

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Kidnaper Hits Auto—Elmer Olson reported at local police headquarters Friday that a boy on a kidnap car ran into the rear end of his car as he was backing from the curb at Church and Marion streets. The boy suffered no further injuries than a skinned leg, according to the report.

Plant Sale Today—Next to Dixie Bakery. s25*

Will Sacrifice High Grade—Piano left with us for quick sale. See this snap. Tallman Piano Store, 395 S. 12th. s30

Cars Collide—Cars driven by William Sippell Jr. and Homer Carson collided at High and Court streets Friday, according to a report made at local police headquarters.

Furniture Upholstery—And repairing. Geise-Powers Furniture Company. s21*

Furnace Heated Homes—Strictly modern. We have seven new homes to show you. Priced $4,000 up. Immediate possession on three. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. s221*

Veteran Tent Planned—A tent equipped with many conveniences for members of all patriotic organizations will be maintained on the state fair grounds during fair week by the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and its ladies' auxiliary. Ladies who will be in charge at the tent are Emily Prescott, Minnie Baker, Lizzie Smith, Iph Lausch, Mattie Schramm, Florence Shipp, Louise King, Alice Adams, Dae Staford, Gertrude Remington and Hattie Cameron.

Peter Johnson Returns—To Halik & Eoff after three weeks' vacation. s25

See the Birchfield—Davenport which will be built in the windows of the Geise-Powers furniture store Wednesday afternoon and evening, and each afternoon and evening all during the week. s25

On Business Trip—A. R. Woodhill of this city went to Albany Thursday on a business trip. He formerly lived in that town.

Cooked Food Sale—Saturday, Sept. 25, at S. P. ticket office, sponsored by ladies of First Christian church. s25*

Modern Home, 6 Rooms—For sale right now. Has furnace, fireplace, ldr, hardwood, extra plumbing, 12x18 cement floor garage. Now $5250. Some terms. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. s221*

Attend County Fair—Judge and Mrs. F. W. Duncan have gone to Albany to attend the Linn county fair.

Just a Few More Days—To get those big black grapes at Flava vineyards. Three miles north in Polk county. s26*

Decision Next Week—Judge Skipworth of Lane county next week will hand down a decision in the suit brought by George Putnam, Salem newspaper publisher, to compel Frank Bramwell, state superintendent of banks, to maintain the principal office of the state banking department in Salem. Arguments in the case were completed in the circuit court here yesterday. Mr. Putnam alleges in his complaint that the principal office of the banking department is now located in Portland, while a branch office in charge of one girl is conducted in the state capitol.

Visit the Perennial and Bulb—Sale Saturday. Next to Dixie Bakery on Court street. s25*

Lions Plan Trip—Several cars conveying Salem Lions will leave for Tillamook this afternoon to attend the charter night celebration there. Local members will leave the chamber of commerce building at 3:30 o'clock.

See the Birchfield—Davenport which will be built in the windows of the Geise-Powers Furniture Store, Wednesday afternoon and evening, and each afternoon and evening all during the week. s25

Install Lamps—New lights in front of the Ladd & Bush and United States National banks have been installed and are now in use. They are 200-watt and 300-watt lamps.

Notice—Willamette Students—You can't go wrong if you eat at the Black Cat. Best eats in the city. s25

Chimney Burns—A small chimney fire at 698 N. Liberty street called out the fire department last night. No damage resulted. s25

For Rent, Modern Flat—5 rooms, adults, $35—666 1/2 Ferry. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. s221*

Pays Motor Fine—L. E. Darlington was fined $1 by Mark Poulsen, police judge, for leaving his motor running while his car was parked in the street.

Complete Line of—Monarch Electric Ranges at Hamiltons. A21*

Attend Linn Fair—Governor Walter M. Pierce and his brother, C. W. Pierce, have gone to Albany to attend the Linn county fair.

