

Quality of Play Improves as Legionnaires Defeat K. C. Nine 1 to 0

GIBSON AND BURGER IN HURLING BATTLE

Both Teams Hit Safely Four Times, DeJardine Gets Only Double

Standings

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Grotto	6	4	.600
Paper Co.	6	4	.600
U. S. Bank	5	4	.556
K. of C.	5	5	.500
Legion	4	5	.444
Valley Motor	3	7	.300

With a noticeable improvement in the quality of ball playing for the closing games of the season, the Legion took another close game from the K. of C. last night 1-0. Both teams played a better brand of baseball than they have shown before, the Knights playing errorless ball while but one bobbie was chalked against the Legionnaires.

The first four innings saw a rare hurling battle between Gibson and Burger with a blight edge going to the doughboy twirler. Gibson retired seven of the Catholic hitters, wriffing the first three men up in the fourth. He issued two passes, both in the first, evidently getting all the wild ones out of his arm early in the day. Burger, hurling for the K. of C., did creditable work, managing to down three soldiers and issuing three tickets to first. Both teams garnered four safes, DeJardine getting the only extra base hit with a double to left field.

The Legionnaires' win was a spectacular last half of the last inning. Two men were all that were needed to pull the trick. Gill, up first, singled, right and second. "Scotty" Marr, following Gill, attempted to bunt the first ball, but fouled it. Then completely crossing up the Casey and rigidly following the orders of Acting Manager Bishop, the little Kiltie laid down a clean bunt toward third. He was thrown out at first, but the play caught the initial sacker so off his guard that Gill kept right on coming and crossed with the winning run. Marr, the diminutive Scot, grand the left landscape in great style, and was robbed of a clean hit in the second when his torrid liner over second was knocked down.

The game Monday night between the Papermakers and the Valley Motor, which was reported as ending with a 2-2 score on account of darkness, was in reality won by the Paper Co. 3 to 2. The outcome of this game was published as a tie in this column, hence the error in both papers. The percentages given this morning are corrected to date and include the game Monday.

DOUBLE PARKING ORDER IS ISSUED

Five Minutes Only to Be Allowed, Frank Minto, Chief, Declares

The ordinance against double parking will be strictly enforced henceforward, according to Frank Minto, chief of police, as the situation is rapidly becoming a menace in down town districts. The ordinance states that five minutes double parking is allowed provided there is some person in the machine capable of driving it. Considerable reluctance in issuing the order against double parking was expressed by the chief, as there is limited parking space available in the business district. Only the necessity of reducing the hazards due to congested traffic caused it to be issued. Another source of complaint is the difficulty of removing cars parked next the curb behind other cars.

HAIL FRANK NEER AS STATE ORATOR

Speech at Convention Brings San Francisco Chronicle Story

Eddie Boyden, in a signed story in the San Francisco Chronicle, covering the recent Lions convention held there, pays tribute to the speech of Frank Neer, Salem Lion and former district governor.

Leave it to Frank Neer, an uncontrollable leonine orator from Salem, Or., to boost his own state. Standing forth at the convention yesterday, Frank aimed his tongue at high heaven and spouted as follows:

"Would you live in the land of the large and luscious cherry? Or among the deep red loganberries, or the delicious Bartlett pear? Or the tart-sweet Italian prune or the pungent fragrance of the hop field? Would you live where there are no blustering winds, no tornadoes, no cyclones? Or where thunder and lightning storms and hailstones are unknown? Would you live where the summers are cool and winters mild? Or where there is the best of water? Or where there is green vegetation throughout the year and roses bloom during ten months of the year? Then come to the Willamette valley of fair Oregon, a valley of fertile prairies and rolling hills, covered with fruits and berries and nuts!"

"Nuts is right!" roared Eddie Ellis, the fearless Lion from Greybull, state of Wyoming.

And that ended Frank's oratorical Roman candle.
