

Salem Society News

By AUDRED BUNCH :: Phone 106

Active Supper Party at Ilhae Country Club

Miss Cleo Haack of Portland, who is the house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, was the inspiration for an attractive supper party on Wednesday evening at the Ilhae Country Club. Golf and cards were the divisions of the evening.

In the group were Miss Cleo Haack, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Becker, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thom, Miss S. Hoover, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer.

Ever Ready Birthday Club Meets at Bennett Home

An enjoyable meeting of the Ever Ready Birthday club was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Bennett, 1214 South Liberty street. Special guests were Mrs. Verdie Van Patton of San Francisco, and Mrs. Carl Beckett of Los Angeles. Mrs. Beckett, a grand daughter of the honor guest, Mrs. Bennett, made the birthday cake, which was covered with 22 lighted candles. Mrs. Bennett cut her own cake.

In the group for the afternoon were Mrs. William Bennett, Mrs. Hattie Kennon, Mrs. Carl Beckett, Mrs. Mary Barnhold, Miss Zolla Barnhold, Lizzie Smith, Clara Adams, Florence Shipp, Pauline Clark, Louise Loveland, Clara Lucas, Florence Loveland, Jennie Martin, Mrs. O. J. Darling and Bertha Loveland.

The birthday refreshments were served at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

According to present plans the next meeting of the club will be in the form of a picnic on August 18 at the fair grounds.

Mrs. Nichols Comes to Salem
Mrs. Lola Nichols, formerly of Eugene, has come to Salem to make her home. Mrs. Nichols is now visiting at the home of Mrs. Estelle Winans.

Masonic Organizations Plan Picnic for August Fourth

Committees are hard at work on the arrangements for the picnic and annual get-together for all Masonic bodies, including the A. F. & A. M., Eastern Star, White Shrine, De Molay for boys and the Law Girls, as well as all visiting members of any of these bodies.

The time is Wednesday next, August 4 the place is Hager's grove; the hour is 3 p. m. Coffee sugar and cream, as well as ice cream will be furnished. Those attending are expected to bring well filled pockets for their family of party and to pay the ground fee of 25 cents.

The stunt committee is preparing something for every minute of the time and the children will be provided for. As no transportation other than members' autos is provided, it is expected that all attending will provide for those having no cars, and fill their cars and make more than one trip, if found necessary. Supper will be served at 6:30 p. m.

This should be the largest and best get-together of Masonic and affiliated bodies that has been held. The chairmen of the several committees are:

Rev. H. D. Chambers, general chairman; committee on arrangements, H. S. Bosshard; committee on stunts, Mrs. Ralph Thompson; committee on cats, Mrs. Glenn Niles; committee on publicity, Rev. H. D. Chambers; committee on amusements for the children, Mrs. Paul Bauer.

Arthur Rosebraugh to Reach Salem Tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh will motor to Portland tomorrow to meet the son, Arthur Rosebraugh, who is returning home after spending two years in Oxford, England, as a Rhodes scholar. Mr. Rosebraugh is entitled to another year in Oxford where he has established an exceptional record, completing three years' work in two. Mr. Rosebraugh is a University of Oregon graduate.

House Guests at Barkus Home

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus have as their house guests this week Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Summerfield of Tacoma. Mrs. Barkus and Mrs. Summerfield are sisters.

Vacation at Seaside

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover and daughter, Miss Maxine Glover, are leaving today for a week's vacation at Seaside.

Return From "The Pines"

Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. M. E. Byrd, Mrs. J. Keith Pardee and son Keith Jr., are home from a stay at Newport. They were domiciled at the Byrd cottage, "The Pines."

July Bride Is Honored by W. B. A.

On Thursday evening, July 29, at their regular meeting in Fraternal temple, the Woman's Benevolent association entertained informally honoring Mrs. Harold Cook (nee Dorothy Smith) whose wedding was a recent event.

After a short business session a program was given, consisting of two songs, a play, a solo and a monologue. The bride was honored.

