Numerous "Tips" Keep Officers from California to Arizona Busy

NEW WITNESS CALLED

Board of Supervisors Advances More Money for Keyes to Carry on McPherson Preliminary Hearing

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Harry D. Hallenbeck, formerly a close friend of Alvin Karpis, now a member of the Los Angeles police department, was called to the witness stand by the prosecution during the preliminary hearing of the evangelist on criminal conspiracy charges. It was learned today.

While it was not known just what the state expected to develop from Hallenbeck's testimony, E. J. Benham, assistant district attorney, said the rancher probably would prove a valuable witness. It was understood that the Arizona phase of the case had presented a somewhat different aspect to the prosecutors since the testimony of A. D. Murchison, police officer of Douglas and an experienced desert man.

Reports that Kenneth G. Ormiston, former temple radio operator and co-defendant with the evangelist, his mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy and Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sisler, and who has been the subject of a wide-spread search, had been traced to a point near the automobile, were being investigated. Numerous "tips" that the radio man, considered the key to the disappearance mystery, had been seen in the vicinity of Los Angeles kept special officers of district attorney Asa Keyes busy during the past few days.

Difficulties encountered by Keyes in financing his activities in the McPherson case were ended temporarily today with the granting of an additional $2000 by the board of supervisors.

THREE EDUCATORS FIRED

WOMEN TELL LEAGUE OF HARTLEY'S ACTIONS

TACOMA, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The loss of three of the state's prominent educators under the administration of Governor Roland Hartley shows the extent to which the school system has suffered so far under his regime and points a sinister finger toward the future, according to Mrs. Harry John Miller, of Everett, member of the last legislature, in speaking here tonight before the state convention of the League of Women Voters.

"I am amazed at any woman who supports Governor Hartley," Mrs. Miller said. "The governor has stood against everything the women have asked, against everything pertaining to child welfare."

New Coiffure of Queen Upsets Entire Retinue

Marie Gets Permanent Wave and is So Pleased With Results That Princess Heana Pursued to Visit Paris Barber Shop.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Queen Marie had her hair permanently waved today. For three hours and a half this morning, the queen, who will leave for the United States on Tuesday, submitted herself to the ministrations of the most noted of all Parisian coiffeurs—a little man with a shop just off the Rue de la Paix whose hands have helped to beautify more than one crowned head of Europe.

When she returned to her suite at the Hotel Ritz more than half an hour late for a luncheon engagement, the queen was more or less the envy of all feminine eyes. She seemed to feel almost girlish satisfaction at having done something not every woman of her age—she is almost 51—would dare to do.

CHICAGO POLICE GRAFT SCALE IN AGENTS' HANDS

GOVERNMENT GATHERS DETAILS OF HUGE RING

Genna Combination Suffered Great Drain on Funds from Payments

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—(AP)—A graft scale for members of the Chicago police department, paid monthly by liquor gangsters, quoted patrolmen at $15 and mounted to near the thousand dollar mark for high officials, evidence in the hands of federal officials reveals, the Chicago Herald and Examiner said tonight.

This was disclosed by the government as it gathered details of wholesale protection of liquor interests by officers for presentation to the federal grand jury Wednesday and was said to have been the high spot in their move for the indictment of dishonest police.

Patrolmen received $15 monthly from the Genna combine in return for protection, sergeants $25, captains $150, and high officials $500 and up, according to information secured by investigators. At the time the Genna power over gangland passed a year ago, after several Genna brothers were slain one after the other, about 300 patrolmen were receiving their monthly "allowance" from the booze leaders, it was reported.

So great a drain did this become upon the Genna profits that it led to a gun battle between gangsters and police in which a representative of each was slain, it was said.

A 25-page written statement, said to have been given to federal officers by a former Genna gangster and naming police who received the graft money, is expected to be the government's chief weapon in securing indictments.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The jury in the Daugherty-Miller conspiracy case late tonight reported inability to agree but was ordered to return to the jury room for further deliberations. At the time of their report, the case had been in their hands for more than 25 hours.

In telling the jury that he could not accept their disagreement as final, Judge Mack said that the jurors might retire for the night as soon as they liked. INDIAN PRINCE TO VISIT U. S.

Maharajah of Rajpipla May Bring Sacred White Elephant on Trip

HEADS SMALL DOMAIN

Hanuman, Monkey God, Has for Centuries Been Chief Divinity of His Two Tribes of Followers

(By Central Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Four years ago a dark and smiling young man called on President Harding at the White House and was received as befits a visiting monarch. This year the young ruler, the Maharajah of Rajpipla, is to repeat his call and will again, it is expected, journey to Washington to pay his respects to the president.

The Maharajah is at present in London, to which he recently brought a sacred white elephant. It is not yet determined whether or not he is to bring the same elephant, or another equally sacred, to America.

The Maharajah's domain is the smallest of 600 native Indian states. In America it would be considered a fair sized county—and about as important as the average county.

A national geographic bulletin says: "Rajpipla is about 300 miles north of the city of Bombay, in the northwestern part of India. The state is slightly larger than Rhode Island and has about two-thirds the population of Providence. The Maharajah is king."
