

You Can Rely on Our Drugs

If there is one particular thing in which care and purity are important, it is the compounding of drugs.

Our drugs are reliable—whatever you get here is right in every way.

CAPITAL DRUG STORE
Only the Best
AGENTS for THE OWL DRUG Co. PRODUCTS
STATE STREET at LIBERTY

GOOD WILL OAKLAND

We have 1925 Chevrolet touring that has been run but very little. This car has had the best of care and will make some one a dandy buy.

VICK BROS.

en from the exposed opening will no longer be noticeable, it is believed. The crew will start repairs on the Pine street sewer immediately. This also opens above the water level, and its condition is said to be as bad as at Center street, but fewer people live near it. The local paper mill has decided to call for bids on a sewer to dispose of its waste by carrying it to the Willamette river. Construction of the sewer will begin as soon as the contract can be let.

Blanket Special—
$8.00 and $10.00 wool camp blankets for sale for $4.00 and $5.00 pair. Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co., 12th St. a28

Marriage Performed—
H. W. Mears, Portland salesman, and Margaret Matthes, of route 8, secured a license at the county clerk's office yesterday and were married by Judge Hunt.

Wanted Experienced Waitresses—
Steady employment. Gray Belle. a27

Steamboat to Start—
The steamer Northwestern, first in Portland, will begin its first trip up the river Friday, according to F. W. Karr, president of the Salem Navigation company. The steamboat was originally scheduled to leave several days ago, but the sailing date was delayed.

Lost! Lost! Lost!
Key ring between Eckerlin service station and Black Cat. Trumm Motor Co. a27

Writes Confession—
Harry Rolis Royle, in the county jail here, charged with stealing a typewriter and saxophone from a local church, has written a "true confession" of his life to be published in a magazine. He calls it "From Pulpit to Prison" and says he is the son of a Methodist minister. As a sequel to his story, Royle will probably go to prison again because of stealing the articles from the church.

Special Offer on Electric—
Percolators. Your old coffee-pot taken in for $1 as part payment. Hamilton's. a27

Accepts Position—
Miss Alice Falk of Salem has obtained a position as teacher in the Boardman public schools, to teach Latin and English. She will begin her duties when school opens September 7.

Will Make Repairs—
T. S. Roberts was given a building permit yesterday to repair a one-story dwelling at 505 North Summer street, the estimated cost to be $500. Carl Engstrom is the contractor who will do the work.

Complete Line of—
Monarch Electric Ranges at Hamilton's. a21ff

Guests at College—
Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Canse of Centralia, Wash., were Salem visitors yesterday. They called at the Kimball College of Theology.

Tail Light Out—
C. R. Pierce reported to the local police yesterday that his car had struck another one yesterday on Ferry street. He assigns the cause to lack of a tail light on the other car.

Elks' Dance—
Friday, 27th, for Elks only. a27*

Pays Speed Fine—
Walter Hardwick, of Portland, was arrested on a charge of speeding yesterday by W. B. Geen, and paid a fine of $10 in the justice court.

Monarch Electric Ranges—
For every need at Hamilton's. a27

Skids on Pavement—
A slippery pavement caused two cars to collide yesterday on State and Liberty streets, according to reports made at police headquarters. A car driven by W. J. Williams of Portland was making a left hand turn at the intersection and one driven by Loren Lorse was coming up behind and slid into the rear of the Williams car, bending its fender and bumper.

Have You $20,000 to $30,000—
To invest? Where you cannot lose and must get fair interest. We have several Salem properties for sale with bonded leases that will net you 4 to 9 per cent and steadily increase in value. Investigate. Also smaller first mortgages. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. a25ff

Visits Uncle—
Paul W. Sprague of Geneva, Idaho, was in Salem yesterday to visit his uncle, A. L. Dark.

Children Born—
A baby girl named Catherine Joan has been born to Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Tweed of 1650 Trade street. The child was born August 19. A baby daughter was born August 11 to Mr. and Mrs. John Kirscher of route 6. She has been named Lorraine Donna. A daughter was born August 11 to Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Reeves of 1605 North Cottage street. The child has been named Maxine Louise.

