

Queen Catherine, in Fast Time, Takes Governor Pierce Derby Prize

FLORAL HORSESHOE GIVEN JOCKEY NEAL

Largest Crowd of Week Present as Eugene Delegation Pays Honor

Tearing around the track in the remarkable time of 1:47 1-2, Queen Catherine, owned by T. Martin, with D. Neal up, won the Governor Pierce derby yesterday on Lone Oak track, leading her nearest competitor by a considerable margin. The race was over a course of 1 1-16 miles, with seven horses entered.

Poor Huss, owned by J. Cheatham, with Shafer up, finished second, and Bedazzle, owned by McDougle, with Sikes up, was third. The track was somewhat damp from showers that fell during part of the afternoon, so the fast time made by the winner is considered especially good.

A crowd that filled the big grandstand and spread itself all along the fence that lines the track was present to view the races. The occasional rain did not dampen the crowd's enthusiasm and did not affect the racing time much.

Following the derby, the winning horse was led out on the track in front of the judges stand and crowned with a huge floral horseshoe of purple and gold flowers presented by Miss Althea Hendricks of Eugene. Governor Pierce made a brief talk giving the history of derby races which he said were like political races in that the winner took all and there was no second money.

Donald Neal, the winning jockey, picked a purse containing the $1000 prize from a purple and white ribbon stretched across the track and retired to receive the congratulations of his admirers before riding another horse in the next race.

Governor Pierce and Miss Hendricks, accompanied by a delegation of Eugene Radiators, arrived before the races in an old time stagecoach, parading up and down the track before the stands. Members of the Radiator delegation were Miss Hendricks, Miss Elsie Nygren, Clifford Harold, W. W. Brandstetter, F. W. Pettysjohn, and C. E. Boyer.

Three other races, besides the derby were held, the first being the 2:08 pace, best three out of five heats, which was won by Carolyn Logan, owned by J. E. Montgomery in three straight heats, each run in 2:08 1/2.

Johnnie Morrissey (J. Morrissey) took second money; Hal Fitzsimmons (George L. Parker) third money, and Borden McKinney (G. J. Glanna) fourth money. Other horses entered were Isabelle Dillon (Fred Gillick), Zolock Halger (M. Wilson), and George M. (J. B. Montgomery).

Carolyn Logan was closely crowded in the first heat by Johnnie Morrissey, Borden McKinney, and Zolock Halger, but won both the other heats by a safe margin.

Joe G. (J. Hobson), with Roe up, took the second race of 5 furlongs for a $250 purse by plenty of margin, running the course in 1:01 3-4. Other horses entered were Onwa (L. Trickey) with Donovan up, Joe Grant (Dr. Gitzen), with Silver up; Seth's Bacon (Ft. Garry Stable) with H. Neal up, and Circulate (G. Cummings) with Smith up.

Randolph (Yakima Stables) with Roe up, took the mile event for a purse of $400, running the course in 1:42. Yalabeg (J. Wartebbe) who took first place in the six furlong race Tuesday, did not fare so well in the longer distance, as she finished fifth.

Other horses entered were Koko (Dick Murrey) with D. Neal up, who finished second, Coltium (J. Hobson) with Frye up, Cork (George Swanson) with J. Day up, and Keala (R. Emmert) with Dalton up.

Plenty of auxiliary events were held between races to keep the spectators interested all the time. Oscar Steinhilber led Salem's concert band with the number of soloists increased to two.

James McCleave staged the same steeplechase for small boys and ponies that was held Tuesday and also had a pair of jumping horses, ridden by J. K. McCleave and Doris McCleave.

Wesley Campbell of the OAC military department gave an exhibition of Roman riding and jumping, and also competed with John Henderson of OAC in a tandem race. In this event each racer rides one horse and drives another.

A flock of 75 pigeons was released during the afternoon to be seen in a 52-mile race to Portland. The event is sponsored by the Oregon Racing Pigeon club. Members with pigeons entered include L. W. Wilson, J. E. Limerick, Ed Lillis, Paul Miller, William O'Donal, Ralph Warren, L. C. Williams, Henry Berger, A. J. Lambel, K. Golding, F. J. Pastner, and H. C. Bettie.

