Dempsey-Tunney Fight Tickets to Sell from $3 to $27.50 Says Tex

SALE STARTS SOON, CHAMP TRAINS ON

Rival Clubs Cmopete in Offering Quarters for Intensive Work

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Jack Dempsey, heavy weight champion, Sunday night will leave Saratoga Lake where he has been training for his fightt next month with Gene Tunney, and will take up training quarters Monday in Atlantic City. Dempsey's manager announced tonight that the move to Atlantic City is at the request of Tex Rickard, promoter of the fight.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—(By A. P.)—Tickets for the Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney championship boxing bout to be held in the sesqui-centennial stadium on September 25, will be placed on sale next week. Prices will range from $3 to $27.50.

In making this announcement today Jules Aronson said that Tex Rickard, New York promoter of the fight, would come to Philadelphia to establish publicity and ticket selling offices. With Rickard will come a corps of ticket salesmen and other attaches of his organization who will set the local machinery in motion for the first heavyweight world's championship fight ever held in Pennsylvania.

Invitations to establish their training quarters were sent today to Dempsey and Tunney by several country clubs. No replies have been received to any of the invitations, so far as could be learned.

Dempsey and Mayor Bader of Atlantic City are close friends and the mayor is eager that he establish his camp there. Billy Gibson, the challenger's manager, is expected here tomorrow to look over suitable sites.

SPECULATOR, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Gene Tunney, challenger of Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship of the world, showed the usual even tenor of his way at his training camp today with the usual rounds of training stunts and his customary jaunt to the woods with a book for a quiet bit of reading.

There is no hint about the camp here yet as the probable place for future training, in view of the change of scene of the bout from New York to Philadelphia. It is understood it will probably be several days before the camp is moved.

He went through four or five fast rounds with Bill Vidabeck, his New Jersey heavyweight sparring partner. The group of sparring partners will be added to tomorrow by the arrival of Bud Gorman of Summit, N. J., another heavyweight. Sunday, Johnny Grasso of New York is expected.

Several individual protests were made against holding the fight by clergymen today, but there has been no organized movement against it. In voicing the opposition, the Rev. George B. Peuce, president of the Presbyterian Ministers' association of Philadelphia, said he felt sure that some of the religious organizations would "express themselves strongly" in the matter.

CHINNOOK SALMON BEGINNING TO RUN

Fishing in Nearby Streams Good, But Water is Muddy From Rain

The Chinook salmon are beginning to enter the rivers, according to reports received from coast fishing centers by the Anderson sporting goods store. Fishing in nearby rivers continues good, although the recent rains have muddied the water somewhat.

The reports follow:

Alsea river—Reports from Waldport: blue back and salmon beginning to come in; some chinook being caught; fishing should be good by the week-end; Alsea river and Drifht high. Boast for rent by C. M. Buckley, 4 miles east of Waldport. Blue backs running in Yachats river.

Big Nestucca river, at Woods—Some good catches of blue backs and trout made the last few days; chinook beginning to come in; best luck on bluebacks made trolling with nickle spoons. Boats and cabins for rent from R. C. Neil at Woods.

Siletz river, at Taft—Fishing reported good on lower Siletz; salmon trout and bluebacks biting good, best luck using a troll with a large nickle flash spoon and a small nickle spoon behind the flash, using chub for bait. oBats for rent at Taft from G. W. Gretulla.

Tillamook streams—Wilson and Trask river reported good fishing for trout and bluebacks; some chinook salmon being caught in the bay.

North Santiam—River muddy above Mill City; fishing not very good.

South Santiam, via Albany, Lebanon, Foster—Fishing good above Foster, using spinners or flies; a good catch of fish made on Wiley creek with coachman flies.

Local bass fishing—Bass fishing continues to be good, using either plugs or bait; some of the lakes yielding good catches are Clear lake, Goose lake, Hubbard lake and Wheatland ferry lake.

BAYES GETS DRAW IN EUGENE FIGHT

Ralph Moore Knocks Out Young Tracy in Third Round of Main Go

EUGENE, Aug. 20.—(AP).—Ralph Moore, 136 pound mauler of Marshfield, won over Young Tracey, 134 pounds, of Portland, with a knockout in the third round of a scheduled 10 round fight, and George Dixon, 147, Portland, and Olympia Kid Johnson, 147, Olympia, Wash., fought to a draw in 10 rounds, in a double event boxing show staged at Hayward Field, in connection with the Trail to Rail celebration here.

Phil Bayes, of Salem, gained a decision over Johnny Kelly of Portland in a six round preliminary. Harold Davis, Eugene, and Jimmy Demith, Corvallis, fought four rounds to a draw, while Jimmy Wilburn, Eugene, gained a decision over Joe McMasters. Two Portland newsboys, Kid Perry and Young Percy, fought a sparkling four round curtain raiser.

DUNDEE, CRIPPLED WINS BRILLIANT GO

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Johnny Dundee, of New York, fighting with only one hand after he had injured his right in the third, tonight won a judges' decision over Fred Bretonnel, of France, in the 10 round feature match of a boxing show for charity at Ebbets' field.