Practical in the Art—
Of fur remodeling. Horgan Furriers. a29

Visit Friends Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Houghberger of San Francisco stopped in Salem yesterday to visit friends. They are on their way home from Seabeck, Wash.

Take Life Tests—
A group of mermaids from the Moonmouth normal school took possession of the YMCA swimming tank yesterday morning. 14 of them coming here to take life saving tests from Mrs. Marjorie Merriott, physical director at the 13th street playgrounds. About eight or 10 of them are believed to have passed the required tests. All have received six hours of instruction in life saving from Miss Lavelle Berger of the normal school.

Wanted Experienced Waitresses—
Steady employment. Gray Belle. a27

New Nurse Added—
Miss Elizabeth Freeman of Portland has been obtained by the Marion county child health demonstration to act as nurse. She will begin her duties September 1, doing night and holiday work. The number of calls received by the demonstration for bedside service has increased so that employment of another nurse is imperative.

See Our Extra Special Offer—
On blankets. Hamilton's. a27

Will Return Today—
Ivan White, Joe Crauthers, Harvey Brock and Albert Hodges, who went from Salem as delegates to a YMCA summer session at Seabeck, Wash., last week, will return today. They received a favorable impression at the school, according to word received here from Lester Adams, executive secretary of the Northwest Council of the YMCA, who was in charge of the school.

Sanford Visits—
E. J. Sanford of Portland is spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sanford of 1410 North 21st street. Mr. Sanford is connected with the advertising department of the Oregonian. He was formerly with the Gideon Stoltz company in Salem.

Scout Executive Leaves—
Harold D. Ware, boy Scout executive, leaves on vacation today. He will go to Seattle to inspect several boy Scout camps in Washington. He plans to spend 10 days touring the country. During his absence, Rex Sanford and Robert Brady will tend to local scout work.

Family Arrives—
Mrs. George T. Pearce, wife of the business manager of the Martin Advertising Service, with headquarters in the Statesman building, and their daughter, Louise, arrived in Salem yesterday, and will make their permanent home at 482 South High street.

Cars Collide—
Cars driven by Henry Gilbert of Tacoma, Wash., and Mosler of Portland collided yesterday at South Commercial and Mission streets, according to reports made at police headquarters. Slight damage was done, according to the reports.

Held for Speed—
Percy Kleeman of Salem was arrested by local police last night on a charge of speeding.

Held by Police—
Anderson Byrd was arrested by Salem police officers last night for driving without a drivers' license.

Fined for Speed—
Donald F. Davies was fined $5 in police court Thursday on a charge of speeding.

Goes to Portland—
Mrs. Myra L. Shank, police matron here, made a business trip to Portland Thursday.

Claxtar

Miss Marguerite G. Matthes of Claxtar and Harvey W. Mears of Portland were quietly married in Salem today. Mrs. Mears is the elder daughter of E. A. Matthes of this place. She is a former student of Salem high school and is a niece of Ella McMunn, the newspaper writer.

Mr. Mears is a brother of Judge Mears of Portland and represents the Goodwear Clothing company of Chicago.

The young people left immediately for points in Idaho and later will be at home in Portland.

BANCROFT JUDGES CASE

BOSS OF BEAVES DISMISSES DRUNK NAMED KELLY

CINCINNATI, Aug. 26. — (By Associated Press). — Municipal Judge William D. Alexander today invited Manager Dave Bancroft of the Boston Braves to act as a special judge in the case of Harry Kelly, 40, charged with drunkenness. Bancroft was the guest of Prosecutor Werke in court.

Noted Cartoonist Rides For Big Cossack Circus Troupe

When Miller Brothers were assembling this spring the 101 Ranch Real Wild West and Great Far East, which will be seen in Salem Friday, Sept. 3, they were after every feature in America, Europe and the Orient. The biggest show of its kind ever assembled had to have everything.

That's why they imported the famous Russian Cossack circus from the London Olympic—Imperial Cossack band, mounted choir, squadrons of the world's most daring and sensational horsemen and all. Jim Williams, the noted cartoonist of the Newspaper Enterprise association, who does "Out Our Way" for hundreds of newspapers, came on for the opening rehearsals at the ranch. Jim was a cowboy once, so Col. J. C. Miller persuaded him to show the Russians a little of the versatility of an American newspaper man. The Cossacks marveled. "What a task journalism in America must be!" they exclaimed.

