POLK COUNTY FAIR GETS UNDER WAY

Seven Communities Enter Exhibits in Fourteenth Annual Event

Seven communities have entered in the fourteenth annual Polk county fair that opened yesterday morning at Dallas, to last three days. Records in attendance and exhibits are expected. Judging of the exhibits will begin this morning.

The communities with exhibits entered are Brush College, Liberty Bell, Monmouth, Williamina, Oak Point, Mt. Pisgah and Falls City. Brush College was prize winner last year. Each exhibit scoring 66 points will be awarded $25, and $1 will be added for each additional point.

Judges for the exhibits are supplied through the OAC extension department. Expert judges are provided for each type of contest.

Complete exhibits of grain, corn, poultry and other farm products have been contributed by many farmers. Uncle Billy Wright of Independence has a big farm display similar to the one he has every year and Miles Davis of Suver has a big vegetable display. Excellent poultry and apple exhibits are features of the fair. The poultry display is the best ever shown there, according to Miss Winnie Braden, secretary of the county fair board.

Boys' and girls' clubs have entered many displays, including livestock, poultry, farm products, sewing products, and the like. These displays and the school exhibits take an important place at the fair.

No admission is charged for the fair, following the program adopted last year which proved very successful. Weather conditions are excellent.

OXFORD STUDENTS MUST STUDY DURING VACATION

ARTHUR ROSEBRAUGH PICTURES UNIVERSITY LIFE

Student Expected to Pass Difficult Examinations at End of Course

Students at Oxford university in England have to do most of their studying during their vacations. Arthur Rosebraugh, Rhodes scholar at Oxford and son of W. W. Rosebraugh of this city, told the Rotary club at its weekly luncheon Wednesday in the Marion hotel.

The day of the average Oxford student during the time school is in session means something like this, according to Mr. Rosebraugh: Get up at 7:30, go over to the hall and sign name to show that he is alive, take breakfast in his own or someone else's rooms, go to a lecture afterwards if he likes, or spend the morning talking to friends, coffee at 11, lunch at noon, sports in the afternoon, tea at 5, dinner at 7:30, and bridge after dinner, accompanied by port wine and coffee.

With a schedule like this, it is almost impossible to get in much work, he says, but at the end of a student's four years he is expected to pass an examination over all the subjects covered during the course in all their ramifications.

There are about 27 colleges in the university, he stated, each one being an independent unit. They are scattered all over the town, each one with several quadrangles and a playing field.

The university organization is superimposed over the various colleges in a manner analogous to the American federal government over the various states. A vice-chancellor is at the head of this organization.

About three-fourths of the students take part in athletics. Mr. Rosebraugh stated, and each different sport has a club, even down to the chess and ping-pong clubs.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS PLAY AT ELSINORE

Anna Q. Nilsson Film "Her Second Chance" Also Shows Today

The Hi-Lo-Five out of the Student Prince company, consists of a male singing quartet aided by a prize winning beauty in the first of five acts at the Elsinore today. Besides the vaudeville Anna Q. Nilsson will be shown in "Her Second Chance."

Miss Juanita Thomas won the title of "The Prettiest Girl in Iowa," through a contest held by the Des Moines Capitol, one of the leading newspapers in the state. This should be of special interest to Salem citizens in view of the recent controversy as to whether girls in the Iowa capitol building or those in Oregon were the prettiest.

Johnny Herman, who describes himself as "A Cloud with a Silver Lining," is the blackface comedian and songster in the second act.

Knox and Steison are expert hat jugglers, whose boomerang tricks with hats of all sizes and description offer a most interesting bit of entertainment in the third act.

Kathryn McConnell, "The Paprika Girl," and Ed West, a funny comedian, will offer their comedy classic, "A Lesson in Golf," in the fourth act of the vaudeville.

"A Variety Musical Frollic" is the title of the act of two petite young misses named Bernard and Merritt in the last act.

Portland—Apple exports this year will break all records with improved cold storage facilities at docks.

PUTNAM KEEPING AFTER WET LABEL

Publisher Seeks Mandamus Compelling Kozer to Put Slogan on Ballot

George Putnam, Salem newspaper publisher, who was nominated for the office of state senator for Marion county at the democratic primary election, today will file mandamus proceedings in the state supreme court to compel the secretary of state to print the slogan "opposed to prohibition" after his name on the official ballot at the November election.

Mr. Putnam will base his suit on a recent supreme court decision in which it was held that independent candidates at the November election were entitled to have a slogan after their name on the ballot.

The suit to be filed by Mr. Putnam probably will determine for the first time in the Oregon courts whether a party nominee is entitled to a slogan at the November election under the same rule as laid down in the proceedings involving independent candidates.

FOUR LETTERMEN BACK AT PARRISH

Coach Brown Will Have Thirty-three Out for Football Practice

Parrish junior high school started football practice yesterday under the direction of Coach Frank Brown. Thirty-three suits are expected to be issued to the squad. The team will have to be built around four lettermen from last year: Bill Lehman, halfback; Granville Perkins, guard; Walter Bougher, guard; and Joe King, quarterback. With these men as a nucleus the coach expects to build up a team that will make a creditable showing this season.

The school has been handicapped in getting a schedule, as most of the valley high school teams are much heavier in avordupois. The actual playing schedule will not be announced until later in the season.