The victory stood out as one of the most remarkable in Dundee's 15 years of fighting. Although Bretonnel rushed him aggressively with lefts and rights to the body, Dundee met the attack with a marvelous left which flew in all directions.

He cut the Frenchman's mouth in two places and frequently compelled the foreign fighter to clinch. Almost the entire battle was fought at close quarters with the American more than holding his own.

Dundee was under weight more than six pounds, scaling 128 to his opponent's 134½.

ELIZABETH RYAN EVADES DEFEAT

Helen Wills' Conqueror Narrowly Escapes Fate at Forest Hills

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 20—(By Associated Press.)—Elizabeth Ryan, of California, conqueror of Helen Wills and tournament favorite, barely escaped defeat today in her quest of the women's national tennis championship.

It required all the pluck and determination of the 36 year old veteran to ward off a brilliant driving attack by Eleanor Goss, of New York, who has been aiming at the crown from a place in the ranking first ten for almost a half score of years.

The New York girl was leading the second set, when Miss Ryan, by covering, desperately brought the score to 3 all, finally winning the set at 6-4. The loss dulled the edge of Miss Goss' attack and her game finally collapsed completely, Miss Ryan winning the final set at love for a match triumph at 3-6, 6-4, 6-0.

BERLBACK WINS IN FIRST FRAME

Knocks Down Francis Charles Three Times in One Minute Go

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(AP).—Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Francis Charles, of France, in the first round of a 10 round match at Ebbets' field tonight.

The battle lasted only one minute and nine seconds, with Referee Patsy Haley stopping the match as the French fighter fell for the third time under the terrific left handers of the Astoria puncher.

The men no sooner had squared off than Berlenbach sank his left to the body. Charles went down for a count of five. A second left dropped the European man for a count of seven. As the foreign fighter, making his first appearance in this country, arose, Berlenbach fired a fusilade of lefts and rights at him and Haley halted the one sided affair as Charles slumped to his knees in his own corner.

Berlenbach weighed 174½—five pounds more than his opponent.

Round Faces Stand Best Chance in Movie Work

CULVER CITY, Cal.—Is your face round?

Then your chances of success in the movies is greater than if your face were long, if you are one of the vast army of people whose ambitions lie along this direction.

The perfect camera face must be round, says Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer experts. It makes little difference how exquisite the coloring or how perfect the features, the contour of the face actually decides one's fate in the movies.

The color of the hair and the eyes does not matter. There are just as many blue-eyed girls on the screen as there are brown-eyed ones. Norma Shearer, Eleanor Boardman, Lillian Gish and Mary McAvoy are only a few who have blue eyes, yet each one is a distinct photographic type.

Nothing: What you get when you grab for something farther off than the length of your arm.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

BY NORMAN E BROWN

Is George Sisler to doff the uniform as well as the managerial epaulets of the St. Louis Browns before another season rolls around?

Enough rumors regarding the possibility are afloat at this time to make the question worthy of consideration.

Some time ago came the rumor that Connie Mack was angling for the great first baseman—in fact offered most any combination on his ball club to Owner Ball of the Browns in exchange for Sisler.

More recently Washington fans heard the report that Sisler is booked to play first base for the capital city team next year. According to this last report three stars of the Washington club—though setting stars they may be—are to go to St. Louis in the deal. The three are Joe Judge, Goose Goslin and the always-being-traded Mr. Peckinpaugh. If Peckinpaugh moved every time his name was mentioned in a trade the railroad companies would be declaring extra dividends every three weeks.

There may or may not be anything to these rumors. There are some conditions though which would tend to substantiate them.

First of all George Sisler has been unable to build an harmonious, winning ball club during his term of service in St. Louis. A fairly strong voting element in St. Louis wants his scalp.

Second, Sisler most certainly would not step down as manager and labor for Ball under some other pilot.

In losing Sisler—when he does depart—Ball will lose a great first baseman and ball player, regardless of Sisler's limitations as a manager. Ergo Ball must get some good players in return for modest George.

Neither the Senators nor the Athletics will stand on their present lineups next season. Connie Mack has let it be known he wants to strengthen his infield. Joe Hauser is a good player, when able to play. Jimmy Poole has been doing good work at first when sent in. But George Sisler, or a man of his caliber, would strengthen the Athletic infield several hundred per cent.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Senators fined Goslin this season for indifferent playing. There has been talk for some time that the "Goose" and Bucky don't hit it off together. Judge would give the Browns a steady first baseman and a good hitter to fill the gap left by Sisler. And Peck has been slated for a managerial berth some place for four or five years.

Sisler probably would enjoy a berth in the east. He has spent his baseball life in the west. There may be fire where this smoke curls.

When, at eighteen, Moana entered upon his ordeal, in accordance with Polynesian tradition, at the hands of Tufanga, the master tattooer, he bore himself as the son of a chief might be expected to do. For six weeks the biting needles pricked in the design from above the waist to below the knee; yet no whimper escaped his lips.
