UNALASKA, Alaska.-More than 100 years ago a small white flower, declared to grow only on this island of the Aleutian group. was found near here. During the last century botanists vainly searched for it. This summer the second specimen was obtained here by Prof. George Haley of St. Ignatius College, San Francisco. The bloom was first reported by Frenchman who accompanied a party known as the Kotzabue expedition to this island in 1815-19. Five other parties came to bunt for it and left empty, bank-