Lucille Boeringer, and the groom by Grover Boeringer. Leota Crosson "performed" the mock ceremony. Mrs. Cook was presented with an electric percolator, a gift from the W. B. A. At the close of the evening, light refreshments were served.

The committee in charge included Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. G. Boeringer and Mrs. E. Bushnell.

Guests at Gatke Home

House guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Gatke during the mid-week were Dr. Gatke's mother, Mrs. Charles Edward Gatke of Portland, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren (Helen Gatke).

Miss Covington Returns

Miss Maude Covington, librarian at the city library, returned home earlier in the week from a month's vacation at the home of her parents in Lewiston, Idaho.

Motor to Cascadia

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser and daughter, Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stiffler and children, will leave today for Cascadia. Sons of the two families are in the scout camp at Cascadia.

Miss Ackerman Is Honored With Shower

Miss Mildred Ackerman, attractive bride-elect, was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday evening at which a group of Royal Neighbors were hostesses. The affair was given at the home of Miss Ackerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Ackerman. Mrs. Maybelle Turner, accompanied by Mrs. Lelia Sharp, gave a number of vocal solos. Midsummer flowers, with pink roses predominating, decorated the rooms.

Miss Clark Accepts Position in Honolulu

Miss Constance Clark left at noon yesterday for Lead, S. D., for a visit with her parents before sailing from San Francisco on September 1 for Honolulu, where she has accepted a position in the children's department of the Honolulu library. Miss Clark will be associated with Mrs. Ivan Bellinger who, with her small daughter, Jane, left recently for Honolulu. Miss Clark has served as children's librarian at the Salem public library for the past 12 months and has made a large circle of friends who will miss her greatly.

Baptist Assembly at McMinnville

The Oregon Baptist Young People's assembly at McMinnville that has been in session for the past two weeks, closed yesterday. There has been a large enrollment and the assembly is claimed by all to be the best ever held in the state. Rev. W. T. Milliken, former pastor of the First Baptist church of Salem, is at the head of this movement. The Salem young people attending all through include:

Miss Gail McClean, Mith LaVina Buttry, Miss Alice Zielke, Miss Helen Alexander and Miss Josie Wik. A large number of other young people from Salem attended special sessions. The pastor, Dr. Shanks, gave two lectures during the sessions, one on Evangelism and one on Missions.

Motor Trip to Crater Lake

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Anderson spent a recent week in central and southern Oregon. They visited both Crater and Diamond lakes, returning home by way of the McKenzie pass. A feature of the trip was the Century drive, which the party enjoyed out from Bend.

Camp at Taylor's Grove

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gueffroy and daughters, Claudine and Phyllis, are spending the week camping at Taylor's Grove, near Mehama. Mrs. Gueffroy's mother, Mrs. McCracken, is also with them. Mrs. J. E. Cox, a sister of Mrs. Gueffroy, motored over Thursday evening to spend the week-end with them. Mr. Gueffroy will drive in Sunday and bring them home.

Guests of Parents

Miss Laura Garnjost, '22, technician in zoology and physiology at OAC for the last two years, is spending the summer with her parents in Salem. Miss Garnjost has a fellowship at Stanford university and will study there next fall.

First Methodist Church Announces Pastor's Assistant

Miss Margaret K. Sutherland of Seattle has been elected to the position of director of religious education and parish worker in the First Methodist church of Salem, according to announcement of the pastor, Rev. Fred C. Taylor.

Miss Sutherland comes very highly recommended as a Christian worker and has had a splendid training and a number of years experience in her work. She is a graduate of the state normal school at Cheney, Wash., and a graduate of the Bible training school for deaconesses in Seattle, and has had some work in the University of Washington. After teaching in the public schools for two years, Miss Sutherland accepted a position on the faculty of the Northwest training school for deaconesses in Seattle where she has taught music and Bible for two years. Miss Sutherland will come to Salem in August and with her aunt will occupy some apartment. Her work with First church will begin September 1, when she will assume the duties of director and pastor's assistant.

