MacDowell Club Will Open Season Monday, Oct. 25

Of particular interest, inasmuch as it will formally open the MacDowell club season for 1932-3, is announced for Monday evening, Oct. 25, at Waller Hall. The program will feature Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, famous pianist and musical critic, who has recently returned to Portland from New York city; Miss Iva Claire Love, gifted violinist who is spending the winter in Salem after advanced study in the Cornish school in Seattle, and Ronald Craven, a particularly popular tenor who is a student of Prof. E. W. Hobson, head of the music department at Willamette university. The accompanists for the evening will be Miss Dorothy Pearce and Miss Joan Hobson.

Shower at Clark Home Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. M. Innocenti and Mrs. Frank Clark were hostesses last week at the Clark home when they entertained with a shower honoring Miss Emily Sprenger whose marriage to Ellis Lauderback will be an event of the near future.

Many beautiful and useful gifts, filling an express wagon, were delivered to the bride-elect by Miss Elmo Innocenti.

A mock wedding was a feature of the evening's entertainment, with Miss Flavella Haynes as the bride. Miss Bessie St. Clair took the role of the groom. Miss Margaret St. Clair was best man, while little Glenys McReynolds was ring bearer and Elmo Innocenti train bearer. Mrs. J. Lickis was the officiating clergyman. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Music Section Meets at Seitz Home on Monday

The music section sponsored by the music class of the Salem Arts League held its first meeting on Monday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Haas Seitz on Court street.

A paper, dealing with the very early history of music and its progression toward modern tendencies, and an account of the origin of music, including the beginning of melody and systems of notation, was read and explained by Professor Seitz. The latter topic included the period of time from 600 to 800 A. D., up to the time the first music was published in the United States in 1721.

New members who were taken into the society are Miss Lily Polard, Miss Helen Mae Hirron and Miss Emily Alt.

After the class work the group enjoyed hearing the opera, "The Valkyrie," over the radio.

On next Monday evening, Oct. 25, the regular meeting of the music section will be held at the home of Professor Seitz at 1156 Court street, when Beethoven will be studied and a Beethoven program given.

Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson Returns From Honolulu

The many friends of Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson are welcoming her home from a six weeks absence in California and in the Hawaiian islands. Mrs. Thompson spent 21 delightful days on the islands, visiting the volcanic island and the sugar and pineapple plantations as special features. Mrs. Thompson enjoyed passage over with Miss Constance Clarke, former children's librarian at the city library; and a day's visit with Mrs. Ivan Bellinger, also a former Salem resident. Mrs. Thompson brought home not only many pictures, but also interesting Hawaiian music which, as well as certain examples in literature, depicts tropical atmosphere as nothing else can.

In California Mrs. Thompson spent a delightful interval at Carmel-by-the-Sea, where she has taken a cottage in anticipation of a pleasant spring season to be spent with her children, Peggy

Former Salem Student Is Married in Eugene

Salem friends of Dorsey E. Dent, formerly a student at Willamette university, will be interested in the news of his marriage to Miss Laura Nelson of Astoria on Saturday in Eugene.

Rev. R. L. Putnam, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, Salem, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stivers.

The service was read at high noon in the First Christian church at Eugene before a large company of friends. A profusion of autumn flowers and leaves decorated the altar and the aisles. The bride was attended by her sister as maid of honor, while the groom's brother was best man.

Eight bridesmaids, in frocks of pastel silks, all made alike, formed an arch through which the bride passed in her satin and chiffon wedding gown and full length veil.

The bride carried an exquisite shower bouquet of rosebuds and maidenhair fern.

Little Winona Putnam, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam of Salem, was ring bearer. She wore a frock of pale silk and carried a basket of blossoms in which was concealed the ring.

A prelude of chimes music was given in the church before the impressive strains of the wedding music.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dent left for a wedding trip to Portland and Astoria. They will make their home in Eugene at one of the halls of which they will be in charge.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dent are graduates of the Eugene Bible Institute in which Mr. Dent is now an instructor. Mr. Dent is taking post-graduate work in the Bible school and is also completing work at the University of Oregon. Mr. Dent was prominent in debating circles during his undergraduate days. He has been ordained for the ministry.

A reception at one of the residence halls followed the ceremony.

Model Child Library to Be Featured

A model child's library will be on exhibit at the Salem public library during the Convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held here October 26 to 29. This exhibit has been arranged through the courtesy of Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian and will be of interest to parents and public school teachers who are interested in furthering good reading habits in children.

A. A. U. W. Literature Section Meets Tonight

A particularly interesting study group, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, will be the class in literature, which Mrs. Ellen Fisher will lead.

The class will meet for the first study at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the educational room at the city library.

Those interested are asked to call Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, chairman of the educational committee, at 1847-R.