License Issued—John F. Steinhilber of Woodburn and Mrs. Ada Jermon of this city have taken out a marriage license in Vancouver, Wash.

Plant Sale Today—Next to Dixie Bakery. s25*

Convicts Hear Returns—More than 500 convicts in the Oregon state penitentiary Thursday night listened to radio returns of the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia. The returns were received from KGW broadcasting station, Portland. Warden Lillie said the convicts confined their demonstration to cheers when it was announced that Tunney had received the decision.

Minnetta Magers of Portland—Will continue her vocal classes at Salem Friday and Saturday of each week at the Derby Bldg. Phone 365. s26

Car Is Hit—A car driven by William Schaffer was struck in the rear while making a turn into the River road according to a report filed at the sheriff's office. No details of the accident were given.

Halik & Eoff—New Philco-AB Eliminator. s25

Marriage Licenses Issued—Three couples procured marriage licenses at the office of the county clerk yesterday. They were P. K. DeShields, Salem sales-

Linn—Carl Linn died at a local hospital Sept. 24. The body is at the Webb funeral parlors. Funeral announcement later.

Naderman—John Peter Naderman, age 79, died near Turner Sept. 24. He is survived by his widow, Johanna L. Naderman, a daughter, Catharine Brant of Oakville, Wash., and three sons, Theodore Naderman of Turner, Gerard Naderman of Oakville and George Naderman of Salem; and a sister, Helen Brockman of Germany. The body is in charge of the Webb funeral parlors. Funeral announcements later.

CHOICE of Traub Genuine—Orange Blossom engagement and wedding rings is a tribute to the judgment and good taste of the wearer. HARTMAN BROS. Square Deal Jewellers, Corcoran Bldg. and Liberty.

TAXIDERMIST SHOP—E. E. WIGGINS, Prop. Near Woodry's Auction Market 1145 Norway Telephone 2261-W

WOOD TRACY'S FUEL YARD—167 D Street Telephone 2818

Underwood Typewriter Co.—Direct Factory Branch 81 Court St. Phone 262 Typewriters Rented, Sold, Repaired Special rental rates to Students

LADD & BUSH Bankers—Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

TERWILLIGERS—Perfect Funeral Service For Less Licensed Lady Mortician 770 Chemekeeta Street Telephone 324 man and Doris Price of Roseburg, Edward Anman, Salem janitor, and Irene Thomas of Salem, and Harold O. White, 1505 S. Capitol street, and Kathleen Todd of Salem.

Used Pianos—Lots of Them—$50—$75—$100—$125—$150. See them at Tallman Piano Store, 395 South 12th. s30

Damages Asked—L. N. Blowers of California filed a complaint in the circuit court yesterday against D. A. Larmer of Salem for damages alleged to have resulted when a truck driven by Larmer hit Blowers' automobile at the intersection of Commercial and State streets. Blowers claims that Larmer took the right of way from him and his machine suffered damages to the extent of $251.45, and that the loss of time resulting is worth $30. The accident occurred on March 29, 1926.

Hotel Marion—Dollar dinner, served 5:45 to 8 every evening. s21*

Cars Collide—R. B. Calkins of Portland reported at police headquarters here Friday that his car collided with an unidentified one on the highway about half a mile north of Salem. No details of the accident were given.

See the Birchfield—Davenport which will be built in the windows of the Geise-Powers furniture store Wednesday afternoon and evening, and each afternoon and evening all during the week. s25

Backed Car Hit—A car driven by L. D. Freeland of Portland was backing from the curb Friday on High street when it was struck by another driven by A. J. Rousseau of Salem, according to reports filed at the local police station Friday.