THAT TERRIBLE THORNE GIRL

BY FREDERIC ARNOLD KUMMER

FIFTY-ONE

"I'm sorry, Miss Thorne," the newspaper editor said, "but we can't publish this."

"You—you can't publish it?" Sylvia stammered. "Why not?"

"Well, for one thing, because it isn't news."

"But—you published the other side of the story—the side that wasn't true—two months ago."

"I know—I know. And we would have been glad to print your side, too, at that time. You were a public character then—a person everybody knew about—was thinking of—because of your choice as the International's latest star. But now, you have been please don't mind my putting it baldly—forgotten. The public's interest in your affairs has gone. If Mrs. Harmon were to bring a divorce suit—or you were to sue her—sue Mr. Harmon—for defamation of character, or something of the sort—we could print the testimony, of course. The subject would then become news. But as matters stand—" he shrugged his shoulders—"we can't undertake it. We shall be glad to run a paragraph to the effect that you have returned to Hollywood—even that you propose making a fight to get back on the screen. But we can't carry on that fight for you. Not until the subject becomes of general interest. Then we will help you all we can." He handed Sylvia her manuscript. "I'm terribly sorry, but you see how it is."

"In other words," Steve exclaimed hotly, "you'll publish sensational lies, if you think the public will read them, but you won't print the truth, if you think the mob isn't interested. Is that it?"

"The newspaperman quietly fit his cornucop pipe, gave Mr. Hollins a scornful glance.

"Why—yes—in a way, young man, in a way—that's it. We try not to print lies, but as for uninteresting truth, if that were all there was to editing a newspaper, we might as well publish the dictionary." He pushed the green shade back over his eyes and turned to his desk. Sylvia and Steve went out.

"The rotten, hard-boiled!" Steve began, but Sylvia stopped him.

"He's right, dear," she said quietly. "Just—saying things isn't what's needed, now—I've got to do something. And I don't know what."

"If you'd only let me beat this fellow Harmon up, I'll bet that would get you on the front page," Steve grumbled.

"But I don't want to get on the front page, dear boy—at least not that way. And, besides, you couldn't beat Mr. Harmon up, as you call it, anyway. He's gone away—disappeared."

"The devil he has! Then that's that. I'll have to think up something else." He relapsed into a gloomy silence, which continued throughout their drive home. Only once did he break it. "Why not shake the whole rotten mess and come to Europe with me?"

Sylvia shook her head.

"I came back to fight, Steve," she said gently, "not to run away. Don't be down-hearted. The hat-le has only just begun."

When they reached the hotel, the clerk handed Sylvia a slip of paper.

"Lady wants you to call her up, miss," he said.

"It's Marion Allison," Sylvia whispered, turning to Steve. "My, I'm glad she's back. I can hardly wait to talk things over with her."

"Is that really you Sylvia?" an excited voice came to her over the wire. "It's almost too good to be true. I just got back from Frisco and was thinking of wiring you. Then my husband told me he had seen Paul Lamar and that you were in town. Good Lord, I'm glad! I can scarcely believe it, even now. Oh, Sylvia, I've such a lot to tell you. So many things have happened. I want you to put on your most beautiful frock and come over here right away. Some other people will be here, too. Friends of yours. In half an hour, I sent for them, as soon as I heard you were in town. It's most important. I can't explain now—you'll find out soon enough. Bye-bye for the moment. And do hurry."

(To be continued.)

Scotts Mills

Mrs. Harvey Brougher visited friends near Turner several days last week.

W. A. Saneressig was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and family visited Mrs. Shepherd's brother, Bruce Bellinger, and family near Lafayette last Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rich, Thursday, August 19, 1926, a 10 1/2 lb. daughter.

Miss Lila Brougher returned to Portland last Wednesday after spending her vacation with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hohman and two children of Marcus, Iowa, and Mr. Anderson and daughters Ruby, Rosa and Mildred, of Lebanon, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paddy Hicks of near Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing and family on Sunday.

Ed. Clough and Mike Landwing visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pliser near Glad Tidings Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Semolke and two children of McKee, visited relatives at Crooked Finger Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Myers and son drove to Independence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vallen attended the funeral of an old friend at Rilewood Monday.

