Boy Raised in Arctic Will Give Civilization a Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)-Civilization and "easy living" is being put to the test by Thomas "Mickey" Gordon. The "trial" will determine whether Mickey, who was born at Point Barrow, Alaska, 21 years ago, and lived there until this fall, will go back to the Northland. Mickey was brought here by his father, Tom Gordon, fur trader at Point Barrow for 40 years. Tom Gordon fitted out the 1915 expedition of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the ship 3,000,000 feet lumber, third explorer, and is a personal friend of Roald Amundsen.
