

BARNEY MOORE AT GRAND THEATRE

Immense Crowds Make Necessary Use of More Room for Revival Meetings

The B. S. Moore Revival Party fresh from virgin fields in Idaho where a tremendously successful revival campaign has been in progress for some weeks, opened to an enthusiastic crowd at the Grand theater Saturday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore, popularly known as the Earthquake Evangelists, spent many years in the Orient in missionary work, being in Japan at the time of the great earthquake of 1923 when the city of Yokohama and many other small towns were completely devastated within a few seconds.

During the past twenty-five years these evangelists have covered over three hundred thousand miles of territory and consequently have a large fund of experience to draw from. Rev. Moore believes in and preaches an old-fashioned gospel for old-fashioned sin. Is the days of miracles past? Come and hear what this man of God has to say about divine healing. Healing for the body as well as for the soul.

A very special musical program will be given every night at 7:30 in charge of Edith Wilson Clark, song leader and soloist of international fame. A special feature will be "Colored Spirituals" by the party quartet and S. K. Clark, male soprano soloist of former vaudeville fame. There will also be instrumental numbers and choruses by the Christian and Missionary Alliance choir, under whose auspices this party is working.

Sunday afternoon Dr. Moore has chosen for his subject "In the Days of His Preparation." Sunday evening the message will be "Three Locations of Hell, and Who's Going There." There will be special music and S. K. Clark will sing "The Holy City." Monday evening Dr. Moore will give his personal experience in the great Japanese earthquake.

Don't miss any of these meetings. Every night at 7:30 at the old Grand theater, North High and Court streets.

was only a slight resemblance to the woman of the Salinas affidavits. Woolley then countered with the declaration that he was positive in his identification of Mrs. Kimball as "Miss X" of the Carmel hoax.

The identification drew a shot from a new quarter as the district attorney's office declared that it held a statement by Woolley describing the author of the Salinas affidavit and that this description "is totally different from the correct description of Mrs. Kimball."

Russell Scott, notary public at Salinas, who acknowledged the affidavit was quoted as refusing to identify Mrs. Kimball as the mystery woman and stating that he was not certain that he had ever seen her before.

Ever before since her repudiation of her first statements regarding the Carmel affair, made while she said she was seeking to manufacture evidence to clear

Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. Wiseman has denied that the "Miss X" who aided her by a Salinas appearance was her sister. On the witness stand during the present hearing of herself, Mrs. McPherson and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, she has named this mystery woman as Rachael Wells of Philadelphia.

MAIL BANDITS ESCAPE

CORDON OF TROOPS WITH-DRAWN FROM MOUNTAINS

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Oct. 15.—The eight mail bandits who killed a postal employe and obtained $151,700 in cash at Elizabeth have escaped the cordon of 500 state troopers, police and volunteers thrown around a 180-mile area of the Watchung mountains. Major Mark Kimberling tonight ordered the men in and admitted that the bandits had made a getaway.

"The men came out of the hills," Major Kimberling said, "on a road that we did not happen to have blocked, although state troopers were within three or four blocks of it."

Six persons saw the car leave the hills, according to Kimberling.