W. A. Linton, George Orey and J. H. Wimm were fined $1 each in police court yesterday for overtime parking charges. Elwood Patzen was fined a similar amount for parking double. s25

High Grade New Pianos—Reduced to $200—$245—$298. Why pay more? Terms. Liberal discount for cash. Tallman Piano Store, 395 South 12th. s30

Boy Is Hustler—One of the incidents in connection with the sale of the fight extras on the street Thursday night was Herbert Morley, one of Finest for Parking—W. A. Linton, George Orey and J. H. Wimm were fined $1 each in police court yesterday for overtime parking charges. Elwood Patzen was fined a similar amount for parking double. s25

Giant Flower Grown—A sunflower in Turner grown by Mrs. A. L. Mathias measures 64 inches in circumference and is 12 and a half feet high. The talk is 10 inches in circumference. The flower was grown without irrigation and is believed to be the largest in the county.

New Report Card—Grade school students in Salem and Marion county will be marked on their personal habits with a new form of report card adopted by the schools. To be used for the first time this fall. The back of the card has blanks on which the teacher places marks for clean hands, clean teeth, neatness, posture, cheerfulness, and the like. It also has health suggestions for the child, to be read by the parents. The new form of card, which was prepared by the Marion county child health demonstration, will be used in grade schools only.

See the Birchfield—Davenport which will be built in the windows of the Geise-Powers furniture store Wednesday afternoon and evening, and each afternoon and evening all during the week. s25

Will Build Home—V. R. Irow was granted a building permit in the city recorder's office Friday to erect a dwelling at 1675 Broadway, the estimated cost being given as $3500.

Car Damaged—Bent bumpers and fenders were the only damage resulting when George C. Beechler ran his car into the stern of one driven by Roy Everson Friday as Everson came to a stop at the corner of Chemekeeta and Court streets, according to reports made at police headquarters.

Martin Gruber Visits—Martin Gruber of Tillamook was in Salem Friday visiting with old friends. Mr. Gruber drove the patrol wagon for the Portland police department many years ago at the same time that Harry Smart, local police officer, was an officer there. Horses were used in those days and Smart had the whole southern end of Portland for a beat, covering it on horseback.

Daughter Is Born—A daughter was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Starr of 2050 South Church street. The child has been named Donna Kathleen.

Information Sought—A. M. Church, of Salem, ex-newspaperman and now magazine writer, is seeking the name of the Oregon man who, 50 years ago, at the Philadelphia centennial, won first honors for the best long textile fibre flax grown in the nation. The award was exhibited at the Salem corn show recently, but no one seems to know the name of the man making the display. Anyone in position to furnish information, is requested to communicate at once with Mr. Church, 545 North 13th street, Salem. A ghost story, written by Mr. Church, appears in the current issue of "Ghost," a nursery publication.

THE MOST FAMOUS CHARACTERIZATIONS OF THIS SUPER-VILLAIN OF THE SILVER SHEET BY REQUEST

MR. MAD ORIT

TERWILLIGERS—Perfect Funeral Service For Less Licensed Lady Mortician 770 Chemekeeta Street Telephone 324

WOOD TRACY'S FUEL YARD—167 D Street Telephone 2818

Underwood Typewriter Co.—Direct Factory Branch 81 Court St. Phone 262 Typewriters Rented, Sold, Repaired Special rental rates to Students

LADD & BUSH Bankers—Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

TERWILLIGERS—Perfect Funeral Service For Less Licensed Lady Mortician 770 Chemekeeta Street Telephone 324

GOOD WILL OAKLAND

We have an Overland 4-door sedan with 85% rubber, bumpers, spot light, motor, automatic wiper, rear view mirror and a car that is in fine condition for $425.00. This is the best value we have had for some time. See this one before buying.

VICK BROS.

the boys selling extras, started down the street with a bunch of papers under his arm and they sold rapidly as he stepped along the street but he ran up against a gentleman who wanted to buy a copy for 1 cent. Inasmuch as the price was 5 cents Herbert refused to do business on that basis, however, being a good trader he finally made a bargain to sell the paper for one penny, a banana and an apple. Herbert is only seven years old but is a real hustler and trader.