Women Play Second Round For National Golf Crown

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 29.—(AP)—An easy victory for Gladys Collett, and one not so easy for Edith Cummings, featured the second match round for the women's golf crown played under continuing dreary skies and over links pooled with "cessal water" here today.

While Glenn in defeat of her title was eliminating Mrs. Norman Road, of Wilmington, Del. 8 and 6, and Miss Cummings forging towards a recovery of the crown she held in 1923, was defeating Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., 1-up, another of Glenn's early season conquerors was being vanquished.

Helen Payson, Maine champion, went down in spite of consistently good golf, before the well rounded game of Mrs. Courtland Smith, New Jersey state champion, 2 and 1.

RESERVED SEATS COMPLETELY SOLD

Unprecedented Interest Being Shown in World Series Opening Game

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(AP)—With unprecedented interest in their world's series battle indicated by a complete sell out of reserved seat tickets here three days before the opening game, the Yankees and Cardinals today went through the first workouts they have had since closing the regular season.

The death of Rogers Hornsby's mother kept the Cardinal manager from practice and cast a shadow over the National leaguers' camp. Under the direction of Bill Killefer, however, the St. Louis squad put in a brisk drill at the Yankee stadium where the series starts Saturday.

While the players limbered up in comparative peace and quiet there was anything but that at the offices of the Yankee club near Times Square, where the rush of applications for tickets resulted in over-subscription of the available supply by 15,000. The Yankees put 25,000 reserve seat tickets on sale in blocks of three for the first, second and sixth games; but the flood of requests approximated 40,000. Business Manager Edward G. Barrow said:

This demand breaks all records for the series here, where at least part of the classic is being staged for the fifth time in six seasons. It indicates the probability of tremendous demand Saturday, when 38,000 tickets in unreserved sections of the grandstand and bleachers will be put on sale.

No further word concerning the likely opening game pitchers came from either hand, but observers continued to view the prospect of a southpaw battle between Herb Pennock of the Yankees and Willie Sherdel of the Cardinals. Urban Shocker and Grover Alexander, veteran right handers, seemed slated for second game assignments here, although Manager Miller Huggins of the New Yorkers is known to have considerable confidence in Dutch Ruether, seasoned southpaw.

SALEM GRID MEN READY FOR GAME

Strong Grant High School Eleven Will Play High School Saturday

With 30 men turning out daily for practice the Salem high school eleven is rapidly getting into shape for their first game of the season which will be played on the Willamette field Saturday against the strong Grant high school aggregation from Portland.

So far Coach Huntington has confined his work to drilling in the fundamentals of the game and getting the boys to work together. It is expected that most of the squad will get a chance in the game with Grant in order for the coach to judge the men under fire. The men are taking a keen interest in their work and early indications would point to a successful season. The school has been fortunate this season in having most of the games scheduled for the home grounds.

You can teach an old dog new tricks!

I WAS already a veteran pipe-smoker when I ran across Prince Albert. It happened one day in the smoking-car. I reached for my tobacco and found I was "out." A good samaritan sitting across the aisle held out a friendly looking red tin.

I accepted the offer. That was a great moment in my life, as it turned out. Why, that very first taste won me. It was cool, like a breeze through an open window. It was sweet as a ripe peach. It was fragrant, even in that smoke-filled car. I was having the time of my life.

The mildness of Prince Albert appealed to me too. Yet there was plenty of body to it. I knew I was smoking. And I knew I was enjoying it more than any other tobacco I had ever tried. That settled me. I bought some P. A. when the train pulled in.

That was several years ago. I've been a P. A. regular ever since. Maybe you need a similar experience to put you next to the grandest tobacco that ever lined a pipe-bowl. My suggestion is: don't wait! Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound-and-half-pound tin tins, and pound crystal-glass tins with sponge-moistener top, and always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.