Music at Lions' Club

Mrs. Jean Pearey gave vocal solos at the Lions' club luncheon yesterday noon at the Marion hotel. Mrs. Pearey was accompanied at the piano by her cousin, Miss Betty Harris of Memphis, Tenn.

Guests at Miles Home

The Misses Ethel and Lucille Jamison of Bemidji, Minn., were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. Robert Dann and Miss Eva Miles at the B. C. Miles home. The Misses Jamison, who are making a tour of the west, will visit Yellowstone national park en route home.

War Mothers Attend Picnic in Portland

Four members of the national board of the American War Mothers will be in Portland today after attending the meeting of the board in Thermopolis, Wyo., and the dedication of the national memorial home in Denver, and will be guests of the Oregon state board and Portland chapter No. 2. Mrs. Florence E. Garver is president of state and city organizations.

The visitors will be Mrs. A. Shannahan of Jersey City, Mrs. M. B. Little of Wadesboro, N. C.; Mrs. E. A. Howell of Altoona, Fla., and Mrs. M. C. O'Neil of Washington, D. C.

A drive around the city and on the Columbia highway during the morning will be followed by a luncheon at the Multnomah hotel at 2 o'clock, when members of Portland chapter No. 2 will be hostesses.

Members of the state board who will greet the guests will be Mrs. Garver are Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mrs. H. Carson, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks and Mrs. Mark Skiff of Salem; Mrs. John Kubanks, Mrs. W. H. Duncan and Mrs. Emma Field, —Oregonian.

California Visitors Are Honored at Tea

Mrs. C. K. Logan and Mrs. Harold Hughes were joint hostesses on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hughes, honoring Miss Hazel M. Crawford of Long Beach, Cal., and Miss Ruth Stratton of Marysville. Miss Crawford was a guest during the first part of the week at the Logan home, while Miss Stratton is visiting Mrs. Hughes. Both Miss Stratton and Miss Crawford have been enjoying a vacation trip in Alaska.

The tea table was arranged on the veranda. A color scheme of pastel shades was used throughout. Sweet peas and gypsophila in a crystal bowl centered the table.

Guests of the afternoon included Miss Stratton, Miss Crawford, Mrs. William Hughes, Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Mrs. F. W. Lange, Mrs. I. Farmer, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. Charles Law, and the hostesses, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Hughes.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Hughes honored Miss Stratton at dinner, placing covers for the honor guest, Miss Ruth Stratton, Mr.

(Continued on page 4.)

At the Theaters Today

The Elsinore—Conway Tearle, Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Greater Glory."

Oregon—Marshall Neilan's "The Great Love," with Chester Conklin and Zazu Pitts.

High—Five acts vaudeville and pictures.

Klamath Falls—Construction of Southern Pacific buildings started; to cost $325,000.

The Show Place of Oregon

Such a Picture as the World Has Hoped For

The mightiest epic of all ages—blood red drama that sweeps to the heights of dramatic achievement in measures of smiles and tears unforgettable.

IN TEN BIG ACTS

ALL NEW STARTS TODAY
3 Days

TODAY
SUNDAY
MONDAY

ADAPTED FROM
EDITH O'SHAUGHNESSY'S
Famous Novel of the World War
"VIENNESE MEDLEY"

With the Finest Array of Talent Ever
Assembled for One Picture, Headed by

CONWAY TEARLE
ANNA Q. NILSSON

International
News Events

Special Solo Number
"Still Wie Die Nacht"
Played By
BURRSTON

"Felix In School Daze"

MATINEE 25c :: 35c EVENING

MARSHALL NEILAN'S production THE GREAT LOVE

IT'S HERE!

The most novel and hilarious has been flashed on the screen!

July Bride Is Honored by W. B. A.
On Thursday evening, July 29, at their regular meeting in Fraternal temple, the Woman's Benevolent association entertained informally honoring Mrs. Harold Cook (nee Dorothy Smith) whose wedding was a recent event.