Rooms Wanted—The Salem Ad club is now listing rooms for state fair visitors. If you have a furnished room that is available for next week please phone 1945. s25

J. P. Maderman Dies—J. P. Maderman, Battle Creek, Ore., died at his farm home Friday, Sept. 24, at 12 o'clock. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Fails to Stop—Henry Young was fined $5 Friday by Mark Poulsen, municipal judge, on a charge of failing to stop at a through street intersection.

Site to Lease—Service station site to lease on highway. Roads on three sides. Graveled. See Ralph Kletzing at The Statesman office. s26

Giant Flower Grown—A sunflower in Turner grown by Mrs. A. L. Mathias measures 64 inches in circumference and is 12 and a half feet high. The talk is 10 inches in circumference. The flower was grown without irrigation and is believed to be the largest in the county.

New Report Card—Grade school students in Salem and Marion county will be marked on their personal habits with a new form of report card adopted by the schools. To be used for the first time this fall. The back of the card has blanks on which the teacher places marks for clean hands, clean teeth, neatness, posture, cheerfulness, and the like. It also has health suggestions for the child, to be read by the parents. The new form of card, which was prepared by the Marion county child health demonstration, will be used in grade schools only.

See the Birchfield—Davenport which will be built in the windows of the Geise-Powers furniture store Wednesday afternoon and evening, and each afternoon and evening all during the week. s25

Will Build Home—V. R. Irow was granted a building permit in the city recorder's office Friday to erect a dwelling at 1675 Broadway, the estimated cost being given as $3500.

Car Damaged—Bent bumpers and fenders were the only damage resulting when George C. Beechler ran his car into the stern of one driven by Roy Everson Friday as Everson came to a stop at the corner of Chemekeeta and Court streets, according to reports made at police headquarters.

Martin Gruber Visits—Martin Gruber of Tillamook was in Salem Friday visiting with old friends. Mr. Gruber drove the patrol wagon for the Portland police department many years ago at the same time that Harry Smart, local police officer, was an officer there. Horses were used in those days and Smart had the whole southern end of Portland for a beat, covering it on horseback.

Daughter Is Born—A daughter was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Starr of 2050 South Church street. The child has been named Donna Kathleen.

Information Sought—A. M. Church, of Salem, ex-newspaperman and now magazine writer, is seeking the name of the Oregon man who, 50 years ago, at the Philadelphia centennial, won first honors for the best long textile fibre flax grown in the nation. The award was exhibited at the Salem corn show recently, but no one seems to know the name of the man making the display. Anyone in position to furnish information, is requested to communicate at once with Mr. Church, 545 North 13th street, Salem. A ghost story, written by Mr. Church, appears in the current issue of "Ghost," a nursery publication.

THE MOST FAMOUS CHARACTERIZATIONS OF THIS SUPER-VILLAIN OF THE SILVER SHEET BY REQUEST

MR. MAD ORIT

TERWILLIGERS—Perfect Funeral Service For Less Licensed Lady Mortician 770 Chemekeeta Street Telephone 324

WOOD TRACY'S FUEL YARD—167 D Street Telephone 2818

Underwood Typewriter Co.—Direct Factory Branch 81 Court St. Phone 262 Typewriters Rented, Sold, Repaired Special rental rates to Students

LADD & BUSH Bankers—Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

TERWILLIGERS—Perfect Funeral Service For Less Licensed Lady Mortician 770 Chemekeeta Street Telephone 324

GAINES TO DIE, 'TRIAL PUBLIC'

Judge Jones Declares "Constitutional Rights" Were Not Violated

DATE FOR HANGING SET

"I Am Innocent," Convicted Slay-er Tells Court Before Receiving Sentence, Will Appeal Case

SEATTLE, Sept. 24.—(AP).—Wallace Cloyes Gaines was today sentenced to be hanged December 11 by Superior Judge Robert M. Jones. A jury, August 19, convicted Gaines of murdering his daughter Sylvia on the edge of Green lake here June 16.

