How to Save Clothes Money

You can do it by depriving yourself of needed new clothes, but that's the poorest way to save clothes money. It will cost you—or lose you—more in the end than it saves.

Try this way and you'll find that it saves you more money to buy good clothes when they're needed—and then to keep them clean.

The most convenient plan is to send one garment here for a cleaning, soon as you change to a fresh one. Then you're never caught unprepared.
