lois Kinsey of Sisters, Oregon, and Miss Lucille Caspell wore gold, each wearing an artificial flower on the left shoulder. Patch wreaths were chic in the hair of each attendant. Miss Florence Young and Miss Cleo Weddle wore peacock blue. Their flowers were arm bouquets of gladioli and sweet peas of a near-purple shade. Miss Caspell and Mrs. Kinsey carried butterfly roses and peach colored gladioli.

Patsy Holt, a diminutive miss, wore orchid georgette and carried a tiny French basket of flowers. Albert C. Baker served as best man.

The ushers included Ellis Von Eschen, Virgil Moorhead, Cornelius Bateson, and William McCallister.

Mrs. H. H. Vandevort was charming in her gown of poudre blue with afternoon hat to harmonize, while Mrs. George Moorhead, Sr. wore lavender cut velvet, also with hat to match.

The woman's club house on North Cottage street was the scene of the reception, to which all guests were invited. Candle-light was used throughout in making the rooms softly radiant. Tall white candles were used in the reception room in tall brass candelabra. The reception table was illuminated with a ring of candles while the pink and white flowers of midsummer made the centerpiece.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Gertrude Winslow, while Mrs. O. E. Price formally received, introducing the guests to the line in which stood the members of the bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. Vandevort and Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead, Sr.

Mrs. Elva Nelson of Los Angeles cut the ices, while Miss Beryl Holt presided at the coffee urn. Assisting in the serving were Miss Ruth Hewitt, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Margaret Bodine, Miss Lucy Greer, Miss Ruth E. Ross, and Miss Viola Carrier.

Assisting in the reception room were Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. F. A. Leggo, and Mrs. B. L. Steeves. Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. E. T. Barnes invited the guests to the dining room.

Mrs. Moorhead was made the recipient of many lovely wedding gifts in silver, linen, china, and electric pieces.

For her going away suit Mrs. Moorhead had a chic tailor of gay Kasha cloth with hat and accessories in keeping.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead are graduates of Willamette university with the class of 1925. Mrs. Moorhead is also a graduate of the local high school. During their university days both Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead were exceedingly active in the organizations of which they are members. Mrs. Moorhead is a member of both the Beta Chi sorority and the Adelante literary society. Mrs. Moorhead is a Websterian and an Alpha Psi Delta. Both are members of the national social science fraternity Pi Gamma Mu. During her senior year at Willamette Mrs. Moorhead was president of the college YWCA, one of the most influential of campus organizations. Since her graduation she has completed a successful year as Girl Reserve secretary in Yakima, Wash. Mrs. Moorhead has always been extremely in demand as an official representative of this work and has had the pleasure of two trips to New York City to attend one national and one international conference. During the student

YWCA conference which closed just this month in Seabeck, Mrs. Moorhead was chosen to act as a member of the board for the northwest district, entitling her to attendance at the national convention in Oberlin, Ohio in August.

Mr. Moorhead is an instructor in the Coquille high school, a position which he filled in a creditable manner during the past year.

After a fortnight at the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead will be at home to their friends at 435 North Winter street. In September they will go to Coquille to make their home.

Listen! Skinny Folks, Why Not Put on Flesh Where Flesh Is Needed

Any Underweight Woman or Man Either Can Fill Out Hollows and Soon have a Figure to Be Proud Of

Why yearn for a perfect "well knit" figure—why not get one for yourself—and start to get it today. Tens of thousands of excessively thin men and women have put on good healthy flesh with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—and put it on where it was most needed.

There's nothing in McCoy's that can hurt you—vitamins will not only help you to take on the weight you need, but will make you stronger, more energetic and vigorous.

And here's something that ought to interest all skinny men and women whose intellect is not impaired.

Read It: If McCoy's does not increase your weight at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to return the price you paid for them. Sixty tablets 60 cents at J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere. Ask for McCoy's.—Adv.

afternoon Dr. W. C. Kantner told the stories at the Fourteenth street playground, while yesterday afternoon Dr. Charles E. Ward told the stories at the Lincoln playgrounds on Tuesday and Thursday. Tomorrow Miss Sarah Lansing will have charge of this group.

New Cottage at Children's Farm Home

The new Lane county cottage at the Children's Farm Home is now under construction, the contract having been awarded a Eugene contractor. Construction began several days ago and the cottage is to be completed and ready for occupancy by early autumn.

The Lane cottage will resemble others already erected at the home and will be the sixth in the group built there in recent years. It will house a score of youngsters who will come early in the fall to swell the number already at the home. Requests far exceed the housing capacity, already accommodating 115 boys and girls.

Other counties of the state are considering financing individually or collectively additional cottages at the home, and there is prospect of others being added within the year.

A trip to the Waldport beaches and camp there is eagerly anticipated by the farm children who are to be given that treat by the Portland Journal which raised funds among its subscribers to finance the outing.

Mrs. Douglass Spending Summer in Salem

Mrs. L. C. Douglass of Gunnell, Iowa, is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Carson. Mrs. Douglas was accompanied by Mrs. Florence Smith, also of Gunnell, who plans to spend part of the summer in Los Angeles.

Other house guests at the Carson home are Miss Florence Field and Miss Gladys Kendell, Or.

MILL NOW RUNNING THREE FULL SHIFTS

Broken Turbine Leaves Silver Falls Plant Crippled in Work

SILVERTON, Ore., July 15.—(Special.)—Silver Falls Timber company mill is now running three shifts. This is not because a larger amount of work has piled up. The turbine broke down Wednesday leaving the mill with insufficient power to run both the planer and mill at one time. In order not to have a layoff, arrangements have been made whereby the day crew with the exception of the planer shed begins work at 4 o'clock in the morning, the planer shed crew works in the afternoon, and the night crew takes the night shift as formerly.

Springfield—City contracts for white way lighting system.