Gaines' attorneys gave notice of an appeal to the state supreme court. Before sentencing Gaines Judge Jones denied a motion for a new trial and for arrest of judgment. Gaines had contended that he had not been given a public trial.

When Judge Jones denied the new trial motion, he said: "I made the ruling permitting only attorneys and newspapermen in the court as spectators in the interests of the health and comfort of the jury and attorneys in this case. There was no attempt to exclude the public or take away the constitutional rights of the defendant. Even after the ruling was made, I saw faces of persons in court who were neither lawyers nor newspaper reporters."

He then instructed Gaines to stand up. "Have you anything to say?" the judge questioned.

Gaines' face went ashy white, he lost the air of calm which had marked his demeanor through a day of listening to attorneys' arguments.

"I have loved my daughter ever since she was born," he answered with difficulty. "She always said I was a good father. She loved me devotedly. I am innocent and there has been a miscarriage of justice. That is all."

"It remains only to pronounce sentence," Judge Jones said. "I sentence you to death at the state penitentiary at Walla Walla. You are to be hanged by the neck until dead on December 11."

Gaines sat down and slumped into his chair. His wife kissed him. A deputy sheriff interrupted their embrace and led Gaines from the courtroom back to King county jail where he has been since his arrest June 29.

The death penalty was fixed by the jury when it returned the verdict of conviction.

Mr. Boehringer is 77 years old and Mrs. Boehringer is 74. They came to Oregon in 1879.

"Hello, Jurd!" saluted a young swain of the Fossum Trot region, addressing another of his kind who was humped up on a log by the roadside. "What are you setting there for? Anything the matter?"

"None!" was the reply. "Just waiting for Miss Ducky Daddie to come along, that's all. I'm going to take her to singing school."

"But, great guns, singing school don't take place till tomorrow night!"

"I know it, but when a feller's in love he don't mind waiting."

DRIVERLESS CARS

DRIVE UR SELF Company

255 1/2 BLOCK NORTH POST OFFICE NORTH CHURCH STREET PHONE 885

WANTED

1923 or 24 Chevrolet Tourings and 1920-21 or 22 Ford Roadsters

To Be Traded In On New Chevrolets
Newton Chevrolet Co.
Telephone 1000 Opposite City Hall

City was a Salem visitor Friday. George Stein was a Salem visitor Thursday. He lives in Oregon City.

Sam Moore of Corvallis was in this city Thursday to attend the lime hearing.

A. C. Martin of Roseburg was in this city Friday. A. G. Gates of Grants Pass spent Friday night in Salem.

F. C. Heffron of Eugene was among the visitors in this city Friday.

H. B. Howell of Grants Pass was a Salem visitor Friday. Mrs. A. J. Hanley and Elizabeth Burr were in Salem Friday. Their home is in Medford.

Mrs. H. A. Stearns of Ashland was a Salem visitor Friday. Isabella and Velma Austin of Ashland were in this city Friday. Jett Blackburn of Marshfield was in this city Friday night.

Captain O. C. Applegate of Klamath Falls is in Salem today. W. D. Pine of Tillamook spent Friday night in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Graham of Mill City were in Salem Friday. Wray Lawrence of Klamath Falls spent Friday night in this city.

Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Low and their daughter were in this city Friday. They live in Coquille.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED HERE

Mr. and Mrs. John Boehringer Honored, Wedding Is Feature

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Boehringer, 2210 North Fourth street, was celebrated with a party at the home of their son, F. J. A. Boehringer, at 260 West Wilson street Friday. They were married in Jibille, Iowa, in 1876.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Boehringer were born in Germany and came to America while very young. Mrs. Boehringer was Miss Louise Buechele before her marriage.

