

Bishop's Present Their Own Exclusive Shapes And Shades In MALLORY HATS

The Hats of Unexampled Smartness

This is the Mallory "Slam-Down" Feather-Weight Felt so noticeably in vogue for sports, knockabout and for country wear.

This is the Mallory Medium-Weight Felt designed to be dented or manipulated with "careful carelessness" at the wearer's whim.

This is the Mallory Derby, a shape now in course of general revival to accompany the semi-formal type of day dress in town.

This is the Mallory "Snap-Brim" Felt embellished with a colorful and picturesque band executed in our own strictly exclusive patterns.

HATS of commanding character for men who insist upon expressing theirs. We have fine-combed the capitals of the world for shapes, colors and trimmings approved by those whose word in fashion is law in dress.
