Fighting hard to stay in the pannant race, the Salem Senators pounded out a 7 to 2 victory over the league leading Cycol team on Sunday. Edwards' home run with and Deberry. the bases loaded was the biggest factor in the local team's triumph.

Edwards' drive came in the fourth inning, after Gressett, the Cycol pitcher, had put over two strikes without a ball. He apparently thought the Salem catcher allowed Boston only four hits towould be an easy out and grooved day, while the Athletics garnered tle third one, only to watch it sail five runs on eight safeties, winover the left field fence to score ning 5 to 0. four runs.

Barham pitched a strong game. fanning a total of 13 men. He walked but one man, and that was in the ninth inning. Only eight hits were made off him by the Cycol batters, reputed to be the hardest hitting aggregation of clouters in the league.

Jack Hayes, who played ball here several years ago, appeared in the Salem lineup yesterday as a right fielder. He gathered one hit out of four times at bat.

Proctor, Salem second baseman. banged out three hits, including two doubles and a home run. Quinn and Reid of the Senators, and Bottler and Scott of the Cycois each gathered two hits each. The game was remarkable in that neither team made an error.

Tom Gressett started on the mound for the Cycols and got by until the fourth, when he was repipeed by Huessing. The latter pitched fair ball for the rest of Game Goes Seven Innings the game.