They have five children, two sons and three daughters, all of whom were present with their families at the golden wedding celebration. The children are Miss Anna Boehringer and F. J. A. Boehringer of Salem, Mrs. Emelia Riensche, Mrs. Dorothy Mitchell, and Carl Boehringer of Eugene.

Eight grandchildren present at the celebration included Jack and Wilmer Riensche, Marion, Dorothy and Clinton Boehringer, June Nemyre.

Mrs. Dorothy Nemyre, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boehringer, was married to Clyde Mitchell of Eugene as a special feature of the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Boehringer acted as bridesmaid and best man.

A dinner was served at noon and refreshments in the evening. Mrs. R. L. Putnam officiated at the dinner. Mrs. Boehringer wore some garments that had been worn by her grandmother at her wedding in Germany. The garments are hand cut.

Mr. Boehringer is 77 years old and Mrs. Boehringer is 74. They came to Oregon in 1879.

"Hello, Jurd!" saluted a young swain of the Fossum Trot region, addressing another of his kind who was humped up on a log by the roadside. "What are you setting there for? Anything the matter?"

"None!" was the reply. "Just waiting for Miss Ducky Daddie to come along, that's all. I'm going to take her to singing school."

"But, great guns, singing school don't take place till tomorrow night!"

"I know it, but when a feller's in love he don't mind waiting."

TUNNEY'S MOTHER SCARED SON HURT

Phone Call From Victorious Gene Almost Causes Parent's Collapse

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(AP).—"Gene, tell me the truth; are you hurt?"

This was the question Mrs. J. J. Tunney, mother of the heavyweight champion of the world, asked her son over the telephone when he called up to tell her of his victory, according to Mrs. John Kennedy, a neighbor who was at the Tunney home.

"Mother, I haven't even a scratch. I'll be home as soon as I get a little rest," was Gene Tunney's reply, Mrs. Kennedy said.

Mrs. Tunney sent word to newspapermen seeking to interview her that she was afraid of publicity. Mrs. Kennedy was called into the Tunney home. She came out smiling, while Mrs. Tunney shyly stood behind the door. Mrs. Kennedy said:

"She's bewildered at it all. You know up until last night she did not believe her boy would win. She would not let her friends bet on him, convinced he could never stand Dempsey's blows."

"When Gene finally called up and told her he won, she was almost in a state of collapse from running back and forth upstairs away from the radio to the telephone."

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—(AP).—"First lieutenant, United States marine corps reserves," is the rank that will be bestowed upon Gene Tunney, who last night won the title as heavyweight pugilistic champion of the world.

This announcement was made today by Colonel Cyrus Radford, commandant of the marine corps in Philadelphia.

The colonel called Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, on the telephone, seeking the new champion's name, "I wanted to tell him," said the colonel, "that he has passed his examination for a commission in the marine corps and may expect to receive his commission in a few days."

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—(AP).—Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey, foes in a boxing ring last night in quest of the world's heavyweight title, with all the honor and riches accompanying it, met tonight in Dempsey's hotel as friends. Tunney called on the deposed champion to pay his respects and say goodbye.

Dempsey with his wife, Estelle Taylor, who joined him this afternoon, left tonight for an unnamed destination. Tunney will leave tomorrow morning for his New York home where he was expected to inspire a tumultuous reception. Dempsey, too, will be in

New York within the next few days and probably will make an announcement of his plans for the future.

The former champion was said to be eager to gain an opportunity to regain the title lost last night and Gene Normie, his business representative, said after the new champion's call on Dempsey, that a return engagement probably could be arranged.

PUTNAM TO FIGHT FOR WET SLOGAN

Files Mandamus Proceedings to Get Platform on Ballot

Mandamus proceedings to compel the secretary of state to place the slogan, "Opposed to Prohibition," after his name on the official ballot at the November election, were filed in the state supreme court here yesterday by George Putnam, newspaper publisher and democratic nominee for state senator for Marion county.

Mr. Putnam was nominated at the primary election by having his name written on the