Said a strap hanger to another who had just given his seat to a lady: "Good luck, sir, I've been traveling on this line for three years, and I've never offered my seat to a lady."

"Then you've never had any manners, sir," was the reply.

"No, it isn't that; I've never had a seat."

New Oregon settlers invested $226,000 in Oregon farms during July.

VAUDEVILLE LISTED AT ELSINORE TODAY

Brilliant Talent to Be Featured on Special Program Here

Neil McKinley, heading the vaudeville list at the Elsinore today, admits he is "Just a darn fool," but there is no gainsaying that even a fool may be funny. Neil has a wonderful voice, and could entertain an audience with it alone, but it is just his nature to cut up.

The Pompadour Revue with a splendid looking youthful quintet of talented entertainers endowed with remarkable beautiful trained singing voices and wonderful personalities, will offer a most original and delightfully enjoyable vocal and dancing sketch entitled "Romance."

Bobby Ross, formerly junior state amateur champion of California, golf winner of farewell tournament at Griffith park, Los Angeles, Cal., 1925.

Ernie Gordon and Evelyn Delmar, a most talented couple, are known as "The Pace Setters of Songland." Gifted with remarkable voices, peculiarly adapted to harmonizing, they are certain to win the approval of any audience for in addition to the aforementioned voices they possess scintillating personalities.

A final artistic touch to the feature program at the Elsinore theatre today will be the appearance of Miss Joann Falcy, a clever and talented acrobatic dancer, whose reputation is national.

Visitors Reported in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Peterson were in Salem Thursday. They live in Toledo.

George Lusby, resident of Springfield, was among the visitors in Salem Wednesday.

Harold Ware, boy scout executive, will begin an annual vacation trip this morning.

Charles Leyden of Albany was among the Thursday visitors in Salem.

Mrs. H. O. Hamlin of Corvallis visited Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. George Laubner of Halsey was in Salem Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Campbell of Amity spent Thursday in Salem.

Mrs. W. R. Palmer and daughter, Marita, of Gervais visited in Salem Thursday.

Karl Stewart of Brownsville visited Salem Wednesday.

A. J. Banks of Hood River was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

John J. Bell of Portland was in Salem Thursday.

W. Reed of Portland spent Thursday night in Salem.

Among the Salem visitors Thursday was J. Pusey of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beldin of La Grande were in Salem Thursday.

W. C. Reamy of Hillsboro spent Thursday night in this city.

Mrs. J. D. Young of Portland was in Salem Thursday.

J. Forsythe, a Portland resident, spent Thursday night in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ward are in this city today. They are residents of Portland.

OBITUARY

Evans

At the home, 5 miles east on the road, Daniel M. Evans, age 87 years, father of Daniel M. Evans of Grants Pass, Albert W. of Great Falls, Mont., Jesse of Spokane and Victor Evans of El Paso, Texas, Mrs. Ruth H. Arnold of Seio and Mrs. Remoh Shulz of Salem. Funeral services Friday at 2 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary.

THE GREAT RIVER

O mighty river! strong eternal will. Wherein the streams of human good and ill. Are onward swept, conflicting, to the sea? The world is safe because it floats in Thee.

—Henry Van Dyke

W. T. Rigdon & Son

HOW MANY?

How many people get Chiropractic when they go to a Chiropractor? Learn the Difference

DR. SCOFIELD

"The Best in Chiropractic" 328 Oregon Bldg.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

The Weather

FAIR
Fair, rising temperature in the interior, fog along the coast, moderate northwest winds along the coast. Thursday—Maximum, 68; minimum, 59; river, 2.2, stationary; rain, .70 of an inch; atmosphere, cloudy; wind, southwest.

Illinois Visitors

W. T. Rigdon and family are entertaining Joseph Harbour and wife, from Aledo, Mercer county, Illinois. Mrs. Harbour is a cousin of Mrs. Rigdon. Harold Harbour, son of the visitors, has been in Oregon for a year. He is in the employ of the state highway department, stationed at Monmouth. The visitors are enjoying Salem and admiring the surrounding country. The son hopes his parents may be so favorably impressed that they will decide to come to Salem to stay.

