

Fair Race Program Launched Before Large First Day Grand Stand

FIVE EVENTS DRAW STRONG ENTRANTS

Jean Luck, Rienette Logan, So Smart, Frank S., Queen C Are Winners

Under clear skies, and with a good crowd for the opening day, the first day's races at the Oregon state fair were run off on the Lone Oak track yesterday afternoon. A total of five races were held: three running events, one for trotters, and one for pacers.

The first race on the program, the 2:12 trot, for a purse of $1000, was won by Jean Luck, owned by J. H. Luck. Radium Dillon, owned by F. Gulick, was second, and Harry I., owned by G. J. Giannini, was third.

Jean Luck won the first two heats and placed fourth in the third heat, which was won by Radium Dillon. The time for the first heat was 2:12 1/4, for the second heat, 2:10 1/4, and for the third heat, 2:12 1/4.

There were four entries in this race. Headliner, a fifth, was scratched before the race began.

Rienette Logan, owned by J. E. Montgomery, won the second race, the 2:12 pacer, placing first in all three heats. Stoney Logan, owned by F. M. Anderson, was second, placing third in the first heat, and second in the other two. Saxon Boy, owned by A. F. Branteer, was third, taking second place in the first heat.

Saxon Boy did not enter the other two heats, as his driver had him taken out at the start of the second heat because he was lame.

Seven horses were entered in this race, including Saxon Boy and Zolock Hal, who was withdrawn at the beginning of the third heat. The entries were Stoney Logan, Zolock Hal, Reinette Hal, Vallejo Chief, owned by Henry Delaney; Laura B, owned by G. K. Howitt; Prince Zolock, owned by Ziegler and Misner, and Saxon Boy.

Four horses scheduled to enter were scratched before the race began. They were Civilian, Mabel Direct, Amy Bond, and Baron C.

The third race was the "Paramount," a running race for two year olds for a purse of $500 besides the entrance money. The course was 4 1/2 furlongs. So Smart, owned by W. G. E. Smith, and ridden by Dalton, was winner. Nina R. Fireman, owned by E. Thomas and ridden by Neal, was second, and Easter Boy, owned by Dr. D. A. Gitzer and ridden by Schaefer, was third. The time was 56 3-5.

Nina R. Fireman finished ahead of So Smart, but was set back for interference at the stretch. Other entries were Dimples, owned by James Hobson and ridden by Silver, and Willow Brambe 2, owned by C. McDonald and ridden by Miss Lorena Trickey.

The fourth race, won by Frank S., owned by Ben Gouter and ridden by Frank Row, was the "Roughriders," for horses of all ages. The course was four furlongs and the time was 47 1/2.

Cap and Gown, owned by R. Pillon, and ridden by Dalton, was second, and Tar Box, owned by F. E. Bentley and ridden by Treadwell, was third. Other entries were Miss Vancouver, owned by Bert Bagley and ridden by D. Neal; Jim Miller, owned by J. R. Morgan and ridden by Miss Lorena Trickey, and Prince James owned by the Rosebud stable and ridden by E. Neal.

Horses slated to start this race but scratched were Babe Ruth and Tennessee.

The fifth race was won by Queen Catherine, owned by T. Martin and ridden by D. Neal. Shasta Limited, owned by A. W. Reen, and ridden by Dalton, was second, and Virginia Hedwig, owned by W. G. E. Smith and ridden by Scott, was third.

This race was the Ironside trial event, for horses of all ages 10 pounds below the scale. The purse was $150.

Horses scratched before the race began were Slats, Little Man, and Fincastle.

The Cherrian band, led by Oscar Steghammer, played selections between the races, and Claude Stevenson, soloist, sang two numbers. An exhibition of jumping was given by two horses owned by J. McCleary.

Tunney Takes Heavyweight Championship From Dempsey

Photo from Central Press Association and Copyright by Wide World; transmitted over A. T. & T. wire direct from Philadelphia. Gene Tunney, the fighting marine, proved to the world that Jack Dempsey is no longer the fighter that for years vanquished all aspirants for the heavyweight title, by beating him decisively in their ten-round bout at the Sesqui-Centennial stadium at Philadelphia. In practically every one of the ten rounds he won the decision of the judges by landing three or four blows to one. The above picture, taken at the ringside, shows Tunney boring into the former champion which helped to win for him the title of heavyweight champion of the world.

DOGS STAGE RACE ON TRACK AT FAIR

Spectators Dont Know Who Won When Yelping Pack Finish at Tape

A race in which the racers stop and talk it over before they finish is quite an unusual occurrence, but horse race fans at the Lone Oak track yesterday afternoon saw something seemed to go wrong.

Between the third and fourth races on the schedule, spectators were mystified to see about half a dozen long, lean dogs gallop out and dash down the track as though they meant business of some kind. The dogs kept at it and the race was a nip and tuck affair for about three-fourths of the distance around the track.

An old gunnysack towed behind a car that traveled a safe distance ahead of them furnished the incentive for the race, and it was a real race that created as much interest as any of the horse races.

But just as the yelping pack had started on the home stretch, tearing along at a wild pace, something seemed to go wrong. Whether the dogs got "buck fever" at sight of the cheering grand stand, or whether they decided to frame the race, nobody knows, but anyhow they stopped and conferred a while.

They evidently reached some kind of a decision, as they finally started out again at a mad rate, but they started in the wrong direction.

Then they apparently got disgusted with the whole affair, as they made another countermarch and started back the right way, or at least part of them did, and finally arrived at the tape, hanging their heads in a sheepish manner.

One of them forgot to come back at all and started out across the fields after butterflies. Another sat down on the track and seemed to ponder for a while on the uselessness of the whole affair before he finally slunk across the wire.

Nobody knows who won, but everyone agreed that it was a good race, even if it wasn't all in the same direction.

The said sale will be made subject to the approval and confirmation of said Court upon the following terms, to-wit: Ten per cent of the purchase price to be paid by the purchaser to the undersigned referee at the time of sale, and the balance thereof to be paid upon the confirmation of such sale by the Court and delivery of the referee's deed.

Dated this 4th day of September, 1926.

J. C. SIEGMUND, Referee.

ADDING, CALCULATING AND BILLING MACHINES

The Burroughs Portable Adding Machine

The Burroughs Portable Adding Machine, in a few months, has won such a whole-hearted welcome that already 34,971 have been sold and are in use.

This machine has found its place on individual desks in big business concerns, on the counters of retail stores, in the offices of professional men and secretaries of organizations and in many homes.

It adds up to $1,000,000.00; has the standard visible keyboard and right hand control; is very simple to operate. Because of its convenient size and weight it is easily carried from counter to office, desk to desk or business to home.
