Promise of Immunity to Bring Facts, District Attorney Keyes Issues Lengthy Statement

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16-(AP)—The illness of Aimee Semple McPherson whose arrest tomorrow on charges of conspiracy to defeat justice in connection with her disappearance mystery has been ordered, is in a critical stage and if complications arise may cause her death, a bulletin issued by her physicians tonight declared. The physicians report follows:

"Mrs. McPherson is suffering from one of the most dangerous infections I know of, which is abscess of the nose, close to her brain. There is very, very great danger that it may go to her brain. In that case, death I fear, would follow."

The physician added that the danger would not be passed for three days and said that any complication would be "extremely danger-

RAIN HALTS CITY CREW

LOW SAYS PAVING OPERA-

TIONS TO CONTINUE

The city paving crew laid off all day yesterday and expects to do so today because of showers that fell Wednesday night and Thursday. Enough rain has not fallen however to hamper the crews operations in the future, according to Walter Low, street commisioner. About 30 blocks remain to be paved, according to Mr. Low, involving from 30 to 35 days' work. If this fall is normal with respect to rain, enough clear weather will come between now and November to permit the crew to finish its

An abnormal winter, with rain every three or four days, will hamper the work and perhaps prevent its completion, but Mr. Low says he is not worried over the prospect.

FAR AWAY

- A recent vagabond among the un-touristed by-ways of Paris has commented on the twist which this city gives the old axim about the grass being greener in far pastures. In America, he says, it is the usual, the conventional thing, to think of Paris as the world's real center of iniquity. An American who loves Paris is suspected of being a gay and devilish-dog. here in Paris the Famous Man in the Street, such as he is, thinks of America in particular and New York in general as Sin's own headquarters. They can tell tales, here, of whole skyscrapers in New York being dedicated to nefarious traffic of all varieties and of Babylonian revels compared to which the dreams of the stage manager of the Folies-Bergere are—say—thin soup. Hence, when a Frenchman leaves for America, powadays, his neighbors raise America, nawadays, his neighbors raise one or both eyebrows and whisper that they always knew So-and-So was

For she believes that someday the old glory will return and then she can take her son back to the throne she has never ceased to cherish for him. In the meantime, she and her family live in ill-concealed poverty near Paris. But Otto is always "Majesty," and lives happily enough in a world which ceased to which reases. to exist eight years ago.

"Fair Would Not Be Fair Without Rain," Say Merchants; Style Show Successful, Many Prizes Awarded for Fruits, Grain, Fancywork

By Lillie Madsen
SILVERTON, Or., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—"A fair wouldn't be a fair without rain," said Silverton businessmen as they gaily decorated their booths to the sound of the patter of rain on the roof. Most of the mercantile booths were not completed until close to 1 o'clock.

The style show at 3 and at 8 o'clock, put on by the J. C. Penney company drew an interested crowd. Local girls acting as models were Arlouine McMullen, Helen Klub, Mildred Klub, and Ella Moores. Helen Klub, a recent student of ELSIE, 14, IN LOCAL Ellison-White at Portland, explained the occasion for each gown as it was worn upon the *.
