

High School Grid Team Smashes Second Squad in Scrimmage Session

HUNTINGTON'S MEN DO IMPROVED WORK

Machine Is Reorganized in Preparation for Benson Contest Saturday

Smashing the second team to bits in scrimmage yesterday, the Salem high school football team showed more ability than at any time this season. The reorganized first team had power in attack and the line held up better than in any previous practice.

It is hard to recognize this team as the same one that lost to Grant high school last week. It now is a more finished product, and goes through its plays with a snap. Against Grant the team used only three different plays, but now has a complete set of offensive systems that have plenty of deception.

Benson Tech, which meets Huntington's men here Saturday morning, is an unknown quantity. Only a few of last year's veterans have returned, and the team has a new coach, Clarence Bell, a former OAC backfield star.

Tibble and Peterson are new men on the line, having transferred from a high school in Montana. H. Lyons, center last year, has been shifted to tackle and Peterson given the berth at center. Bill East is starting his first game at right guard, completing a heavy line that is considerably different from the one that started against Grant.

Boeke at fullback is beginning his first game as a regular. He is the lightest man in the lineup, but has plenty of speed.

Second team men who are expected to get into the game before it ends are Hamilton and Cummings, ends; Lutz and Jones, tackles; Fabry and Dolby, guards; Bowne, center; Ashby, quarter; R. Kelley and Blaco, halves; and Nelson, full.

The latest new man on the squad is Crosby, a 210 pound fullback and halfback from Miles City, Montana. He received honorable mention on the Montana all-star eleven last year. While Crosby is not in condition to play in Saturday's game, he is expected to win a place in the lineup soon.

Ashby, second string quarterback, has been doing well in practice sessions this week.

No games has been scheduled yet for Thanksgiving day, but efforts are being made to have a Portland team, preferably the champion eleven, come here on that date.

COACH SCHISSLER CHANGES LINEUP

CORVALLIS, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Three changes in the first string lineup for the Gonzaga-Oregon Agricultural college football game tomorrow were made today by Coach Schissler after examining casualties from last night's final scrimmage. "Hip" Dickerson, tackle, Everett Jarvis, half, will not start the game, and may not see action either tomorrow or against California a week later.

Olmstead takes Dickerson's tackle berth, Luby will start at half. The third change is Eilers, to replace Hadley at guard. Others to start are: Ward and Logan, ends; J. Dixon, tackle; Liebe, guard; Balcom, center; Edwards, quarter; Denman, half; Schulmerich, full. There was only light practice today.

Eugene High Grid Squad Prepares for Bend Team

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Eugene high school football team will leave Friday for Bend to meet the Eastern Oregon eleven Saturday. The Eugene line averages about 172 pounds and the backfield about 145. Fifteen men will make the trip, the tentative lineup being:

Ends, Pittman and Travis; tackles, Colbert and Gusk; guards, Callison and Kerns; Burress and Newman, center; Bessonette; quarter, Mainerud or Rubenstein; half, Barker, Riley or O'Connor; full, Van Dorn.

LIGHT WORK DONE BY BOTH FIGHTERS

Shadow Boxing and Exercise Mark Tapering Off Process Yesterday

Light workouts were taken yesterday by Phil Bayes and Battling Hoppe, the boxers who will meet in the main event of tonight's 24-round card at the armory at 8:30 o'clock. Hoppe ceased his daily road work and limited his activity to a little shadow boxing. Bayes also did nothing more than a little exercise.

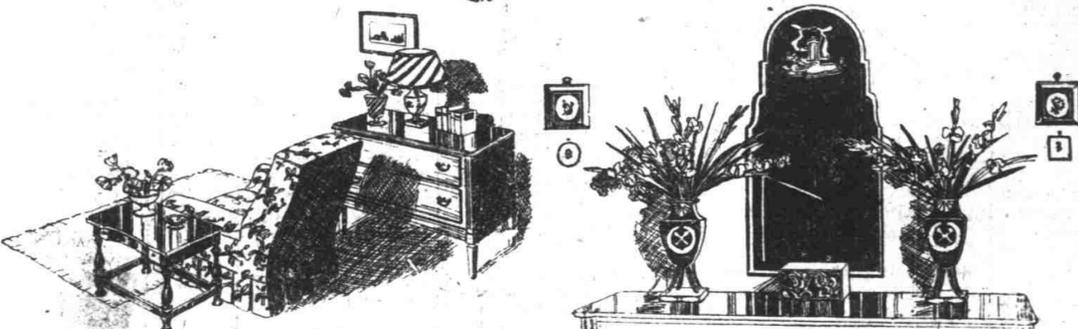

Both men are in fine fighting condition and each is confident of dropping his opponent in short order. Hoppe comes here full of energy and has no doubt of his ability to put Bayes to sleep. Bayes says he will keep up the good work he began in his last bout against Paster Magsambol.

Bobby Clark, who meets Sailor Burke of Montana in the six round semi-final event, is going to have tough sledding, according to reports given by Bud Ridley, Portland boxer, who passed through Salem yesterday. Ridley has seen Burke in action and says he is a real fighter.

Tom Lottit, boxing instructor at the Multnomah club in Portland, will referee tonight. Lottit is considered by many people to be the best referee in this part of the country. He is popular with the fans and respected by the boxers, having the reputation of being both capable and fair in his decisions.

He always runs the fights in a clean manner, and no rowdiness is tolerated. Fights in Salem are noted all over the state for the orderly manner in which they are conducted.
