Women Voters to Meet in Conjunction With Etokta Club

Members of the Salem branch, National League of Women Voters, will meet jointly with the Salem Etokta club on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, 515 Market street.

Mrs. Rex Sanford, president of the league, has arranged a program devoted entirely to the election measures and amendments to be submitted to the Oregon voters on November 2. Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, will be the speaker of the afternoon. Mr. Koser will talk upon the manner in which the proposed constitutional amendments and measures are referred to the people.

A concentrated effort is being made by the National League of Women Voters and the many other women's organizations to arouse women to take advantage of their duties of citizenship, the right of which was procured for them by long years of struggle. The league works to promote the education of the woman citizen and to urge her to work for law enforcement and improved national, state and local legislation.

Major C. A. Robinson Will Address University Women at Luncheon Saturday

Members of the program committee of the American Association of University Women met with unusual good fortune when they planned for the opening meeting of the season which will take place at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow at the Marlon hotel. The club has secured Major C. A. Robinson as speaker of the afternoon.

Major Robinson, who spent 12 years in government and commercial service abroad, has had an extraordinary opportunity to acquaint himself with European politics from the inside. The guests at tomorrow's luncheon will have opportunity to hear vital facts from an authentic standpoint.

Committee appointments will be announced tomorrow and plans for the study groups outlined. Reservations for the luncheon should be made by calling Mrs. Robert Dann at 1450-J.

Business Girls' Dinner at First Congregational Church

Business and professional women of the First Congregational church and their friends will be guests at a 6 o'clock dinner this evening in the church dining room. Mrs. Merk McCallister, assisted by the girls of her Sunday school class, are in charge of the arrangements.

A short program of music and talks will conclude promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

House Guests at Goulet Home

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet will have as their guest for an indefinite period Mrs. Goulet's mother, Mrs. J. A. Norwood. Mrs. Norwood arrived at the Goulet home from Seattle over the past weekend.

Other guests at the Goulet home the first of the week were Mrs. J. R. Justice of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. William Dielschneider of McMinville. Mrs. Dielschneider, Mrs. Justice and Mrs. Goulet are sisters.

Cooked Food and Apron Sale

Ladies of the Knight Memorial church will sponsor a cooked food and apron sale on Saturday at the S. P. ticket office at 184 North Liberty street.

"The Ancient Mariner" to Be Shown at Church

One of the notable screen productions of the present time, William Fox's "The Ancient Mariner," based on Samuel Taylor Coleridge's classic poem, will be featured on Sunday at the First Congregational church.

This film is doubtless the most picturesque fantasy ever screened, combining as it does a vital, modern story with the immortal poem.

Well Attended Rally Is Held at Jason Lee Church

Over fifty persons were present at the rally social held at Jason Lee church Tuesday evening by the high school department of the Sunday school. The leaguers room, where the social was held, was attractively decorated with autumn leaves and streamers of yellow and green crepe paper.

Committee Chairmen From National P.T. Congress to Attend State Meeting

Mrs. B. I. Elliott, treasurer of the national congress of Parent-Teachers, will be present at the state convention to be held in Salem. In addition two national chairmen will participate in the sessions, Mrs. J. F. Hill, national chairman of the student loan department, who is also a director of the Oregon congress and editor of the Oregon Parent-Teacher Monthly, and Mrs. Jennie Nichols, national chairman of humane education. Mrs. Elliott has just returned from St. Louis, Mo., where she attended the national board meetings. Twenty-three states were represented at the board meeting and plans were perfected for the program of the national convention to be held in Oakland, Cal. in May.

Other business before the board was the approval of the book system of advertising on the part of national advertisers in the publications of the state Parent-Teacher bodies. The chairman of the committee making this advertising research was Mrs. C. B. Simmons of Portland, who is also manager of the Oregon Parent-Teacher Monthly and who will take part in the convention in Salem. After leaving St. Louis, Mrs. Elliott proceeded to Washington, D. C. where she spent some time at the national headquarters, meeting the other officials and going over the books and records of the association. She reports $21,515 in the national treasury.