Furs Relined and Remodeled—

Horgan Furriers. a29

Iowa Visitors Here—

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Goffrier have had the pleasure of entertaining, at their home in West Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harbord. Mrs. Harbord is the older sister of Mrs. Goffrier. There are five sisters in the family, and they all enjoyed being together at Newport for a few days.

For a Few Days Only—

Office desks at 20 per cent discount. Hamilton's. a27

Seriously Hurt—

Hershel Hewitt, formerly a professor at Willamette university, and now of Linfield College, is in a serious condition following his recent injuries in an automobile accident at Eugene, it has been learned here. The injuries may prove fatal, it is believed. Professor Hewitt left Willamette in 1921.

Special—9 Room Home—

Close to schools. Cut to $4500 and $1200 will handle. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High St. a1ff

Tourists Fewer—

The fall season is beginning to be felt at the Salem auto park, and attendance is beginning to fall off. Only 22 newcomers arrived Wednesday night, making a total of 49 cars.

Women Wanted—

For both day and night shifts, at Hunt Brothers cannery. a27

Divorce Granted—

A divorce was granted to June Emma Buffman yesterday by the circuit court from Frank M. Buffum, who she alleged made her life burdensome, used vile and vulgar language, was cruel and inhuman, and on one occasion destroyed a number of her clothes. She also Underwood Typewriter Co.

Direct Factory Branch
519 Court St. Phone 305
Typewriters Rented, Sold,
Repaired.
Special rental rates to Students

Wood Wood
TRACY'S FUEL
YARD
107 D Street Telephone 2818

LADD & BUSH Bankers
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

alleged that on or about January 5, 1925, her husband began drinking and that when he was under the influence of liquor he drove her from their home. The court also awarded her $150 for attorney fees and cost of the suit.

Notice to Rifle Club Members—
Next shoot will be on Government Range, north of Turner, Sunday, Aug. 29th, at 1 p. m. a27

License Issued—

Robert S. Kemper, Silverton, sheet metal worker, and Pearl Oliver Weber also of Silverton secured a marriage license yesterday at the court house.

Wanted Experienced Waitresses—
Steady employment. Gray Belle. a27

Appraisers Named—

Robert Rawson, J. W. Chambers Jr., and W. W. McKinney were appointed appraisers of the estate of T. W. Sheehan yesterday by an order of the county court.

Blanket Special—

$8.00 and $10.00 wool camp blankets for sale for $4.00 and $5.00 pair. Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co., 12th St. a28

Asks Divorce—

Harold H. McKinney entered a complaint in the circuit court yesterday asking that he be granted a divorce from his wife whom he alleges deserted him in September 1920, after they had been married for four months.

Now Is the Time—

To get your office desk; 20 per cent discount, at Hamilton's. a27

Suit Dismissed—

Judge McMahon of the circuit court signed an order yesterday dismissing the suit of George W. Whitney against Anna C. Whitney and a suit of Anna C. Whitney against George W. Whitney without cost to either party. The two cases were settled out of court.

Muscovite Picnic Sunday, Aug. 29
Camp Santiam, Jefferson. Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and families welcome. a27*

Writ Issued—
The Merchants Credit Bureau yesterday secured a writ of attachment from the circuit court on the real and personal property of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moir for the value of $234.

Hop Pickers Wanted—

Durbin & Corroyer. See ads. a31

Physicians Meet—

Dr. A. B. Starbuck of Dallas, Dr. W. A. Kuykendall of Eugene and Dr. Hugh Mount of Oregon City, who were selected by a legislative committee of the state legislature to study the medical angle of the workmen's compensation

DISEASES

Treated by Osteopathy and the latest Electrical Therapy including Dr. Abram's Electronic System.

No Charge for Consultation

DR. B. H. WHITE
Physician and Surgeon
506 U. S. Bank Building
Salem, Oregon

Hotel Marion—
Dollar dinner, served 5:45 to 8 every evening. 12ff

Plan Social Meet—
A social meeting will be held by the U. S. Grant Circle Number 5 and Ladies of the GAR at the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Oliver, 334 South Winter street, Saturday afternoon.

G. W. Laflair Moved to—
Rooms 406-7 Oregon Bldg. a31

Visit in Salem—