Chemeketa Chapter to Honor Miss Lange With Luncheon at Elks' Club

The leading social event of the week promises to be the 1:30 o'clock luncheon which Chemeketa chapter, daughters of the American Revolution will sponsor on Saturday honoring Miss Anne Lange, vice president general of the organization. The luncheon will be held at the Elks' club, instead of at the Spa, as was announced.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Roy Mills, chairman, or any one of her assistants, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. F. H. Spears and Mrs. Seymour Jones.

DAR Board Meeting in Oregon City Is Reported

The quarterly meeting of the state board of the Daughters of American Revolution held in Oregon City Saturday, with Susannah Lee Barlow chapter as hostess, was attended by 55 members.

The meeting was held at the McLoughlin home, the morning session opening at 10:30 o'clock. Presiding was Mrs. Gordon MacCracken of Ashland, state regent.

Plans for the next three months were arranged and other business transacted, arrangements being made for the next quarterly meeting, the date and place to be decided at a later time.

Chapters represented at the session were from Ashland, Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Eugene, Albany, Salem, Medford, McMinnville, Portland and Oregon City.

Salem delegates were Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Miss Lillian Applegate.

Mrs. H. B. Cartledge, regent of Susannah Lee Barlow chapter, was toastmistress at the luncheon which was served at the chamber of commerce rooms, a number of Oregon City girls assisting in serving.

Miss Betty Forbes, prettily attired in a colonial costume, distributed favors, which were the replica of the original Declaration of Independence, presented by the Susannah Lee Barlow chapter, and also pretty nosegays.

Greetings were heard from Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Miss Anne Lange, The Dalles, vice president general for Oregon; Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent for 1924-26, Salem; greetings from the state regent of Montana, and an address by Eva Emery Dye, who talked on "The Daughters of American Revolution," being a member of Susannah Lee Barlow chapter.

Tru-Bake Crackers
if your Grocer values your judgment he will supply you TRU-BAKE when you order them.

Ask for Tru-Bakes You'll Get Better Crackers

We've tried to make Tru-Bake Crackers so GOOD that folks who seldom eat crackers will enjoy them immensely. And we think we have succeeded. Every operation—from setting the sponge to packing Tru-Bakes—is a rite. So rigid is the inspection that an imperfectly baked Tru-Bake Cracker can not get by. Ask your grocer for Tru-Bake Crackers.
