Attractive Wedding Is Solemnized in Baker

Baker, Ore., Oct. 4.—At high noon, Monday, Oct. 4, 1926, Miss Althea Chatham daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Chatham of 1457 Tamar street, Baker, became the bride of Mr. Dana Straw, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Straw. Mrs. Straw is a very charming young girl and has many friends who wish her much happiness. She is a graduate of Baker high school and has, for the past year, been private secretary to W. S. Levens, state prohibition officer. Mr. Straw is a young business man of this city and is very popular among the younger set. The Chatham home was beautifully decorated in pink and white. The marriage ceremony took place under a beautiful bell made of white asters. Miss Virginia Laughlin played the wedding march and Mrs. Laughlin sang "At Dawning." The ring ceremony was used and Miss Ruth Shook of Baker attended the bride while Harry Mytinger of Pendleton acted as best man. The bride wore a beautiful white silk and lace dress and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Immediately after a delicious buffet dinner the young couple left on a motor trip to Los Angeles, New Mexico and other southern points. They expect to return to their home about October 18.

Moroni Olsen Players Will Present Play at the Elsinore October 21

One of the stellar dramatic attractions of the entire winter will be the first play in the 1026-27 repertoire of the Moroni-Olsen players. These famous players, who established an enviable reputation through three significant engagements in Salem last winter will open the current season with "Dear Brutus" at the Elsinore on Thursday evening, October 21.

The drama, a comedy in three acts, is said to be one of the most unusual plays ever witnessed by any audience. Of course, it has been written with amazing brightness and amazing skill since it is Sir James Barrie's own version of a "Midsummer Night Dream."

The members of the Moroni-Olsen cast have been assigned the parts for which they are particularly fitted as follows:

Characters in acts one and three: Mr. Dearth, the artist failure, Moroni Olsen; Mrs. Dearth, Leora Thatcher; Mr. Purdie, palandering young lawyer, Byron Kay Foulger; Mrs. Purdie, Donna ones; Mr. Coade, a man who thinks he is lazy; Joseph H. Williams; Mrs. Coade, Janet Young; Loh, the eccentric old man, Harry R. Allen; Matey, the butler, Gordon Nelson; Joanna Trout, in love with Mr. Purdie, Dorothy Adams; Lady Caroline Laney, Mary Croke.

Characters in the Wood, act two: The Artist, Moroni Olsen; Margaret (Dearth's daughter), Janet Young; The Hon. Mrs.
