(Seal) W. H. HENDERSON. My commission expires Sept. 12, 1927) They were playing happily together. Then they got to boasting. Said one: "My papa is a numismatist, You should see his collection of coins!' Not to be outdone, his playmate came right back:

"That's nothing; my mamma is a kleptomaniac. She has such a beautiful collection that they wanted it at the police station."

Says Fear of Ridicule Makes Poor Golf Putters

NEW ORLEANS .- (AP) -Fear of ridicule keeps many a poor putter over a hundred thinks George Turple, professional of the St. John's Golf club here.

"Most golfers would have better luck getting their putts down

if they used only one hand," suggests Turpie. "They refuse to let one hand do the work and in most cases actually have the hands pulling against each other as they hit the ball. All of us have had the experience of nonchalantly hitting the ball with one hand after a hole has been won, and we would doubtless be amazed if we stopped to think how many of these careless putted balls have rolled straight in the cup." Notice of Final Settler Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned have filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Marion, their verified Final Account, as Executors of the last will and testament and estate of F. M. Cook, Deceased, and that said Court has fixed Monday, the 4th day of October, 1926, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, as the time, and the County Court Room in the County Court House, at Salem, Marion County, Oregon as the place for hearing said final account and all objections there Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 3rd day of September, 1926. T. M. COOK, NELLIE MILLER. Executors of the last will testament and Estate of P.
