NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Marion, on the 16th day of October, 1926, duly made, rendered and entered an order as follows:

It is, therefore, ordered and adjudged by the Court that on and after Monday, the 1st day of November, 1926, thence following and until May 1, 1927, all county roads of the County of Marion, State of Oregon, which are not paved with hard surface pavement, be subject to the following restriction and maximum load limitation, to-wit: On any vehicle the concentrated weight bearing on the surface of the highway at contact with the tread of the two wheels of any one axle of such vehicle shall not exceed the product in pounds of the sum of the entire width of the two wheels of such axle multiplied by 350. This order shall apply to either motor or horse drawn vehicles.

All persons will therefore observe the foregoing order and govern themselves according.

MANY LEARNING TO MAKE BASKETS

About a Hundred in Classes Last Year, and Perhaps More for This Year

Many Salem people, mostly women, are learning to make baskets and other wicker work. About 100 were in the classes of last year, taught by L. B. Dunsmoor, of the Salem Wicker Furniture Manufacturing company, 2218 state street.

There are already Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evening classes, with 36 members. Mr. Dunsmoor is now organizing Wednesday evening classes. Perhaps there will be two of them. Beginners will be taken Wednesday.

There is a class organizing at Napavine, Wash., and asking for Mr. Dunsmoor to instruct them, on Saturday evenings.

The adult blind school at Portland had a representative to see him a few days ago, about teaching basketry there. He has helped in getting classes started at the state tuberculosis hospital here, and the Portland teachers want to get him to help in the same work. Looks like busy times ahead for Mr. Dunsmoor.

His work under the state and federal vocational boards, and half the tuition is from the state and government funds. This makes the fees for learners in his classes small.

Mr. Dunsmoor is also doing a lot of work for Portland people, in furniture making, as well as for many other outside places. He is bringing a lot of outside money to Salem.

R. L. Brockley of Roseburg is in this city on business.

Mrs. O. A. Babcock of Silverton is a visitor in this city.

NEW FLAGS SHOWN FOR FIRST TIME

Colors for Veterans of Foreign Wars to Be Dedicated in December

The new United States flag and the new post flag of Marion post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were seen last night for the first time by members of the post and declared to be the finest examples of their kind in the state.

The flags were embroidered by the vocational education department of the state in Portland and give some idea of the work this department is doing under the supervision of the superintendent of public instruction. The post flag has the cross of Malta embroidered on one side and state seal on the other.

Marion post introduced the uniform street flag decoration in Salem whereby each merchant has his own flag and standard to display on proper occasions, and it is the hope of the post that new merchants will avail themselves of the opportunity to get uniform flags before Armistice day. Henry O. Miller at 184 S. Commercial street is handling the flags and staffs for the organization.

Clyde Warrens, department commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars, and his staff will come to Salem the first Wednesday in November to dedicate the new colors of the local post.

PROCEEDINGS DISMISSED

Judge L. H. McMahan of the Marion county circuit court, yesterday dismissed mandamus proceedings filed by A. G. Lyons, doing business as the Star Employment Agency in Portland, to compel C. H. Gram, state labor commissioner, to grant him a license to operate.

Mr. Gram refused to issue the license at the time Mr. Lyons filed his application with the result that the applicant appeared to the courts.

J. A. Smith, Aumsville farmer, was in Salem Thursday.

Peter Burkhardt of Sublimity visited at the county court house yesterday.
